

CMP: 103

Stop Loss: 97

Duration: 20 Days

- We reiterate our BUY recommendation on NOCIL LTD with a Target Price of Rs 113, an upside of 10% from CMP of Rs 103 and Stop Loss Rs 97.
- Likely imposition of Anti Dumping Duty (ADD) on couple of products could be near term trigger for the stock.
- Rising preference of OEMs to look for non-Chinese dependable suppliers to unlock significant growth opportunities from a medium term perspective. We believe, the trend of shift in global supply chains independent of China is here to stay and benefit NOCIL, leader in Rubber Chemicals segment in India.
- One of NOCIL's long standing customer's has upgraded its status from a regional supplier to being a global supplier.
- Indications of gradual recovery in auto demand from a major domestic Auto OEM also points to improving demand conditions beyond Q1FY21 thus positive for Rubber Chemicals.

About Axis Alpha

OBJECTIVE:

The objective of Axis Alpha is to generate absolute return for investors and traders. Axis Alpha is fundamental short term stock call based on the events, valuations, market direction or a mix of these. The duration of the call can be as short as a week to as long as a month (30 days). These short term calls are generated by the fundamental research team of Axis securities and the calls can differ from the fundamental long-term recommendation on the stock. The average expected returns for these calls will be 5%. All the calls will be provided with Stop Losses.

EVENTS BASED:

The calls are based on the following factors. While this is not a complete list of factors but most of the calls will be based on the following:

- Quarterly results: Results are likely to be better or worse than expectations resulting in a +/-5% move for the stock
- Mergers and acquisition: Mergers or acquisitions by companies can result in significant price movements in either directions
- Major blocks or capital raising programs results in significant price movements
Regulatory announcements affecting the industry
- Competition announcements impacting the industry as a whole. Example Jio cutting tariffs impacts all the telecom players
- Others

VALUATIONS BASED:

Significant run up or compression can result in short term opportunities for corrections in either direction.

MARKET MODES:

Risk on or risk off mode of market has impact on stocks depending on stocks beta, leverage and nature of industry. These provide opportunities.

SUITABILITY:

This product is suitable for seasoned investors and traders as we stop losses get triggered based on market conditions. Also there can be high degree of volatility as some months can be very bad and some could be exceptionally good. However, the endeavour will be to deliver solid absolute returns.
