| Average Cost of Indebtedness             | Total interest cost (including amounts capitalised and exchange loss on foreign currency borrowings) to the average borrowings during the period. The Average Cost of Indebtedness is helpful in understanding the overall interest rate being paid by a company for various types of debt financing. This measure gives investors an idea of the company’s risk level compared to others because riskier companies generally have a higher cost of debt. |

Internal Risk Factors

Risks Relating to our Business

- 1. A slowdown in economic growth in India could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We operate in the luxury-upper upscale and upscale hotel segments in India according to the Horwath Report, where consumer demand from business, leisure, MICE (meetings, incentives, conferences and events) travellers for our services is highly dependent on the general economic performance in India and globally. There is a history of increases and decreases in demand for hotel rooms, in occupancy levels and in rates realized by owners and operators of hotels through macro-economic cycles, according to the Horwath Report. Variability of results through some of the cycles in the past has been more severe due to changes in the supply of hotel rooms in given markets or in given categories of hotels. For example, according to the Horwath Report, a slowdown in demand growth starting from the global financial crisis in the financial year 2008 and a corresponding slowdown in the Indian economy resulted in moderate performance in the industry between the financial years 2008 and 2013. Any future slowdown in economic growth could affect business and personal discretionary spending levels and lead to a decrease in demand for our services for prolonged periods.

Such events could lead to a reduction in revenue derived from our hotels. During periods of such economic contraction, we may have to delay or cancel our ongoing or proposed investments in new projects or our ongoing investments in developing new properties may not yield results that we anticipated. We cannot assure you that such macroeconomic and other factors, which are beyond our control would not significantly affect demand for our services. Consequently, the occurrence of such events could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. For details, of fluctuations in demand in the hospitality industry in India in recent years, see “Industry Overview – Supply and Demand” and “Industry Overview – Performance of Hotels in India in Recent Years” commencing on pages 138 and 144, respectively.

2. We have entered into hotel operation and related agreements with Marriott to receive operation and marketing services in relation to our hotels. If our hotel operators decide to terminate or not renew any agreement with us, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected.

As of September 30, 2018, we own four hotels (including a hotel with a co-located serviced residence) which are operated by third parties, which represent 2,176 keys in aggregate. Our hotels operated by third parties accounted for 84.73%, 90.23%, 89.46% and 89.92% of our revenue from operations for the six months ended September 30, 2018 and financial years 2018, 2017 and 2016, respectively. As of September 30, 2018, these hotels are operated by a single third party hotel operator, Marriott Hotels India Private Limited and its affiliates (collectively, “Marriott”).

We benefit from hotel operation contracts with Marriott, with terms generally ranging from 10 to 20 years, in order to avail hotel operation services for these hotels. The hotel operation agreements provide the hotel operator with day-to-day operational discretion, including personnel management, setting price and rate schedules, managing food and beverage service, procurement of inventories, supplies and services, negotiating and executing agreements with third parties such as vendors, licensees and concessionaires and carrying out marketing, sales, reservations and advertising operations for the hotel, among others. For our hotels we are generally obliged to pay one time fees for design and construction consulting services, as well as, periodic operating fees, management fees, royalty fees for licensing the use of certain trademarks, fees for centralised services, trainings, reservations and loyalty programs and other technical services rendered based on invoices raised and reimbursements for advertising, marketing, promotion, sales and software related expenses incurred by the hotel operator or their affiliates.

Pursuant to such agreements, we are required to maintain good and marketable title in the freehold property and hotel building, free and clear of any and all liens, encumbrances, or other charges. Other than in the manner specifically set out under the agreements, we agree not to enter into or grant a mortgage on the hotels. We are obliged not to enter into any agreement for the sale or transfer of some of the hotels (other than among certain specified affiliates) unless we obtain prior written consent of the respective hotel operator. Further, we may be required to notify hotel operators of our intent to develop a new hotel in a defined area and in good faith negotiate an operating agreement for such hotel as per present or future agreements, we execute.

We cannot assure you that we will be able to fully comply with all the terms of the agreements which we have entered into in relation to our hotels. In the event that any agreement for our hotels is terminated due to our non-compliance with its terms or for any other reason, we may be subject to certain damages and may be unable to replace the operator within a reasonable time or may be required to operate the hotel on our own. In case of termination, we may be unable to benefit from the existing marketing expenditure and similar operating expenditures made by us or the hotel operators. The hotel operation contracts for our hotel, including our serviced residence, at Powai, Mumbai will be due for renewal in March 2020, and for our hotel at Mindspace, Hyderabad will be due for renewal in December 2021. Subject to other terms, these contracts stipulate that they are to be renewed six and 11 months prior to their expiry for the properties at Powai, Mumbai and Mindspace, Hyderabad respectively. We have entered into a non-binding memorandum of understanding with Marriott, which is valid until March 31, 2019, for re-branding our hotel at Powai, Mumbai to ‘Westin’. We are currently in the process of negotiating terms with Marriott and intend to enter into definitive hotel operating agreement(s), subject to acceptance of terms by both parties and receipt of relevant approvals, including approvals from the board of directors of each party. If we are unable to renew such agreements or enter into new agreements including pursuant to the memorandum of understanding entered into by us, in the future, on terms favourable to us, or at all, we will not be able to leverage our longstanding association with Marriott and we may have to incur additional expenditure to conduct improvements and repairs in accordance with brand standards of subsequent hotel operators. In the event an agreement is terminated prior to its tenure, or if it is not renewed, or if we are required to cease our relationship with certain hotel operators, for any reason whatsoever, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected.

3. *We utilize the brands of third party licensors, and rely on third parties for the quality of services at our hotels. Any adverse impact on the reputation of our hotels or a failure of quality control systems at our hotels could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We do not have our own hotel brand and utilize the brands of our brand licensors to market our hotels. We benefit from agreements entered into with Marriott for use of global brands such as JW Marriott, Westin, Marriott, Marriott Executive Apartments, Renaissance and Four Points by Sheraton. In the event these agreements are terminated prior to their tenure, or if not renewed, we may not have access to these brands and their loyalty programs. For example, our license agreement for our hotel at Vashi, Navi Mumbai will be due for renewal in December 2021. Further, we may seek to rebrand our hotel assets or reposition our properties by using alternate brands at our hotels. In the event we are unable to execute agreements with international brands of similar to higher positioning as our current brands, our business, financial condition and results of operations may be adversely affected including due to disruptions and expenses related to such re-flagging or re-branding.

Further, the performance and quality of services at our hotels are critical to the success of our business. As our hotels are in the luxury-upper upscale and upscale hotel segments, we are expected to provide high levels of service quality. Any incident where our hotels lack, or are perceived to lack, such standards may adversely affect our reputation. Our quality standards depend significantly on the effectiveness of quality control systems and standard operating procedures, which in turn, depend on the skills and experience of our hotel operators, our personnel, the quality of training programs, and our ability to ensure that such hotel operators and personnel adhere to stipulated policies and guidelines. Any decrease in the quality of services rendered at our hotels including due to reasons beyond our control, or on account of deficiency or inefficiency of the hotel operators, or any third party service provider, including but not limited to non-compliance with the terms and conditions set out in the agreements or arrangements with such hotel operators or third party service providers, or allegations of defects, even when false, at any of our hotel properties could tarnish the image of our hotels, result in negative reviews and feedback from our guests on online travel portals and may cause guests to choose the services of our competitors.

We are also dependent on third party service providers for providing some of the services to our guests such as spas, manpower contracts and laundry, among others, and any failure or deficiency on the part of such service providers may adversely affect our hotels' reputation and profitability. Any adverse development or decline in quality involving our hotels may impair our reputation, dilute the impact of branding and marketing initiatives and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

4. *A significant portion of our revenues are derived from a few hotels and from hotels concentrated in a few geographical regions and any adverse developments affecting such hotels or regions could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We own a portfolio of five operating hotels (including a hotel with a co-located serviced residence), representing 2,328 keys as of September 30, 2018, in Mumbai Metropolitan Region, Hyderabad and Bengaluru. Consequently, our revenues are derived from a few hotels and from hotels concentrated in a few geographical regions. Our hotel, convention centre and serviced residence at Powai, Mumbai contributed to 26.08%, 28.14%, 32.41% and 39.82% of our revenue from operations for the six months ended September 30, 2018 and financial years 2018, 2017 and 2016, respectively and our hotel at Sahar, Mumbai, contributed to 25.66%, 27.72%, 29.02% and 26.08% of our revenue from operations for the six months ended September 30, 2018 and financial years 2018, 2017 and 2016, respectively. Further, our hotels located in the Mumbai Metropolitan Region contributed to 57.33%, 61.71%, 68.40% and 74.50% of our revenue from operations for the six months ended September 30, 2018 and financial years 2018, 2017 and 2016, respectively. Any decrease in revenues from these hotels, including due to increased competition or supply, or reduction in demand, in the markets in which these hotels operate, may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Further, any significant disruption, including due to social, political or economic factors or natural calamities, epidemics or civil disruptions, impacting these hotels or these regions may adversely affect our business. Changes in the policies of the state or local governments of the regions where these hotels are located, could require us to incur significant capital expenditure and change our business strategy. We cannot assure you that we will be able to address our reliance on these few hotels and hotels located in these regions, in the future.

5. Our residential project at Koramangala, Bengaluru is the subject matter of litigation with Hindustan Aeronautics Limited. Any adverse order in relation to this litigation may adversely affect our ability to complete the project, and our business, results of operations and reputation.

We own a property situated at Koramangala Industrial Layout, Bengaluru, where we are constructing a residential complex (the “Property” and the residential complex, the “Koramangala Project”). The Property is located within the proximity of an aerodrome operated by the Hindustan Aeronautics Limited (“HAL”). HAL is responsible for the issuance of no-objection certificates (“NOC”) related to the height of structures in the vicinity of the aerodrome. Accordingly, we were required to submit a report to HAL and also obtain their NOC in respect of the permissible height of the Koramangala Project. HAL granted their NOC dated October 28, 2011 for the development of a 17 floor residential building with height up to 62 meters on the basis of which we had started development of the Koramangala Project and have allotted apartments to several customers. Thereafter, the NOC granted was cancelled by HAL on August 16, 2013. At the time of such cancellation of the NOC, five wings with 17 floors had been constructed up to the height of 62 meters and more than 200 apartments had been allocated by us to our customers.

We filed a writ petition before the Karnataka High Court challenging HAL’s action cancelling the NOC, for directing HAL to permit us to construct up to the maximum height and further direct HAL to revalidate the NOC for a further period of five years from the date of the final order. Further, several customers of our Company have got themselves impleaded as respondents in the writ petition filed by us. The Karnataka High Court passed an interim order dated October 23, 2013 directing us not to modify/alter/renovate/develop the Property above 40 meters from ground level and further directed us not to sell or agree to sell or enter into an agreement with third parties in any manner whatsoever in respect of any portion of the Property above 40 meters. The Karnataka High Court passed a further order dated July 31, 2014 and an order dated November 5, 2015 directing the Airport Authority of India (“AAI”) to conduct an aeronautical study of the Bengaluru aerodrome as per the notified parameters of HAL airport and the requisite government notification. The AAI issued its report dated January 27, 2016 confirming that full height of the completed building-wings up-till then was permissible as it did not adversely affect aircraft operations. The writ petition is currently pending before the Karnataka High Court. For more details, see “Outstanding Litigation and Other Material Developments” on page 619.

Further, our Company has registered the Koramangala Project under the Real Estate (Regulation and Development) Act, 2016 (“RERA”) on a without prejudice basis and has also informed the Bruhat Bengaluru Mahanagara Palike (“BBMP”) as well as the customers of our Company about the writ petition. We have requested the BBMP for an extension of the validity period of the building sanction plan for the Koramangala Project. For our customers, we have also introduced a mitigation program. As part of the mitigation program, we offered the customers who had been allotted apartments an option either to sell the allotted apartment back to our Company or to continue with the Koramangala Project, and accept certain goodwill compensation. Some customers have exited the Koramangala Project whereas other customers have continued to hold their allocations and have accepted the goodwill compensation offered by us under the mitigation program. Further, as at September 30, 2018, in relation to the Koramangala Project, our Company has made provision for impairment of super structure of ₹ 350.89 million and expected cost of alteration of super structure of ₹ 250.00 million, provision for cost of mitigation program compensation and related expenses of ₹ 420.63 million in relation to potential cancellations (net of compensation already provided for), impact of revised estimated cost of completion of the project on the net realisable value of inventory resulting in write down of ₹ 93.74 million. In case all the buyers of flats above the 10th floor decide to exercise exit option, our Company may have to refund ₹ 944.07 million which is presently being accounted for as an advance from customers. For more details, see “Financial Information” on page 258.

In order to meet the costs, expenses and liabilities pertaining to the Koramangala Project, Ravi C. Raheja, Neel C. Raheja, K. *Our Company has initiated 7 proceedings before the relevant authorities in relation to refund of indirect taxes aggregating to ₹ 27.08 million. These proceedings are not included in the above table.

Involvement in such proceedings could divert our management's time and attention, and consume financial resources. Further, an adverse judgment in these proceedings could have an adverse impact on our business, results of operations and financial condition. For further details, in relation to the proceedings involving our Company, Group Companies, Promoters, Directors and Subsidiary, see "Outstanding Litigation and Other Material Developments" on page 619.

7. Any adverse development in the writ petition filed by our Promoter Directors, Ravi C. Raheja and Neel C. Raheja before the Karnataka High Court against the Registrar of Companies, Bengaluru in connection with the inclusion of their names in the list of disqualified directors under section 164(2)(a) of the Companies Act, 2013 may affect their ability to continue on the Board of our Company, and on the board of directors of our Subsidiary and Group Companies, and thus, may have an adverse effect on our business and reputation.

The names of two of our Directors, Ravi C. Raheja and Neel C. Raheja, who are also our Company's Promoters, have been included in the list published on the official website of the Ministry of Corporate Affairs as persons disqualified by the Registrar of Companies, Bengaluru for appointment as directors under section 164(2) (a) of the Companies Act, 2013 for the period from November 1, 2014 to October 31, 2019 and November 1, 2015 to October 31, 2020. The said disqualification is in relation to non-filing of financial statements or annual returns for a continuous period of three financial years by K. Raheja Hotels and Estates Private Limited (which is a private company). K. Raheja Hotels and Estates Private Limited is part of Southern Undivided Companies. The Company Law Board, Chennai, ("CLB") appointed an administrator to manage the affairs of K. Raheja Hotels and Estates Private Limited on July 6, 2011 and its directors were not permitted to take any action without the approval of the administrator. The CLB also ordered the company to be marked as one having a 'management dispute' and directed the administrator to carry out all the statutory and other compliances. The said Directors, Ravi C. Raheja and Neel C. Raheja, through their letters dated February 17, 2014 (which is prior to their incurring any disqualification under the provisions of Companies Act 2013 and also prior to the relevant provisions of the Companies Act 2013 becoming applicable to private companies) addressed to the Registrar of Companies, Bengaluru (the "RoC") and the administrator resigned as Directors of K. Raheja Hotels and Estates Private Limited. These letters were acknowledged by the RoC and the administrator. The RoC issued a letter dated February 24, 2014 to K Raheja Hotels and Estates Private Limited stating that until the management dispute is settled or an interim order is received from a Court or Tribunal of competent jurisdiction, the documents filed by K Raheja Hotels and Estates Private Limited and the contesting group of its directors will not be approved/registered/recorded. For more details, see "Outstanding Litigation and Other Material Developments- Litigation involving Ravi C. Raheja".

Our Directors, Ravi C. Raheja and Neel C. Raheja have filed a writ petition before the Karnataka High Court against the Registrar of Companies, Bengaluru to stay the operation of the disqualifications and any other consequential action pursuant to the publication of the disqualification lists under section 164(2)(a) of the Companies Act, 2013. Through an interim order dated June 15, 2018, the Karnataka High Court has stayed the disqualification of Promoter Directors to act as directors. While the disqualification relates to a period when both Ravi C. Raheja and Neel C. Raheja had resigned and the administrator was in charge of fulfilling the statutory and other compliances of K. Raheja Hotels and Estates Private Limited, and that the Director Identification Number (DIN) of Ravi C. Raheja (DIN 00028044) and Neel C. Raheja (DIN 0029010) are currently active, we cannot assure that the Karnataka High Court will decide the writ petition in favour of our Directors, Ravi C. Raheja and Neel C. Raheja and any adverse development in the writ petition which may affect their ability to continue on the Board of our Company or on the board of directors of our Subsidiary or Group Companies may have an adverse effect on our business and reputation. For further details, see "Outstanding Litigation and Other Material Developments- Litigation involving Ravi C. Raheja".

8. We are subject to extensive government regulation with respect to safety, health, environmental, real estate, excise and labour laws. Any non-compliance with, or changes in, regulations applicable to us may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We are subject to a broad range of safety, health, environmental, real estate, excise and related laws and regulations in the jurisdictions in which we operate, which impose controls on our operations. In connection with our ownership of hotels and development of properties, we are subject to various national, state and local laws and regulations relating to environmental laws. Under some of these laws, an owner of real estate property may be held liable for the costs of investigating or remediating hazardous or toxic substances or wastes on, under or in such real property. Further, a person who arranges for the disposal or treatment of a hazardous or toxic substance, or who transports such substance to or from such property, may be liable for the costs of removal or remediation of such substance released into the environment at the disposal or treatment facility. The costs of investigating or remediating contamination at our properties or at properties where we sent substances or wastes for disposal, may be substantial.

Further, government regulations and policies of India, can also impact the demand for, expenses related to and availability of our hotel services and rooms. We are also subject to regulations, which are periodically amended, including relating to the sale and service of food, alcoholic and non-alcoholic beverages and hosting of events and weddings at our hotel properties. For example, there is a criminal proceeding initiated against our employee and our client who was hosting an event at our hotel property in Powai, Mumbai, for serving liquor without a valid permit. For details, see “Outstanding Litigation and Other Material Developments” on page 619. We have received certain notices in the last three fiscal years from Pollution Control Boards of Karnataka and Mumbai, Public Health Department of Municipal Corporation of Greater Mumbai and Food Safety and Standards Authority of India in relation to certain non-compliances by our Company with environmental, health and safety regulations. While we have responded to the notices and have taken remedial action at certain instances, we cannot assure you that we will not be involved in litigation or other proceedings in the future, in relation to safety, health, real estate, excise and environmental matters, which may result in additional liability for us.

The adoption of stricter health and safety laws and regulations, stricter interpretations of existing laws, increased governmental enforcement of laws or other developments in the future may require that we make additional capital expenditures, incur additional expenses or take other actions in order to remain compliant and maintain our current operations. Further, complying with, and changes in, laws and regulations or terms of approval may increase our compliance costs and adversely affect our business, prospects, results of operations and financial condition. We are also subject to the laws and regulations governing relationships with employees in such areas as minimum wages and maximum working hours, overtime, working conditions, hiring and termination of employees, contract labour and work permits and maintenance of regulatory or statutory records and making periodic payments. There is a risk that we may inadvertently fail to comply with such regulations, which could lead to enforced shutdowns and other sanctions imposed by the relevant authorities. Any losses that we incur in this regard could have an adverse effect on our reputation, business, results of operations and financial condition.

9. *Operational risks are inherent in our business as it includes rendering services at high quality standards at our hotels. A failure to manage such risks could have an adverse impact on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Certain operational risks are inherent in our businesses due to the nature of the industry in which we operate. We provide hospitality services, including food and beverage, cleaning and housekeeping, and security services, at our hotels. In rendering such services our personnel are required to adhere to regulatory requirements and standard operating procedures with regard to health, safety and hygiene and in their interaction with our guests and other members of the public. Food and beverage services require proper packaging and labelling and the careful and hygienic handling of food products, which if improperly packaged or handled may have an adverse impact on the health of our guests. Similarly, cleaning and housekeeping services involve the handling of chemicals such as cleaning solutions, which if handled improperly may have an adverse impact on the health of our employees, guests and on the environment. Consequently, our business is associated with certain safety, privacy and public health concerns.

Failure to effectively implement corporate, crisis response, training and management policies and protocols and to adequately address and manage risks inherent in our business, or a failure to meet the requirements of our guests, or a failure to develop effective risk mitigation measures, could have an adverse effect on our hotels' reputation, guest loyalty and consequently, our business, results of operations and financial condition.

10. This Red Herring Prospectus contains information from third party industry sources, including the report commissioned from Horwath HTL India and publicly available reports published by CBRE Research, which have not been independently verified by us. Prospective investors are advised not to place undue reliance on such information.

11. Our business is subject to seasonal and cyclical variations that could result in fluctuations in our results of operations.

The hotel and hospitality industry in India is subject to seasonal variations. The periods during which our hotel properties experience higher revenues vary from property to property, depending principally upon location and the guests served. Our revenues are generally higher during the second half of each financial year as compared to first half of the financial year. Seasonality affects leisure travel and the MICE sector (meetings, incentives, conferences and events) including weddings. According to the Horwath Report, the winter months are preferred for travel in India, for leisure, MICE events, management or business travel and more recently for destination weddings. Further, inbound foreign leisure travel varies more with climatic factors, such that it mainly occurs between October and March and to a lesser extent (with lower visitor profile and travel budgets) during the summer and monsoon seasons, as per the Horwath Report. This seasonality can be expected to cause quarterly fluctuations in our revenue, profit margins and net earnings. Further, the timing of opening of newly constructed hotels and the timing of any hotel acquisitions or dispositions may cause a variation of revenue and earnings from quarter to quarter. Further, the hospitality industry is subject to weekly variations. While leisure travel increases during weekends, business travel is high during the weekdays.

Further, the hospitality industry is cyclical, and demand generally follows, on a lagged basis, key macroeconomic indicators. There is a history of increases and decreases in demand for hotel rooms, in occupancy levels and in room rates realized by owners of hotels through macro-economic cycles according to the Horwath Report. The combination of changes in economic conditions and in the supply of hotel rooms, including periods of excess supply, can result in significant volatility in results for owners and managers of hotel properties. The costs of running a hotel tend to be more fixed than variable. As a result, in an environment of declining revenues the rate of decline in profits can be higher than the rate of decline in revenues.

As a result of such seasonal fluctuations, our room rates, sales and results of operations of a given half of the financial year may not be reliable indicators of the sales or results of operations of the other half of the financial year or of our future performance.

12. *We are exposed to risks associated with the development of our hotel properties and commercial and retail projects. Delays in the constructions of new buildings or improvements on our properties may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our development pipeline consists of 588 rooms across three hotels as well as approximately 1.12 million square feet of leasable commercial space across two projects as of September 30, 2018. Certain of our projects are being developed on land parcels contiguous to or adjoining existing hotels or projects. The development of such projects may impact regular business operations at the hotels or projects located in their proximity.

We classify projects for which land is owned by us or for which relevant agreements or memorandum of understanding having been executed for such use; relevant construction approvals have been applied for; and our preliminary design plans are complete, as projects under development. Development and construction of projects subject us to inherent development risks, including:

- the identification of, conducting diligence on and ascertaining title rights associated with suitable strategically located properties and the acquisition of such properties on favourable terms;
- competition from other real estate owner and developers, which may increase the purchase price of a desired property;
- insufficient cash from operations, or an inability to obtain the necessary debt or equity financing on satisfactory terms, to consummate an acquisition or a development project;
- availability, terms and conditions associated with and timely receipt of zoning and other regulatory approvals, the denial of which could delay or prevent placing a hotel or commercial and retail projects into operation;
- the cost and timely completion of construction (including unanticipated risks beyond our control, such as weather conditions or labour suspension, shortages of materials or labour and construction cost overruns); our dependency on the third parties whom we contract to construct our hotels or commercial and retail projects, including their ability to meet construction timing, quality and budget expectations;
- design or construction defects that could result in additional costs associated with repair, delay or the closing of part or all of a property during such repair period;
- the resulting lack of capitalization on any investment related to identifying and valuing development opportunities, should we subsequently decide to abandon such opportunities; and
- the ability to achieve an acceptable level of occupancy or tenancy upon completion of construction.

In the event we experience delays in the delivery of the construction works and design and engineering services for our new buildings or improvements for our existing buildings or if our contractors fail to comply with their obligations under their respective agreements, we will not be able to start operations until completion of the construction of new buildings or improvements on our existing properties. Further, the consents and approvals which we may require to develop and construct our hotels or commercial and retail projects may impose conditions with respect to the height, number of rooms or leasable area, security features and other operational aspects of our hotels and commercial and retail projects. Further, we have entered into memorandums of understanding with Marriott for the branding of, and hotel operations at, certain of our hotels under development. However we cannot assure you that we will be able to enter into definitive hotel operating agreement(s), in a timely manner, or at all, as the terms of the memorandums of understanding are subject to acceptance by both parties and receipt of relevant approvals, including approvals from the board of directors of each party. See “Our Business – Description of Our Business – Our Projects Under Development” on page 167.

These risks could result in substantial unanticipated delays or expenses as well alteration to the design and operational parameters of our properties. Under certain circumstances, these risks could prevent completion of development or redevelopment projects once undertaken, resulting in capital expenditure incurred and investments made being written off or making the project less profitable than originally estimated, or not profitable at all, and therefore have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

13. Our hotel located at Vashi, Navi Mumbai is subject matter of a litigation with City & Industrial Development Corporation of Maharashtra Limited (“CIDCO”). Any adverse order by the Supreme Court of India in this matter may result in a direction to demolish our hotel, which may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Our hotel located at Vashi, Navi Mumbai is situated on leasehold land allotted to our Promoter, K Raheja Corp Private Limited (“KRCPL”) by CIDCO. Agreements entered into by us in this regard provide that the possession of the land would be handed over to us on receipt of occupancy certificate for the premises. The premises after receipt of the occupation certificate, were handed over to us, and we have been operating our hotel since then. In terms of the agreements, we are entitled to use, occupy and operate our hotel at the premises.

The allotment of the land to KRCPL by CIDCO was challenged in two public interest litigations filed before the High Court of Bombay (“High Court”). The High Court held the allotment to be illegal, arbitrary and in violation of Article 14 of the Constitution of India and directed KRCPL to hand over vacant possession of the land to CIDCO within a period of six months from November 2014. KRCPL filed a special leave petition dated January 8, 2015 (“SLP”) before the Supreme Court of India (“Supreme Court”) against the order of the High Court. The Supreme Court has directed the parties to maintain status-quo and a SLP is currently pending before the Supreme Court. For more details, see “Outstanding Litigation and Other Material Developments” on page 619. The carrying value of our hotel asset as at September 30, 2018 is ₹ 443.78 million and the balance of prepaid lease rental in relation to the leasehold land as of September 30, 2018 is ₹ 53.92 million. For more details, see “Financial Information” on page 258. Any adverse order by the Supreme Court directing demolition of our hotel and handing over possession of the premises to CIDCO may adversely affect our reputation, business and results of operations.

14. A substantial portion of the Net Proceeds will be utilized for repayment/pre-payment of loans availed by our Company.

Our Company intends to deploy ₹ 7,200 million towards repayment/pre-payment of various borrowings availed by our Company, as indicated in the section titled “Objects of the Offer” on page 118. The scheduled repayment/pre-payment of the loans is subject to various factors including: (i) cost of the borrowing to our Company including applicable interest rates, (ii) any conditions attached to the borrowings restricting our ability to prepay or repay the borrowings and time taken to fulfil, or obtain waivers for fulfilment of such conditions, (iii) receipt of consents for prepayment from the respective lenders, as applicable (iv) terms and conditions of such consents and waivers, (v) levy of any prepayment penalties and the quantum thereof, (vi) receipt of requisite approvals in accordance with applicable laws, (vii) provisions of any laws, rules and regulations governing such borrowings, and (viii) other commercial considerations including, among others, the amount of the loan outstanding and the remaining tenor of the loan. Accordingly, the Net Proceeds will not be available for any capital expenditure or creation of tangible assets by our Company.

15. Low occupancy levels of our leased retail and commercial office space or lower footfalls at our retail malls may adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

We derive lease and rental income from the lease of our commercial and retail projects in Bengaluru and Mumbai. Our commercial and retail projects accounted for 3.62%, 2.76%, 1.99% and 0.13% of our revenue from operations for the six months ended September 30, 2018 and financial years 2018, 2017 and 2016, respectively. The amount that we receive in rental income is based upon the amount of space we have leased, the minimum guaranteed amount we charge for that leased space and our share of revenues from the clients to whom we have leased such space. The occupancy, revenue share and minimum guaranteed amount depend on various factors including the location and design of the project, the retail client mix, prevailing economic conditions and competition. During the six months ended September 30, 2018, financial years 2018 and 2017, our aggregate average occupancy levels at our commercial and retail projects were 93.70%, 92.34% and 90.16%, respectively. Future inability on our part to maintain and attract clients to lease our completed retail and commercial office projects may have an adverse effect on our revenues, financial condition and results of operations.

Further, risk of lower footfalls in our retail malls may adversely affect our revenues, business and results of operations. Various factors may affect customer profile and footfalls in both our existing retail malls and any new retail malls we acquire or develop, including location and floor layout for new retail developments and regional economy, amongst others, specific to the states in which we operate in. In addition, we believe that to successfully operate our retail developments and commercial office projects we need to have the ability to forecast demand, as well as enter into operating and branding relationships with popular retail clients. A decline in consumer and retail spending or a decrease in the popularity of the retail clients' business could cause retail clients to cease operations or experience significant financial difficulties that could harm our ability to continue to attract successful retail clients and visitors to our retail developments, which would adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

16. *We have a large number of personnel or third party service providers deployed across our hotels, consequently we may be exposed to service related claims and losses or employee disruptions that could have an adverse effect on our reputation, business, results of operations and financial condition.

We deploy a large workforce across our hotels. As of September 30, 2018, we had 2,457 permanent employees across our operations. In addition to our permanent employees, we utilize 531 personnel engaged on a contractual basis. The risks associated with the utilization of a large number of personnel include possible claims relating to:

- actions, inactions, errors or malicious acts by our personnel or third party service providers, including matters for which we may have to indemnify the guests at our hotels;
- failure of our personnel or third party service providers to adequately perform their duties including rendering deficient services, shortage in shift, absenteeism or lateness;
- violation by personnel of security, privacy, health and safety regulations and procedures;
- any failure to adequately verify personnel backgrounds and qualifications resulting in deficient services;
- injury or damages to any guest's person or property due to negligence of our personnel or third party service providers;
- criminal acts including sexual harassment, torts or other negligent acts by our personnel or third party service providers; and
- use of third party vehicles resulting in accidents.

These claims may give rise to litigation and claims for damages, which could be time-consuming. These claims may also result in negative publicity and adversely impact the reputation of our hotels. We may also be affected in our operations by the acts of third parties, including sub-contractors and service providers. Any losses that we incur in this regard may have an adverse effect on our reputation, business, results of operations and financial condition.

17. *We are exposed to a variety of risks associated with safety, security and crisis management.

We are committed to ensure the safety and security of our guests, employees and assets against natural and man-made threats. These include, but are not limited to, exceptional events such as extreme weather, civil or political unrest, violence and terrorism, serious and organized crime, fraud, employee dishonesty, cybercrime, pandemics, fire and day-to-day accidents, incidents, health crises of guests and petty crime which impact the guest or employee experience, could cause loss of life, sickness or injury and result in compensation claims, fines from regulatory bodies, litigation and impact our reputation. Further, the terror attacks in Mumbai in November 2008 combined with the global financial crisis led to a decline in foreign tourist arrivals in India in the financial year 2009, while foreign tourist arrival growth was slower in the year 2013 due to security concerns around women's safety, combined with a slowing economy, according to the Horwath Report. Serious incidents or a combination of events could escalate into a crisis which, if managed poorly, could further expose us and our hotels to significant reputational damage.

Any accidents or any criminal activity at our hotel properties may result in personal injury or loss of life, substantial damage to or destruction of property and equipment resulting in the suspension of operations. Any of the foregoing could subject us to litigation, which may increase our expenses in the event we are found liable, and could adversely affect our reputation and cause a loss of consumer confidence in our business. For example, in the year 2015 a police complaint was lodged against a certain employee at our hotel property at Powai, Mumbai, on the grounds of causing death by negligence as a result of death by drowning of one of our guests in the hotel swimming pool. For details, see “Outstanding Litigation and Other Material Developments” on page 619. Such events occurring at any one of our hotel properties may also have an adverse effect on our reputation and may also adversely affect operations of our other properties.

18. *Our operations are dependent on our ability to attract and retain qualified personnel, including our key senior management and any inability on our part to do so, could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our operations are dependent on our ability to attract and retain qualified personnel since we aim to provide our guests with high levels of service. While we believe that we currently have adequate qualified personnel for our operations, we may not be able to continuously attract or retain such personnel, or retain them on acceptable terms, given the demand for such personnel. Competition for qualified personnel with relevant industry expertise in India is intense and the loss of the services of our key personnel may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. We may require a long period of time to hire and train replacement personnel when qualified personnel terminate their employment with our Company. We may also be required to increase our levels of employee compensation more rapidly than in the past to remain competitive in attracting employees that our business requires.

Further, our performance depends largely on the efforts and abilities of our Promoters, including Mr. Ravi C. Raheja and Mr. Neel C. Raheja and senior management, including, Managing Director and CEO, Mr. Sanjay Sethi and our Executive Director and CFO, Mr. Rajeev Newar as well as other Key Managerial Personnel. We believe that the inputs and experience of our senior management and key managerial personnel are valuable for the development of business and operations and the strategic directions taken by our Company. We cannot assure you that we will be able to retain these employees or find adequate replacements in a timely manner, or at all. Any inability on our part to attract and retain qualified personnel and senior management could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

19. *We have incurred indebtedness which requires significant cash flows to service, and limits our ability to operate freely. We will continue to have indebtedness and debt service obligations following the Offer.

As on December 31, 2018, we had outstanding secured borrowings (excluding interest) of ₹ 25,655.29 million and unsecured borrowings (excluding interest) of ₹ 208.66 million on a consolidated basis. We may also incur additional indebtedness in the future. Our current or future level of leverage could have significant consequences for our shareholders and our future financial results and business prospects, including:

- increasing our vulnerability to a downturn in business in India and other factors which may adversely affect our operations;
- requiring us to dedicate a substantial portion of our cash flow from operations to service debt, thereby reducing the availability of cash-flows to fund capital expenditures and growth initiatives, meet working capital requirements and use for other general corporate purposes or make dividend payouts;
- limiting our flexibility in planning for, or reacting to, changes in our business and the industry in which we operate;

- placing us at a competitive disadvantage to any of our competitors that have less debt;
- increasing our interest expenditure;
- requiring us to meet additional financial covenants; and
- limiting our ability to raise additional funds or refinance existing indebtedness.

We cannot assure you that our business will generate cash in an amount sufficient to enable us to service our debt or proposed borrowings or fund other liquidity needs. In addition, we may need to refinance all or a portion of our debt on or before maturity. We cannot assure you that we will be able to refinance any of our debt on commercially reasonable terms, or at all.

For more information regarding our indebtedness, see the Section titled “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations – Indebtedness” and “Financial Indebtedness” on pages 585 and 616, respectively, of the Red Herring Prospectus.

20. *Our inability to meet our obligations, including financial and other covenants under our debt financing arrangements could adversely affect our business and results of operations.

Our financing agreements contain certain restrictive covenants that limit our ability to undertake certain types of actions, any of which could adversely affect our business and financial condition. Our Company and/or our Subsidiaries, as applicable, are required to obtain prior written consent from lenders for, among other things:

- change in shareholding control or management control without prior consent of the lender, as applicable;
- undertake or permit any amalgamation, demerger, merger, consolidation, scheme of arrangement or compromise with the shareholders or creditors;
- changing or altering capital structure;
- declaration or payment of dividend in case of event of default in payment of dues;
- raising of new loans against the security provided to existing lender;
- making any amendments to the memorandum and articles of our Company or our Subsidiary, as applicable; and
- reduction of shareholding of promoter group below 51% of our Company.

In addition, certain terms of our borrowings require us to maintain financial ratios, which are tested periodically, including on a quarterly or annual basis. In the event we breach any financial or other covenants contained in any of our financing arrangements, we may be required to immediately repay our borrowings either in whole or in part, together with any related costs. Any future failure to satisfactorily comply with any condition or covenant under our financing agreements (including technical defaults) may lead to a termination of one or more of our credit facilities, acceleration of amounts due under such facilities, and enforcement of events of default as well as cross-defaults under certain of our other financing agreements, any of which may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations.

We have in the past breached certain financial and sanction covenants with respect to five facilities that were availed by us. However, we have received letters from the lenders that have waived off the breach in relation to the financial covenant and letters which confirm that the Company has taken corrective actions in the form that were acceptable and no actions have triggered an event of default. For more details, see the Section titled “History and Certain Corporate Matters – Defaults or rescheduling of borrowings with financial institutions/banks, conversion of loans into equity by the Company” on page 181.

Further, we have granted security interests over certain of our assets, including our hotels and charge over operating cash flows and book debts, in order to secure our borrowings, and any failure to satisfy our obligations under such borrowings could lead to the forced sale and seizure of such assets, which may adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. For further details of our indebtedness, see “Financial Indebtedness” on page 616.

21. *The hotel industry is intensely competitive and our inability to compete effectively may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

The hotel industry in India is intensely competitive and we compete with large multinational and Indian companies, in each of the regions that we operate. Some of our competitors may develop alliances to compete against us or have more financial and other resources. We cannot assure you that new or existing competitors will not significantly lower rates or offer greater convenience, services or amenities or significantly expand or improve facilities in a market in which we operate. We may also face increased competition from internet-based homestay and hostel aggregators and alternative accommodation options such as luxury homestays and bed and breakfasts.

Our success is largely dependent upon our ability to compete in areas such as room rates, location of the property, the quality and scope of other amenities, including food and beverage facilities, quality of accommodation and service level as well as the brand recognition of our hospitality partners. In addition, our competitors may significantly increase their advertising expenses to promote their hotels, which may require us to similarly increase our advertising and marketing expenses and change our pricing strategies, which may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition. As a result, we cannot assure you that we will be able to compete successfully in the future against our existing or potential competitors or that our business and results of operations will not be adversely affected by increased competition.

22. *We have in the past entered into related party transactions which may potentially involve conflicts of interest.

We have entered into various transactions with related parties, including for the purposes of acquisition of land by sub-lease; provision of goods and services; non-exclusive and limited license use of trademarks; use and occupation of licensed premises; support services; and provision of repairs and maintenance services. See “Summary Financial Information – Restated Standalone Statement of Related Party Transactions and Balances” beginning on page 258.

We cannot assure you that we could not have achieved more favourable terms had such transactions been entered into with unrelated parties. Such related party transactions may potentially involve conflicts of interest which may be detrimental to the interest of our Company. For details on our related party transactions, see “Related Party Transactions” on page 255. We cannot assure you that such related party transactions, individually or in the aggregate, will always be in the best interests of our shareholders and will not have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

23. *Land title in India can be uncertain and we may not be able to identify or correct defects or irregularities in title to the land which we own or intend to acquire in connection with the development or acquisition of new hotels or properties.

There is no central title registry for real property in India and the documentation of land records in India has not been fully computerized. Property records in India are generally maintained at the state and district level and in local languages, and are updated manually through physical records. Therefore, property records may not be available online for inspection or updated in a timely manner, may be illegible, untraceable, incomplete or inaccurate in certain respects, or may have been kept in poor condition, which may impede title investigations or our ability to rely on such property records. In addition, there may be a discrepancy between the duration of the principal lease under different orders issued by state governments in respect of a particular parcel of revenue land. Furthermore, title to land in India is often fragmented, and in many cases, land may have multiple owners.

The difficulty of obtaining title guarantees in India means that title records provide only for presumptive rather than guaranteed title. The original title to lands may often be fragmented and the land may have multiple owners. In addition, title insurance is not commercially available in India to guarantee title or development rights in respect of land. The absence of title insurance, coupled with the difficulties in verifying title to land, may increase our exposure to third party claims to the property. Title may also suffer from irregularities, such as non-execution or non-registration of conveyance deeds and inadequate stamping, and may be subjected to encumbrances that we are unaware of. Any defects in, or irregularities of, title that we enjoy may prejudice our ability to continue to operate our hotels and commercial and real estate projects on such land and require us to write off substantial expenditures in respect of establishing such properties.

Further, improperly executed, unregistered or insufficiently stamped conveyance instruments in a property's chain of title, unregistered encumbrances in favour of third parties, rights of adverse possessors, ownership claims of family members of prior owners or third parties, or other defects that a purchaser may not be aware of can affect title to a property. Consequently, any acquisition of the land made by us is subject to risks and potential liabilities arising from inaccuracy of such information. Such inaccurate information and any defects or irregularities of title may result in the loss of title or development rights over the land, and the cancellation of our development plan in respect of such land. As a result, potential disputes or claims over title to the land on which our hotels are or will be situated may arise. The title to the land on which our hotel Four Points by Sheraton Navi Mumbai, Vashi is situated is subject to an ongoing litigation. For details, see “Outstanding Litigation and Other Material Developments” on page 619. Also, such disputes, whether resolved in our favour or not, may divert management's attention, harm our reputation or otherwise disrupt our business.

24. In the event that we are unable to acquire ownership or leasehold interest in lands or premises for which we have entered into agreements to sell, letters of intent, or similar arrangements, or the agreements to sell, letters of intent or similar agreements are held to be invalid or expire, then we may not be able to acquire such ownership or leasehold interest and may also lose advances paid.

As part of our land acquisition process, we enter into agreements to sell or similar arrangements with third parties prior to the transfer or conveyance of title to parcels of land to ensure that the sellers of the land satisfy certain conditions within the stipulated time frame specified under these agreements. Upon entering into such agreements to sell, we are required to pay these landowners certain advances towards the purchase of the lands. These agreements also provide that the lands must be conveyed in our favour within a prescribed period of time. In the event that we are not able to acquire the lands covered by these agreements to sell, we may not be able to recover all, or part of the advance monies related to these lands. Further, in the event that these agreements to sell are either invalid or have expired, we may lose the right to acquire these lands and also may not be able to recover the advances made in relation to the land. In addition, as part of our hotel development process, we enter into letters of intent or similar arrangements with third parties prior to the execution of lease deeds in order to ensure that the owners of the land and the hotel premises satisfy certain conditions prior to handing over possession to us.

Any indecisiveness or delay on our part to perform our obligations under these agreements or letters of intent may jeopardize our ability to acquire ownership or leasehold interest in these lands or premises before such agreements or letters of intent expire. Additionally, any failure to renew any of these agreements or letters of intent on similar terms or recover the advanced monies from the relevant counterparties following the expiration of the initial term of such agreement could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. We cannot assure you that such lands will be conveyed to us or that we will acquire leasehold interest in such premises, as applicable, and that we will be successful in acquiring them or that we will be successful in registering them in our name or the name of our Subsidiary.

25. We are subject to risks relating to owning real estate assets.

We are subject to risks that generally relate to real estate assets due to the hotel properties and commercial and real estate projects we own. Regulations and interest rates can make it more expensive and time-consuming to develop real property or expand, modify or renovate hotels or commercial and real estate projects. Changes in local markets or neighbourhoods may diminish the value of the real estate assets we hold. Real estate assets may not be as liquid as certain other types of assets, and this lack of liquidity may limit our ability to react promptly to changes in economic, market or other conditions. Our ability to dispose of real estate assets, if required, on advantageous terms depends on factors beyond our control, including competition from other sellers, demand from potential buyers and the availability of attractive financing for potential buyers. We cannot predict the various market conditions affecting real estate assets that may exist at any particular time in the future. Due to the uncertainty of market conditions that may affect the future disposition of our real estate assets, we cannot assure you that we will be able to sell our real estate assets at a profit in the future, if required.

- 26. *As on the date of this Red Herring Prospectus there are family disputes between some of our Promoters and the G. L. Raheja family as a result of which there could arise, from time to time, claims and counterclaims, between some of our Promoters and the G. L. Raheja family. Further, there are several litigation, pending at different forums in relation to the family separation arrangement and any adverse decision in relation to any of the matters may have an adverse effect on our reputation.

Our Promoters, Ravi C. Raheja and Neel C. Raheja, are involved in certain family disputes with G.L. Raheja family in relation to the division of properties and management of certain entities forming part of K Raheja Corp group. C.L. Raheja (father of Ravi C. Raheja and Neel C. Raheja) and the late G.L. Raheja had entered into various agreements to split or partition all entities and assets of the K. Raheja Corp Group between them. However, the separation and distribution of certain properties and entities, remained unresolved due to the differences between the groups. The G.L. Raheja family filed various suits in respect of the family arrangement against Ravi C. Raheja, Neel C. Raheja and others. Ravi C. Raheja and Neel C. Raheja have also filed suits against the G.L. Raheja family. For more details, see “Outstanding Litigation and Other Material Developments” on page 619. Any adverse decision by the courts in relation to any of these family litigations may have an adverse effect on our reputation.

- 27. *Our financing agreements entail interest at variable rates and any increases in interest rates may adversely affect our results of operations.

The interest rate for borrowings excluding preference capital of ₹ 160.00 million availed by us, aggregating to ₹ 26,557.15 million as of September 30, 2018, is expressed as the base rate or marginal cost of funds based lending rate of a specified lender or London Interbank Offering Rate and interest spread, which is variable to each Lender. Further, our financing agreements include provisions providing for interest rates to be periodically reset, or changed based on the lender’s internal policies. We are susceptible to fluctuations in interest rates and associated risks. As such, any increase in interest rates may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. See “Financial Indebtedness” on page 616 for a description of the range of interest typically payable under our financing agreements.

- 28. *Our operations entail certain fixed costs and recurring costs, and our inability to reduce such costs during periods of low demand for our services may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our operations entail certain fixed costs such as costs incurred towards the maintenance of our hotel properties, employee related costs, property taxes as well as certain significant recurring costs such as utility expenses and insurance payments. Further, the agreements we have entered into with Marriott, generally include agreed periodic payments at fixed rates. We may also have to incur costs towards periodic re-designing, re-structuring, refurbishing or repair of defects at our hotels. The costs of running a hotel tend to be more fixed than variable. The hotel industry experiences changes in demand and supply, which we may not be able to predict accurately. Consequently, we may be unable to reduce fixed and recurring costs in a timely manner, or at all, in response to a reduction in the demand for our services. Further, our hotel properties and commercial and real estate projects may be subject to an increase in operating and other expenses in the event of increases in property and other tax rates, increase in utility costs due to increase in electricity or water supply charges, insurance costs, repairs and maintenance and administrative expenses, which may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

- 29. *We may be unable to successfully grow our business in new markets in India, which may adversely affect our business prospects, results of operations and financial condition.

We seek to diversify our geographical footprint, to reduce our exposure to local, seasonal and cyclical fluctuations and to access a more diversified guest base across geographies. We intend to strengthen and expand our portfolio to newer geographies across India which typically attract significant traffic from business and leisure travellers. However, we cannot assure you that we will be able to grow our business in these markets. Inability to access infrastructure, certain logistical challenges in these regions and our relative inexperience with certain newer markets, may prevent us from expanding our presence in these regions.

Further, we may be unable to compete effectively with the services of our competitors who are already established in these regions. Our expansion plans may also result in increased advertising and marketing expenditure and challenges caused by distance, language and cultural differences. Also, demand for our services may not grow as anticipated in certain newer markets. If we are unable to grow our business in such markets effectively, our business prospects, results of operations and financial condition may be adversely affected.

- 30. *Our business derives a portion of its revenue from corporate customers, and the loss of such customers, the deterioration of their financial condition or prospects, or a reduction in their demand for our services could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

Our hotel operations are dependent on our corporate customers, including large corporate key accounts such as information technology companies, airlines, multi-national corporations, consultancy firms and banks, for a portion of revenues. Any reduction in growth or a slow-down in the business of our customers in India, could result in a reduction of their requirement for our services, and result in a significant decrease in the revenues we derive from these customers. The loss of one or more of our significant customers or a reduction in the amount of business we obtain from them could have an adverse effect on our business, and thus our results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. Further, corporate customers may be able to negotiate better or more favourable terms or discounts compared to bookings made through direct channels or online travel agents. We cannot assure you that we will be able to maintain historic levels of business from such significant customers in the future.

- 31. *Demand for rooms in our hotels or our conferencing and meeting facilities may be adversely affected by the increased use of business-related technology or change in preference of our corporate customers.

The increased use of teleconference and video-conference technology by businesses could result in decreased business travel as companies increase the use of technologies that allow multiple parties from different locations to participate at meetings without traveling to a centralized meeting location, such as our hotels. To the extent that such technologies play an increased role in day-to-day business and the necessity for business-related travel decreases, demand for our hotel rooms or our conferencing and meeting facilities may decrease from business travellers and corporate customers. Similarly, changes in business spending and preferences of our corporate customers due to evolving cost of travel, spending habits and budgeting patterns may lead to a change in the perceived attractiveness of our hotels, services and the locations at which our hotels are situated.

- 32. *A portion of our hotel bookings originate from online travel agents and intermediaries. In the event such companies continue to gain market share compared to direct booking channels or our competitors are able to negotiate more favourable terms with such online travel agents and intermediaries, our business and results of operations may be adversely affected.

A portion of bookings for our hotels originate from large multinational, regional and local online travel agents and intermediaries, such as online aggregators, with whom we have contractual arrangements and to whom we pay commissions. These third-parties, including online travel agents, offer a wide breadth of services, often across multiple brands, have growing booking and review capabilities, and may create the perception that they offer the lowest prices when compared to our direct booking channels. Some of these online travel agents and intermediaries have strong marketing budgets and aim to create brand awareness and brand loyalty among consumers and may seek to commoditize hotel brands through price and attribute comparison. In the event these companies continue to gain market share, they may impact our profitability, undermine direct booking channels and online web presence and may be able to increase commission rates and negotiate other favourable contract terms. Negative reviews and feedback on online travel portals may cause guests to choose the services of our competitors. Further, our competitors may be able to negotiate better or more favourable terms with such online travel agents and intermediaries, impacting our hotel bookings from these channels, which in turn may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

33. *Our Statutory Auditors have included certain matters of emphasis in their report on our Restated Summary Financial Information.

Our Statutory Auditors examination reports in respect of Restated Standalone Summary Financial Information and Restated Consolidated Summary Financial Information includes certain emphasis of matter in respect of:

- as of, and for the six months ended, September 30, 2018, the non-presentation of corresponding figures for the previous period;
- as of, and for the financial year ended, March 31, 2018, the accounting of the scheme of arrangement effecting the demerger of Genext with our Company, in the manner prescribed by the NCLT order which is different from that prescribed under Ind AS 103;
- as of, and for the six months ended, September 30, 2018, and the financial years ended, March 31, 2018, 2017 and 2016, no adjustments having been made to the carrying value of leasehold rights in relation to land on which our hotel located at Vashi, Navi Mumbai is situated, during the pendency of litigation. See “- Our hotel located at Vashi, Navi Mumbai is subject matter of a litigation with City & Industrial Development Corporation of Maharashtra Limited (“CIDCO”). Any adverse order by the Supreme Court of India in this matter may result in a direction to demolish our hotel, which may adversely affect our business and results of operations” on page 27;
- as of, and for the financial years ended, March 31, 2017 and 2016, no provisions having been included in relation to suspension of construction activity and sale of flats at our residential project in Bengaluru. See “- Our residential project at Koramangala, Bengaluru is the subject matter of litigation with Hindustan Aeronautics Limited. Any adverse order in relation to this litigation may adversely affect our ability to complete the project, and our business, results of operations and reputation” on page 21; and
- as of, and for the financial year ended, March 31, 2014, no recognition of profits during the year on flats sold and de-recognition of profits in previous years in relation to sale of flats at our residential project in Bengaluru over the height of 40 meters, together with certain other compensation paid, and provision of estimated loss on account of cancellation in the subsequent year. See “- Our residential project at Koramangala, Bengaluru is the subject matter of litigation with Hindustan Aeronautics Limited. Any adverse order in relation to this litigation may adversely affect our ability to complete the project, and our business, results of operations and reputation” on page 21, which do not require any corrective adjustments in the financial information.

Such emphasis of matter is detailed in the Statutory Auditors’ examination report in relation to the Restated Standalone Summary Financial Information and Restated Consolidated Summary Financial Information. For further details, see “Summary Financial Information” on page 258 of this Red Herring Prospectus.

We cannot assure you that our Statutory Auditors reports for any future fiscal periods will not contain qualifications, remarks, comments or emphasis of matter or that such qualifications, remarks, comments or emphasis of matter will not require any adjustment in our financial statements for such future periods or otherwise affect our results of operations in such future periods.

34. *Any failure of our information technology systems could adversely affect our business and our operations.

We utilize information technology systems that support our business processes, including centralised software and systems such as reservations systems and property management systems of our hotel operators and their affiliates. These systems may be susceptible to outages due to fire, floods, power loss, telecommunications failures, natural disasters, break-ins and similar events. Effective response to such disruptions will require effort and diligence on the part of our third-party vendors and employees to avoid any adverse effect to our information technology systems.

In addition, our systems and proprietary data stored electronically, including our guests' sensitive personal and financial information, may be vulnerable to computer viruses, cybercrime, computer hacking and similar disruptions from unauthorized tampering. Such technology systems may also be vulnerable to ransomware attacks, which may block or restrict access to these systems and impair their functionality, unless certain ransom money is paid. If such unauthorized use of our systems were to occur, data related to our guests and other proprietary information could be compromised. For example, our hospitality partner recently reported security breaches in its guest reservation database. The occurrence of any such events could adversely affect our business, interrupt our operations, subject us to increased operating costs and expose us to litigation. We are also dependent on third party vendors for providing some of the services to our guests such as internet and television, among others, and any failure or deficiency on the part of such vendors may adversely affect our reputation, brand perception and results of operations.

35. In the event we fail to obtain, maintain or renew our statutory and regulatory licenses, permits and approvals required to operate our business, including in respect of which we have made relevant applications that are currently pending, including due to any default on the part of the owners of the properties we lease and manage, our business and results of operations may be adversely affected.

Our operations are subject to extensive government regulations and we or our hotel operators are required to obtain and maintain a number of statutory and regulatory permits and approvals under central, state and local government rules in India, generally for carrying out our business and for each of our hotel properties including, without limitation, sanction of building plans, occupation certificates, trade licenses, FSSAI registrations, shops and establishments registrations, star classifications and reclassifications for hotels, licenses to sell liquor and environmental approvals and clearances. For details of approvals relating to our business and operations, see “Government and Other Approvals” on page 663.

While we have obtained a number of approvals required for our operations, certain key approvals for which we have submitted applications are currently pending. We are also in the process of applying for the renewal of certain key approvals. In addition, we may need to apply for more approvals, including the renewal of approvals which may expire from time to time, and approvals in the ordinary course of business. For example, the consent to operate issued by the Maharashtra Pollution Control Board and 5-star classification issued by Government of India - Department of Tourism (H&R Division) for our hotel at Vashi, Navi Mumbai have expired. While we have made applications for renewal of these approvals, we cannot assure that the approvals shall be renewed. Further, majority of our key approvals which are in the nature of operational licenses will expire in the next three years in the ordinary course of business and the Company will seek renewal in line with its past practice. While we will make the applications for renewal of these approvals at the appropriate time, we cannot assure you that we will be granted such approvals in a timely manner. Any inability to renew these approvals may have an adverse effect on the operations of our hotel. For further details on pending approvals, see “Government and Other Approvals” on page 663.

We cannot assure you that such approvals will be issued or granted to us, or at all. If we fail to obtain or retain any of these approvals or licenses or renewals thereof, in a timely manner or at all, our business may be adversely affected. In addition, we require the co-operation and assistance of the hotel operators in order to apply for and renew such approvals and permits in a timely manner. Any failure on the part of the hotel operators to render cooperation and undertake the necessary actions to obtain and renew such approvals, may adversely impact the operations at our hotels.

Further, the approvals required by us are subject to numerous eligibility or ongoing compliance conditions and we cannot assure you that these would be received or not be suspended or revoked in the event of non-compliance or alleged non-compliance with any terms or conditions thereof, or pursuant to any regulatory action. For instance, in relation to our completed residential project in Hyderabad, Quiescent Heights, we may be in breach of the ‘built-up area’ requirements under the Environment Impact Assessment Notification issued under the Environment (Protection) Rules, 1986, as a governmental office memorandum relied on by us for certain clarifications on the definition of ‘built-up area’ was struck down pursuant to a pronouncement by the Supreme Court in August, 2018. Further, we have not obtained environment approvals for Quiescent Heights project. If there is any failure by us to comply with the applicable regulations or if the regulations governing our business are amended, we may incur increased costs, be subject to penalties, have our approvals and permits revoked or suffer disruption in our operations, any of which could adversely affect our business.

36. If we pursue a strategy of expansion through acquisition of hotels or properties, we may not be able to successfully consummate favourable transactions or such transactions may not yield intended results or achieve expected returns and other benefits.

From time to time, we may evaluate potential acquisition of hotels or properties that would further our strategic objectives. However, we may not be able to identify suitable hotels or properties, consummate a transaction on terms that are favourable to us, or achieve expected returns and other benefits. Hotels or properties acquired by us may not be profitable or may not achieve sales levels and profitability that justify the investments made. Our acquisitions may entail financial and operational risks, including diversion of management attention from its existing core businesses. Future acquisitions could also result in the incurrence of debt, utilization of our internal accruals, increased contingent liabilities and increased operating expenses, all of which could adversely affect our business, financial condition and results of operations. We may incur additional debt or use internal accruals for acquisition which could affect our financial condition.

37. Statements as to the period in which our properties under development are expected to commence operations and the number of rooms or leasable area expected in such properties are based on management estimates and have not been independently appraised.

The expected period of opening or commencement of operations for our hotels and commercial and retail projects under development, presented in this Red Herring Prospectus, is based on management estimates and has not been independently appraised. The expected date of opening or commencement of operations, number of rooms or leasable area, size, acreage and square footage actually developed may differ, based on various factors such as market conditions, modifications of engineering or design specifications, changes in regulatory requirements, stipulations in the consents and approvals we receive and any inability to obtain required consents and approvals. Investors are cautioned to not place undue reliance on these numbers in their evaluation of our business, prospects and results of operation. See also “Forward Looking Statements” on page 17.

38. We may require additional equity or debt in the future in order to continue to grow our business, which may not be available on favourable terms or at all.

Our strategy to grow our business and maintain our market share may require us to raise additional funds or refinance our existing debt for our working capital or long term loans. We cannot assure you that such funds will be available on favourable terms or at all. Additional debt financing may increase our financing costs. Our financing agreements may contain terms and conditions that may restrict our ability to operate and manage our business, such as terms and conditions that require us to maintain certain pre-set debt service coverage ratios and leverage ratios and require us to use our assets, including our cash balances, as collateral for our indebtedness. If we are unable to raise additional funds on favourable terms or at all as and when required, our business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects could be adversely affected.

39. We rely on various contractors or third parties in developing our hotel, commercial, retail and other real assets, and factors affecting the performance of their obligations could adversely affect our projects.

Most of our hotel and other commercial projects require the services of contractors and various other parties including architects, engineers, consultants and suppliers of labour and materials for such projects. The timing and quality of construction of these projects that we develop depends on the availability and skill of these parties, as well as contingencies affecting them, including labour and construction material shortages and industrial action such as strikes and lockouts. We may not be able to identify appropriately experienced third parties and cannot assure you that skilled third parties will continue to be available at reasonable rates and in the areas in which we undertake our projects, or at all. As a result, we may be required to make additional investments or provide additional services to ensure the adequate performance and delivery of contracted services and any delay in project execution could adversely affect our profitability. In addition, if such contractors or third parties do not complete our orders in a timely manner or match our requirements on quality, our reputation and financial condition could be adversely affected.

40. *Our operations could be adversely affected by strikes, work stoppages or increased wage demands by our employees or any other kind of disputes with our employees.

Although we have not experienced any material labour unrest, we cannot assure you that we will not experience disruptions in work due to disputes or other problems with our work force, which may adversely affect our ability to continue our business operations. We have an external union at our hotel property in Powai, Mumbai and we cannot assure you that our other employees will not unionize in the future. In the event our employee relationships deteriorate or we experience significant labour unrest, strikes and other labour action, work stoppages could occur and there could be an adverse impact on our operations. These actions are impossible for us to predict or control and any such event could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

41. *We rely on contract labour for carrying out certain of our operations and we may be held responsible for paying the wages of such workers, if the independent contractors through whom such workers are hired default on their obligations, and such obligations could have an adverse effect on our results of operations and financial condition.

In order to retain flexibility and control costs, we appoint independent contractors who in turn engage on-site contract labour for performance of certain of our operations. As of September 30, 2018, we utilized 531 personnel engaged on a contractual basis. Although we do not engage these labourers directly, we may be held responsible for any wage payments to be made to such labourers in the event of default by such independent contractor. Any requirement to fund their wage requirements may have an adverse impact on our results of operations and financial condition. In addition, under the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act, 1970, as notified and enforced by the central government and adopted with such modifications as may be deemed necessary by the respective state governments, we may be required to absorb a number of such contract labourers as permanent employees. In the event of any non-compliance by contractors with statutory requirements, legal proceedings may be initiated against us. Thus, any such order from a regulatory body or court may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

42. *Our insurance coverage may not be sufficient or may not adequately protect us against all material hazards, which may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.

We could be held liable for accidents that occur at our hotels or otherwise arise out of our operations. In the event of personal injuries, fires or other accidents suffered by our employees or other people, we could face claims alleging that we were negligent, provided inadequate supervision or be otherwise liable for the injuries. Our properties are insured with independent third parties covering various aspects such as property damage inter-alia in respect of buildings, plant and machinery breakdowns, fire insurance, deterioration of stocks, accidental damage, pressurised equipment such as boilers and vessels, losses of rent, loss of profit, business interruptions, terrorism etc. We also maintain directors' and officers' liability insurance for our management personnel and accident group insurance, health insurance and life insurance for our employees. For the financial year 2018, we have on a consolidated basis insured our net assets (which total approximately ₹ 28,223.36 million) for an amount of ₹ 50,908.30 million representing 180% coverage over our consolidated total net assets and for the six months ended September 30, 2018, we have on a consolidated basis insured our net assets (which total approximately ₹ 27,867.07 million) for an amount of ₹ 50,908.30 million representing 183% coverage over our consolidated total net assets.

While we believe that the insurance coverage which we maintain would be reasonably adequate to cover the normal risks associated with the operation of our business, we cannot assure you that any claim under the insurance policies maintained by us will be honoured fully, in part or on time, or that we have taken out sufficient insurance to cover all our losses. In addition, our insurance coverage expires from time to time. We apply for the renewal of our insurance coverage in the normal course of our business, but we cannot assure you that such renewals will be granted in a timely manner, at acceptable cost or at all. To the extent that we suffer loss or damage for which we did not obtain or maintain insurance, and which is not covered by insurance, exceeds our insurance coverage or where our insurance claims are rejected, the loss would have to be borne by us and our results of operations, cash flows and financial performance could be adversely affected.

43. *Disruptions or lack of basic infrastructure such as electricity and water supply could adversely affect our operations.

We require a significant amount and continuous supply of electricity and water and any disruption in the supply thereof could affect the operations of our hotels and the services to our guests. We currently source our water requirements from governmental water supply undertakings and water tankers and depend on state electricity boards and private suppliers for our energy requirements. Although we have diesel generators to meet exigencies at all of our hotels, we cannot assure you that our hotels will have sufficient power during power failures. Any failure on our part to obtain alternate sources of electricity or water, in a timely fashion, and at an acceptable cost, may have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations and financial condition.

44. *We are exposed to the risk of events that adversely affect domestic or international travel, such as epidemics and terrorism or war.

The room rates and occupancy levels of our hotels could be adversely affected by external events that reduce domestic or international travel, such as epidemics and spread of infectious diseases or threats thereof, actual or threatened acts of terrorism or war, geo-political crisis or civil unrest, travel-related accidents or industrial action, natural disasters, or other local factors impacting individual hotels, as well as increased transportation and fuel costs. A decrease in the demand for hotel rooms as a result of such events may have an adverse impact on our operations and financial results. In addition, inadequate planning, preparation, response or recovery in relation to a major incident or crisis may cause loss of life, prevent operational continuity, or result in financial loss and consequently affect our reputation.

45. *Our inability to protect or use intellectual property rights may adversely affect our business.

We own the registered name and mark 'Chalet' under various classes provided for under the Trade Marks Act, 1999. Additionally, we have applied for registration of  logo under various classes, while application for registration under certain classes are currently pending. We have in the recent past received a notice of opposition in relation to registration of a class 43 trademark "Chalet Hotels" with the Trade Mark Registry. Any adverse order by the Registrar of Trade Marks may impact our ability to use the said trademark.

Further, the use of our, or those of our brand partners', trademarks or logos by third parties could adversely affect our hotels' reputation, which could in turn adversely affect our business and results of operations. We may not be able to prevent infringement of our or our brand partners' trademarks. If our or our brand partners' trademarks or other intellectual property are improperly used, the value and reputation of our hotels could be harmed. The application of laws governing intellectual property rights in India is uncertain and evolving, and could involve substantial risks to us. While we take care to ensure that we comply with the intellectual property rights of others, we cannot determine with certainty whether we are infringing any existing third-party intellectual property rights which may force us to alter our offerings. We may also be susceptible to claims from third parties asserting infringement and other related claims. If similar claims are raised in the future, these claims could result in costly litigation, divert management's attention and resources, subject us to significant liabilities and require us to enter into potentially expensive royalty or licensing agreements or to cease certain offerings. Further, necessary licenses may not be available to us on satisfactory terms, if at all. Any of the foregoing could have an adverse effect on our business, results of operations, cash flows and financial condition.

46. *We, as well as our Promoters and Group Companies, have, from time to time, availed unsecured or other credit facilities that are repayable on demand. Any unexpected demand for repayment may adversely affect our liquidity, business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

We, as well as our Promoters and Group Companies, have from time to time, availed unsecured or other credit facilities that are repayable on demand by the lenders. In the event that the respective lenders call in any such credit facilities, alternative sources of financing may not be available to any of us on commercially reasonable terms, to the same extent, or at all. Any failure to service such indebtedness or comply with any obligations under such financing agreements may cause us to incur penalty interest or may result in the termination of one or more of our credit facilities or acceleration or cross-acceleration of payments under such credit facilities, as well as the declaration of an event of default or cross-default. Any such unexpected demand for repayment may adversely affect our liquidity, business, financial condition, results of operations and prospects.

47. *Some of our corporate records are not traceable.

Our Company does not have access to a secretarial form filing i.e., Form 5 for sub-division of equity shares in the year 1998.

While information in relation to such subdivision, has been disclosed under Capital Structure in this Red Herring Prospectus, based on certified true copy of the board and shareholder resolutions, we may not be able to furnish any further document evidencing such subdivision. We cannot further assure you that we will be able to locate the said secretarial filing record, or not be penalized by the relevant supervisory and regulatory authorities in India for not maintaining such RoC form.

48. *Our Company has acquired land in the past from entities which are related to our Promoters and may undertake such acquisitions in the future.

Our Company acquired approximately 8.62 acres of land from Genext, one of our corporate Promoters in Bengaluru for our Whitefield project. Our Promoters and Directors, Ravi C. Raheja and Neel C. Raheja are also shareholders and directors of Genext. Our Company has also entered into a ‘memorandum of understanding’ that grants our Company an option to acquire leasehold rights for 0.98 acres of land and/or building from Mindspace for our proposed hotel and related services in Airoli and our Company may decide to exercise this option and acquire land in the future. Our Promoters and Directors, Ravi C. Raheja and Neel C. Raheja are also shareholders and directors of Mindspace. Our Company is part of the K Raheja Corp group and generally undertakes transactions with other entities forming part of the group. In the future, our Company may undertake further acquisitions of land from entities forming part of the K Raheja Corp group or entities related to any of our Promoters or Directors. For more information on the acquisition from Genext and the proposed acquisition from Mindspace, please see “Our Promoters and Promoter Group- Interests of our Promoters and Related Party Transactions” on page 217.

49. *We have certain contingent liabilities that have not been provided for in our financial statements, which, if they materialize, may adversely affect our financial condition.

As of September 30, 2018, in accordance with IND AS 37, we had certain contingent liabilities on a restated consolidated basis that have not been provided for in our financial statements. For details, see “Summary Financial Information – Restated Consolidated Summary Financial Information” on page 413. If a significant portion of these liabilities materialize, it could have an adverse effect on our business, financial condition and results of operations.

50. *We face foreign exchange risks that could adversely affect our results of operations.

Our operations are in India, our revenues and most of our expenses in India are denominated in the Indian Rupee, and we report our results of operations in the Indian Rupee. We have availed external commercial borrowings excluding interest accrued of USD 74.06 million as of September 30, 2018, which also exposes us to currency risk. Further, we have certain periodic payment obligations to Marriott which are denominated in United States Dollars. Any fluctuation of the Indian Rupee against such foreign currencies may have a negative impact on our results of operations, as the expenses that we have to incur may be higher in Rupee terms.

51. *Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend on our earnings, financial condition, working capital requirements, capital expenditures and restrictive covenants of our financing arrangements.

Our Company has not declared dividends in the past. Our ability to pay dividends in the future will depend on our earnings, financial condition, cash flow, working capital requirements, capital expenditure and restrictive covenants of our financing arrangements. Any future determination as to the declaration and payment of dividends will be at the discretion of our Board and will depend on factors that our Board deems relevant, including among others, our future earnings, financial condition, cash requirements, business prospects and any other financing arrangements. We may decide to retain all of our earnings to finance the development and expansion of our business and, therefore, may not declare dividends on our Equity Shares. We cannot assure you that we will be able to pay dividends in the future. For details of dividend paid by our Company in the past, see “Dividend Policy” on page 256.

52. *We will continue to be controlled by our Promoters after the completion of the Offer

After the completion of the Offer, our Promoters will continue to hold majority of our outstanding Equity Shares. As a result, our Promoters will continue to exercise significant control over us, including being able to control the composition of our Board and determine matters requiring shareholder approval or approval of our Board. They may take or block actions with respect to our business, which may conflict with our interests or the interests of our minority shareholders. By exercising their control, our Promoters could delay, defer or cause a change of our control or a change in our capital structure, delay, defer or cause a merger, consolidation, takeover or other business combination involving us, discourage or encourage a potential acquirer from making a tender offer or otherwise attempting to obtain control of us. We cannot guarantee that our Promoters will act in our interest while exercising their rights.

53. *Some of our Promoters have pledged their Equity Shares with a lender. Any exercise of such pledge by the lender could dilute the shareholding of these Promoters, which may adversely affect our business and prospects.

As of the date of this Red Herring Prospectus, 47,023,720 Equity Shares constituting 27.48% of the pre-Offer paid-up equity share capital of our Company held by Capstan Trading LLP, Raghukool Estate Developement LLP, Touchstone Properties and Hotels Private Limited, Anbee Construction LLP and Cape Trading LLP, our Promoters, are pledged in favour of HDFC Limited to secure borrowings availed by certain of our Promoters and Group Companies. Any default by one or more of such Promoters or Group Companies, under their respective borrowing arrangements pursuant to which these Equity Shares have been pledged, will entitle the lender to enforce such pledge. In case the lender chooses to invoke the pledge, the aggregate shareholding of our Promoters in our Company will be reduced and may also result in the price of the Equity Shares being adversely affected.

54. *We have issued Equity Shares during the last one year at a price that may be lower than the Offer Price.

We have allotted 18,953,040 Equity Shares to the shareholders of Genext Hardware & Parks Private Limited (“Genext”), pursuant to the scheme of arrangement effecting the demerger of Genext with our Company. No cash consideration was paid at the time of allotment of these Equity Shares. The price at which such Equity Shares were allotted may be lower than the Offer Price. In addition, ESOPs granted, if exercised prior to determination of the Offer Price, may be at a price lower than the Offer Price. For further details, see “Capital Structure” on page 91.

55. *Some of our Group Companies have incurred losses in the last preceding financial year and have negative net worth, based on the last audited financial statements available.

Some of our Group Companies have incurred losses in the preceding financial years and have negative net worth, based on the respective Group Companies’ last available audited financial statements. For further details, see “Our Group Companies – Group Companies with negative net worth” and “Our Group Companies – Details of Loss making Group Companies” beginning on page 221, respectively. We cannot assure you that our Group Companies will not incur losses or have negative net worth in the future.

56. *We have experienced negative cash flows in relation to our operating activities, investing and financing activities in the last five financial years, on a consolidated basis. Any negative cash flows in the future would adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition.

We had a negative cash flow from operating activities of ₹ 122.96 million in the financial year 2015, on a restated consolidated basis. Further, we had a negative cash flow from investing activities of ₹ 1,289.98 million, ₹ 1,722.79 million, ₹ 1,895.97 million and ₹ 1,212.44 million in the financial years 2018, 2016, 2015 and 2014, respectively, and we had a negative cash flow from financing activities of ₹ 2,339.46 million, ₹ 1,566.81 million, ₹ 4,633.69 million and ₹ 629.67 million during the six months ended September 30, 2018 and in the financial years 2018, 2017 and 2014, respectively, on a restated consolidated basis. If we experience any negative cash flows in the future, this could adversely affect our results of operations and financial condition. For further details, see “Summary Financial Information” and “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” on pages 258 and 585, respectively.

57. Certain of our Group Companies and our Promoters are engaged, or are authorized by their constitutional documents to engage, in business activities which are similar to those undertaken by our Company and Subsidiaries, or have interests in other companies, which are in businesses similar to ours, which may result in conflicts of interest.

Certain of our Group Companies, are authorised under their respective memorandums of association to carry on the business of owning, operating or managing hotels and resorts. For details, see “Group Companies” on page 221. We cannot assure you that our Group Companies, will not compete with our existing business or any future business that we may undertake or that their interests will not conflict with ours. Any such present and future conflicts could have a material adverse effect on our reputation, business and results of operations. For further details, see “Our Promoters, Promoter Group and Group Companies – Common Pursuits of our Promoters, members of Promoter Group and Group Companies” on pages 219 and 253.

Further, a conflict of interest may occur between our business and the business of certain of our Promoters and Group Companies which could have an adverse effect on our operations. For example, certain of our Promoters and Group Companies own a resort in Madh Island, Mumbai and a minority equity interest in the hotel JW Marriott Mumbai Juhu, which compete with our existing hotels. Conflicts of interest may also arise out of common business objectives shared by us and certain of our Promoters. Our Promoters may compete with us and have no obligation to direct any opportunities to us. We cannot assure you that these or other conflicts of interest will be resolved in an impartial manner.

58. Our Directors and Key Management Personnel may have interests in us other than reimbursement of expenses incurred, normal employee remuneration or benefits payable under the terms of their agreements with us, which may potentially involve conflict of interests with our Shareholders.

Our Directors and Key Management Personnel are interested in us to the extent of remuneration paid to them for services rendered, including any shares and employee stock options held by them and reimbursement of expenses payable to them. Our Company had entered into an agreement dated July 7, 2017 with Arthur William De Haast, one of our Directors, to provide certain consultancy and advisory services to our Company for a term of three years with effect from August 3, 2017, pursuant to which he is entitled to GBP 3,750 per working day spent in accordance with the terms of the consultancy services agreement. The term of the consultancy services agreement has been extended to June 11, 2023. Further, Sanjay Sethi, our Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer and Rajeev Newar, our Executive Director and Chief Financial Officer are interested to the extent of loans availed by them from our Company. Our Directors may also be interested to the extent of any transaction entered into by us with any other company or firm in which they are directors or partners. For details, see the sections “Capital Structure”, “Related Party Transactions” and “Our Management” on pages 91, 255 and 186, respectively.

59. We do not own the land on which our Registered and Corporate Office is situated.

We do not own the land on which our Registered and Corporate Office is situated. Our Registered and Corporate Office is licensed to us by K. Raheja Corporate Services Private Limited pursuant to a license agreement dated August 22, 2018. The license agreement is valid for a period of 5 years from July 1, 2018. We cannot assure you that we will be able to continue with the uninterrupted use of this premise in the event that we are unable to comply with the terms of our license agreement, which may impair our operations and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition. For further details, see “Our Business – Immovable Properties” on page 171.

60. We will not receive any proceeds from the Offer for Sale. The Selling Shareholders will receive the entire proceeds from the Offer for Sale.

This Offer includes an Offer for Sale of up to 24,685,000 Equity Shares by the Selling Shareholders. The entire proceeds from the Offer for Sale will be paid to the Selling Shareholders and we will not receive any such proceeds. For further details, see “Capital Structure” and “Objects of the Offer” on pages 91 and 118, respectively.

61. *Any variation in the utilization of the Net Proceeds would be subject to certain compliance requirements, including prior Shareholders’ approval.

We propose to utilize the Net Proceeds for retiring certain debts of our Company. For further information of the proposed objects of the Issue, see “Objects of the Offer” on page 118. At this stage, we cannot determine with any certainty if we would require the Net Proceeds to meet any other expenditure or fund any exigencies arising out of competitive environment, business conditions, economic conditions or other factors beyond our control. In accordance with Section 27 of the Companies Act, 2013, we cannot undertake any variation in the utilization of the Net Proceeds without obtaining the Shareholders’ approval through a special resolution. In the event of any such circumstances that require us to undertake variation in the disclosed utilization of the Net Proceeds, we may not be able to obtain the Shareholders’ approval in a timely manner, or at all. Any delay or inability in obtaining such Shareholders’ approval may adversely affect our business or operations.

Further, our Promoters or controlling Shareholders would be required to provide an exit opportunity to the Shareholders who do not agree with our proposal to change the Objects of the Offer or vary the terms of such contracts, at a price and manner as prescribed by SEBI. Additionally, the requirement on Promoters or controlling Shareholders to provide an exit opportunity to such dissenting Shareholders may deter the Promoters or controlling Shareholders from agreeing to the variation of the proposed utilization of the Net Proceeds, even if such variation is in the interest of our Company. Further, we cannot assure you that the Promoters or the controlling Shareholders of our Company will have adequate resources at their disposal at all times to enable them to provide an exit opportunity at the price prescribed by SEBI.

In light of these factors, we may not be able to undertake variation of objects of the Offer to use any unutilized proceeds of the Fresh Issue, if any, or vary the terms of any contract referred to in the Red Herring Prospectus, even if such variation is in the interest of our Company. This may restrict our ability to respond to any change in our business or financial condition by re-deploying the unutilized portion of Net Proceeds, if any, or varying the terms of contract, which may adversely affect our business and results of operations.

External Risk Factors

Risks Related to India

62. *The occurrence of natural or man-made disasters could adversely affect our results of operations, cash flows and financial condition. Hostilities, terrorist attacks, civil unrest and other acts of violence could adversely affect the financial markets and our business.

The occurrence of natural disasters, including cyclones, storms, floods, earthquakes, tsunamis, tornadoes, fires, explosions, pandemic disease and man-made disasters, including acts of terrorism and military actions, could adversely affect our results of operations, cash flows or financial condition. Terrorist attacks and other acts of violence or war may adversely affect the Indian securities markets. In addition, any deterioration in international relations, especially between India and its neighbouring countries, may result in investor concern regarding regional stability which could adversely affect the price of the Equity Shares. In addition, India has witnessed local civil disturbances in recent years and it is possible that future civil unrest as well as other adverse social, economic or political events in India could have an adverse effect on our business. Such incidents could also create a greater perception that investment in Indian companies involves a higher degree of risk and could have an adverse effect on our business and the market price of the Equity Shares.

63. *Political, economic or other factors that are beyond our control may have an adverse effect on our business and results of operations.

We are dependent on domestic, regional and global economic and market conditions. Our performance, growth and market price of our Equity Shares are and will be dependent to a large extent on the health of the economy in which we operate. There have been periods of slowdown in the economic growth of India. Demand for our services may be adversely affected by an economic downturn in domestic, regional and global economies. Economic growth in the countries in which we operate is affected by various factors including domestic consumption and savings, balance of trade movements, namely export demand and movements in key imports (oil and oil products), global economic uncertainty and liquidity crisis, volatility in exchange currency rates, and annual rainfall which affects agricultural production. Consequently, any future slowdown in the Indian economy could harm our business, results of operations, financial condition and cash flows. Also, a change in the government or a change in the economic and deregulation policies could adversely affect economic conditions prevalent in the areas in which we operate in general and our business in particular and high rates of inflation in India could increase our costs without proportionately increasing our revenues, and as such decrease our operating margins.

64. *Our Company has prepared financial statements under Ind AS. Significant differences exist between Ind AS and other accounting principles, such as Indian GAAP, IFRS and U.S. GAAP.

Our Restated Consolidated Summary Financial Information as of and for the six months ended September 30, 2018 and financial years 2018, 2017, 2016, 2015 and 2014 included in this Red Herring Prospectus has been prepared under Ind AS notified under the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015 read with the Companies Act, 2013 and differs from our audited financial information to the extent restated, in accordance with applicable laws. The Restated Consolidated Summary Financial Information has been compiled from the audited consolidated financial statements of our Company as of and for the six months ended September 30, 2018 and financial years 2018 and 2017 prepared under Ind AS and as of and for the financial years 2016, 2015 and 2014 prepared under the previous generally accepted accounting principles followed in India (“Indian GAAP”). Our date of transition to Ind AS was April 1, 2016 and the audited consolidated financial statements for the financial year 2017 were the first to be prepared in accordance with Ind AS. The restated consolidated summary financial information for the financial years 2016, 2015 and 2014 included in this Red Herring Prospectus have been prepared under Ind AS on a proforma basis. The implementation of Ind AS is recent and new pronouncements may have a material impact on our profitability going forward and our revenue may fluctuate significantly period over period.

Except as otherwise provided in the Restated Consolidated Summary Financial Information with respect to Indian GAAP, no attempt has been made to reconcile any information given in this Red Herring Prospectus to any other accounting principles or to base the information on any other accounting standards. Ind AS differs from other accounting principles with which prospective investors may be familiar, such as Indian GAAP, IFRS and U.S. GAAP. Accordingly, the degree to which the financial statements, which are restated in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations, included in this Red Herring Prospectus will provide meaningful information is entirely dependent on the reader’s level of familiarity with Ind AS.

65. *Changing laws, rules and regulations and legal uncertainties, including adverse application of tax laws, may adversely affect our business, prospects and results of operations.

The regulatory and policy environment in which we operate is evolving and subject to change. Such changes may adversely affect our business, results of operations and prospects, to the extent that we are unable to suitably respond to and comply with any such changes in applicable law and policy. For example, the Government of India implemented a comprehensive national goods and services tax (“GST”) regime with effect from July 1, 2017 that combines multiple taxes and levies by the Central and State Governments into a unified tax structure. While the Government of India and certain state governments have announced that all committed incentives will be protected following the implementation of the GST, given that the various rules and regulations regarding the new regime are being evaluated in terms of various implications concerning the GST, we cannot provide you with any assurance as to this or any other aspect of the tax regime following implementation of the GST including anti-profiteering regulations of the new tax regime and availability of input tax credit (“ITC”).

Further, the Finance Act, instituted a number of amendments to the existing direct and indirect tax regime which includes the withdrawal of long term capital gains exemptions on equity shares, long term capital gains applicability in the hands of Foreign Institutional Investors and applicability of dividend distribution tax for certain transactions with shareholders, among others. Prospective investors should consult their own tax advisors in relation to the consequences of investing in the Equity Shares.

In addition, the General Anti-Avoidance Rules (“GAAR”) became effective from April 1, 2017. The tax consequences of the GAAR provisions being applied to an arrangement could result in the denial of tax benefits to an arrangement, among other consequences. In the absence of any such precedents on the subject, the application of these provisions is uncertain. If the GAAR provisions are made applicable to our Company, it may have an adverse tax impact on us.

Unfavourable changes in or interpretations of existing, or the promulgation of new, laws, rules and regulations including foreign investment laws governing our business, operations and group structure could result in us being deemed to be in contravention of such laws and may require us to apply for additional approvals. We may incur increased costs and other burdens relating to compliance with such new requirements, which may also require significant management time and other resources, and any failure to comply may adversely affect our business, results of operations and prospects. Uncertainty in the applicability, interpretation or implementation of any amendment to, or change in, governing law, regulation or policy, including by reason of an absence, or a limited body, of administrative or judicial precedent may be time consuming as well as costly for us to resolve and may impact the viability of our current businesses or restrict our ability to grow our businesses in the future.

66. *Investors may not be able to enforce a judgment of a foreign court against our Company.

Our Company is incorporated under the laws of India, majority of our Directors and all of our Promoters, Key Management Personnel and senior management personnel reside in India. Majority of our assets, and the assets of certain of our Promoters, Directors, Key Management Personnel and other senior management, are also located in India. In addition, the regulatory regime of our various international territories may have similar restrictions on enforcement of foreign judgments. Where investors wish to enforce foreign judgments in India, they may face difficulties in enforcing such judgments. India is not a party to any international treaty in relation to the recognition or enforcement of foreign judgments. India exercises reciprocal recognition and enforcement of judgments in civil and commercial matters with a limited number of jurisdictions which includes the United Kingdom, Singapore and Hong Kong. In order to be enforceable, a judgment obtained in a jurisdiction which India recognises as a reciprocating territory must meet certain requirements of the Code of Civil Procedures, 1908 (the “Civil Code”). Further, the Civil Code only permits enforcement of monetary decrees not being in the nature of any amounts payable in respect of taxes or, other charges of a like nature or in respect of a fine or other penalty and does not provide for the enforcement of arbitration awards. Judgments or decrees from jurisdictions not recognised as a reciprocating territory by India cannot be enforced or executed in India. Even if a party were to obtain a judgment in such a jurisdiction, it would be required to institute a fresh suit upon the judgment and would not be able to enforce such judgment by proceedings in execution. Further, the party which has obtained such judgment must institute the new proceedings within three years of obtaining the judgment.

As a result, you may be unable to: (i) effect service of process outside of India upon us and such other persons or entities; or (ii) enforce in courts outside of India judgments obtained in such courts against us and such other persons or entities. It is unlikely that a court in India would award damages on the same basis as a foreign court if an action is brought in India. Furthermore, it is unlikely that an Indian court would enforce foreign judgments if it viewed the amount of damages awarded as excessive or inconsistent with Indian practice. A party seeking to enforce a foreign judgment in India is required to obtain prior approval from the RBI to repatriate any amount recovered pursuant to the execution of such foreign judgment, and any such amount may be subject to income tax in accordance with applicable laws.

67. *Under Indian law, foreign investors are subject to investment restrictions that limit our ability to attract foreign investors, which may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

Under foreign exchange regulations currently in force in India, transfer of shares between non-residents and residents are freely permitted (subject to certain exceptions), if they comply with the valuation and reporting requirements specified by the RBI. If a transfer of shares is not in compliance with such requirements and fall under any of the exceptions specified by the RBI, then the RBI’s prior approval is required. Additionally, shareholders who seek to convert Rupee proceeds from a sale of shares in India into foreign currency and repatriate that foreign currency from India require a no-objection or a tax clearance certificate from the Indian income tax authorities. We cannot assure you that any required approval from the RBI or any other governmental agency can be obtained on any particular terms or at all.

68. *You may be subject to Indian taxes arising out of capital gains on the sale of our Equity Shares.

Under current Indian tax laws, unless specifically exempted, capital gains arising from the sale of equity shares is generally taxable in India. Any gain realized on the sale of listed equity shares on or before March 31, 2018, on a stock exchange held for more than 12 months will not be subject to long term capital gains tax in India if securities transaction tax, or STT, has been paid on the sale transaction and additionally, as stipulated by the Finance Act, 2017, STT had been paid at the time of acquisition of such equity shares on or before October 1, 2004, except in the case of such acquisitions of such equity shares which are not subject to STT, as notified by the Central Government under notification no. 43/2017/F. No. 370142/09/2017-TPL on June 5, 2017. However, the Finance Act, 2018, has now levied taxes on such long term capital gains arising from sale of equity shares on or after April 1, 2018. However, where specified conditions are met, such long term capital gains are only taxed to the extent they exceed ₹ 100,000 and unrealised capital gains earned up to January 31, 2018 continue to be exempt. Accordingly, you may be subject to payment of long term capital gains tax in India, in addition to the payment of STT, on the sale of Equity Shares held for more than 12 months. STT will be levied on and collected by a domestic stock exchange on which our Equity Shares are sold.

Further, any gain realized on the sale of our Equity Shares held for a period of 12 months or less will be subject to short term capital gains tax in India. Capital gains arising from the sale of the Equity Shares will be exempt from taxation in India in cases where the exemption from taxation in India is provided under a treaty between India and the country of which the seller is a resident. Generally, Indian tax treaties do not limit India's ability to impose tax on capital gains. As a result, residents of other countries may be liable for tax in India as well as in their own jurisdiction on a gain upon the sale of Equity Shares.

69. *Rights of shareholders under Indian laws may be more limited than under the laws of other jurisdictions.

Indian legal principles related to corporate procedures, directors' fiduciary duties and liabilities, and shareholders' rights may differ from those that would apply to a company in another jurisdiction. Shareholders' rights including in relation to class actions, under Indian law may not be as extensive as shareholders' rights under the laws of other countries or jurisdictions. Investors may have more difficulty in asserting their rights as shareholder in an Indian company than as shareholder of a corporation in another jurisdiction.

70. *Any downgrading of India's debt rating by an independent agency may harm our ability to raise financing.

Any adverse revisions to India's credit ratings international debt by international rating agencies may adversely affect our ability to raise additional overseas financing and the interest rates and other commercial terms at which such additional financing is available. This could have an adverse effect on our ability to fund our growth on favourable terms or at all, and consequently adversely affect our business and financial performance and the price of our Equity Shares.

Risks Related to the Offer

71. *The Equity Shares have never been publicly traded, and, after the Offer, the Equity Shares may experience price and volume fluctuations, and an active trading market for the Equity Shares may not develop. Further, the price of the Equity Shares may be volatile, and you may be unable to resell the Equity Shares at or above the Offer Price, or at all.

Prior to the Offer, there has been no public market for the Equity Shares, and an active trading market on the Stock Exchanges may not develop or be sustained after the Offer. Listing and quotation does not guarantee that a market for the Equity Shares will develop, or if developed, the liquidity of such market for the Equity Shares. The Offer Price of the Equity Shares is proposed to be determined through a book-building process in accordance with the SEBI ICDR Regulations and may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares at the time of commencement of trading of the Equity Shares or at any time thereafter. The market price of the Equity Shares may be subject to significant fluctuations in response to, among other factors, variations in our operating results of our Company, market conditions specific to the industry we operate in, developments relating to India, volatility in securities markets in jurisdictions other than India, variations in the growth rate of financial indicators, variations in revenue or earnings estimates by research publications, and changes in economic, legal and other regulatory factors.

72. Fluctuation in the exchange rate between the Indian Rupee and foreign currencies may have an adverse effect on the value of our Equity Shares, independent of our operating results.

On listing, our Equity Shares will be quoted in Indian Rupees on the Stock Exchanges. Any dividends in respect of our Equity Shares will also be paid in Indian Rupees and subsequently converted into the relevant foreign currency for repatriation, if required. Any adverse movement in currency exchange rates during the time that it takes to undertake such conversion may reduce the net dividend to foreign investors. In addition, any adverse movement in currency exchange rates during a delay in repatriating outside India the proceeds from a sale of Equity Shares, for example, because of a delay in regulatory approvals that may be required for the sale of Equity Shares may reduce the proceeds received by Equity Shareholders. For example, the exchange rate between the Rupee and the U.S. dollar has fluctuated substantially in recent years and may continue to fluctuate substantially in the future, which may have an adverse effect on the trading price of our Equity Shares and returns on our Equity Shares, independent of our operating results.

73. You may not be able to sell, any of the Equity Shares you purchase in the Offer immediately on an Indian stock exchange.

The Equity Shares will be listed on the Stock Exchanges. Pursuant to the applicable Indian laws, certain actions must be completed before the Equity Shares can be listed and trading in the Equity Shares may commence. Investors' book entry, or 'demat' accounts with depository participants in India, are expected to be credited within one working day of the date on which the Basis of Allotment is approved by the Stock Exchanges. The Allotment of Equity Shares in this Offer and the credit of such Equity Shares to the applicant's demat account with depository participant could take approximately six Working Days from the Bid Closing Date and trading in the Equity Shares upon receipt of final listing and trading approvals from the Stock Exchanges is expected to commence within six Working Days of the Bid Closing Date. There could be a failure or delay in listing of the Equity Shares on the Stock Exchanges. Any failure or delay in obtaining the approval or otherwise commence trading in the Equity Shares would restrict investors' ability to dispose of their Equity Shares. We cannot assure you that the Equity Shares will be credited to investors' demat accounts, or that trading in the Equity Shares will commence, within the time periods specified in this risk factor. We could also be required to pay interest at the applicable rates if allotment is not made, refund orders are not dispatched or demat credits are not made to investors within the prescribed time periods.

74. The Offer Price of the Equity Shares may not be indicative of the market price of the Equity Shares after the Offer.

The Offer Price of the Equity Shares will be determined by our Company and Selling Shareholders in consultation with the BRLMs, and through the Book Building Process. This price will be based on numerous factors, as described under "Basis for Offer Price" on page 126 and may not be indicative of the market price for the Equity Shares after the Offer. The market price of the Equity Shares could be subject to significant fluctuations after the Offer, and may decline below the Offer Price. We cannot assure you that the investor will be able to resell their Equity Shares at or above the Offer Price.

75. Any future issuance of Equity Shares, or convertible securities or other equity linked securities by us may dilute your shareholding and any sale of Equity Shares by our Promoters and other major shareholders may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares.

We may be required to finance our growth through future equity offerings. Any future issuance of the Equity Shares, convertible securities or securities linked to the Equity Shares by us, including through exercise of employee stock options or the disposal of Equity Shares by our Promoters or any of our Company's other principal shareholders or the perception that such issuance or sales may occur, including to comply with the minimum public shareholding norms applicable to listed companies in India may adversely affect the trading price of the Equity Shares, which may lead to other adverse consequences including difficulty in raising capital through offering of the Equity Shares or incurring additional debt. We cannot assure you that we will not issue additional Equity Shares. Any future issuances could also dilute the value of your investment in the Equity Shares. In addition, any perception by investors that such issuances or sales might occur may also affect the market price of the Equity Shares. Except as disclosed in “Capital Structure” on page 91, we cannot assure you that our Promoters and other major shareholders will not dispose of, pledge or encumber their Equity Shares in the future.

76. *Holders of Equity Shares may be restricted in their ability to exercise pre-emptive rights under Indian law and thereby suffer future dilution of their ownership position.

Under the Companies Act, a company having share capital and incorporated in India must offer its equity shareholders pre-emptive rights to subscribe and pay for a proportionate number of equity shares to maintain their existing ownership percentages prior to issuance of any new equity shares, unless the pre-emptive rights have been waived by the adoption of a special resolution by the equity shareholders of such company.

However, if the law of the jurisdiction that you are located in does not permit the exercise of such pre-emptive rights without our filing an offering document or registration statement with the applicable authority in such jurisdiction, you will be unable to exercise such pre-emptive rights, unless we make such a filing. If we elect not to file an offering document or a registration statement, the new securities may be issued to a custodian, who may sell them for your benefit. The value the custodian receives on the sale of such securities and the related transaction costs cannot be predicted. In addition, to the extent that you are unable to exercise pre-emptive rights granted in respect of our Equity Shares, your proportional interests in our Company may be reduced.

77. *QIBs and Non-Institutional Investors are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid.

Pursuant to the SEBI ICDR Regulations, QIBs and Non-Institutional Investors are not permitted to withdraw or lower their Bids (in terms of quantity of Equity Shares or the Bid Amount) at any stage after submitting a Bid. Retail Individual Investors can revise their Bids during the Bid/Offer Period and withdraw their Bids until Bid/Offer Closing Date. While our Company is required to complete Allotment pursuant to the Offer within six Working Days from the Bid/Offer Closing Date, events affecting the Bidders’ decision to invest in the Equity Shares, including material adverse changes in international or national monetary policy, financial, political or economic conditions, our business, results of operation or financial condition may arise between the date of submission of the Bid and Allotment. Our Company may complete the Allotment of the Equity Shares even if such events occur, and such events limit the Bidders’ ability to sell the Equity Shares Allotted pursuant to the Offer or cause the trading price of the Equity Shares to decline on listing.

Macroeconomic Overview of India

India is the sixth largest economy in the world with GDP at current prices of USD 2.61 trillion and third in terms of purchasing power parity as per 2017 estimates. (Source: IMF). The Indian economy grew by 6.5% in the financial year 2017-2018 (estimates) as against 7.1% growth for the financial year 2016-2017 (Source: Central Statistics Office, Government of India).

India GDP Forecast

India has emerged as a lead growth engine for the next five years, in terms of the rate of GDP growth. As per IMF, per capita GDP in India for 2017 is USD 1,983, up from USD 1,749 for 2016 and USD 1,639 for 2015 and is expected to grow at a CAGR of 8.7% between 2017 and 2022. India’s nominal GDP is forecasted to increase from USD 2,611 billion in the calendar year 2017 to USD 4,227 billion by the calendar year 2022 at a CAGR of 10.1% (at current prices), according to IMF.

Industry Size: Chain-affiliated Hotels

Chain-affiliated hotel rooms in India have increased from 23,751 as at March 31, 2001 to about 135,232 as at March 31, 2018. Actual supply creation was delayed as the development cycle in India is generally longer, with delays caused by varied factors including project, environmental and implementation approval delays, cost overrun and funding shortfalls, delays in receipt of completion and opening related approvals, etc. Several hotels that were completed between the financial years 2012-2015 were from projects initiated between the financial years 2007-2009. Further, the business slowdown from the end of 2008, and particularly after 2010, caused several projects to be dropped. From about financial year 2013, there was a distinct slowdown in initiation of new projects while under completion projects continued to be carried to completion. The trend of slower inventory creation is expected to continue up to the financial year 2020/2021, particularly in the luxury–upper upscale and upscale segments, as there have been fewer commitments made in the last three to four years for new hotel projects. However, several new projects that have recently been initiated, may complete in the financial year 2022 or more likely later.

Segmental Supply

Segmental supply has evolved significantly since the financial year 2001.

The following table sets forth the composition of chain-affiliated supply of hotel rooms in India:

| (Inventory in 000s)  |           |           |            |            |            |                 |                 |                      |                       |

Supply and Demand

The following chart reflects all India – Rooms supply compared to demand – for the period indicated below:

Hotel ownership

Ownership was initially concentrated among hotel chains. At the end of financial year 2001, about 69% of chain affiliated inventory was chain owned. Chain ownership of hotels has slowed and is estimated at about 29 % of total chain affiliated inventory at the financial year 2018. With decline in chain investment into hotels, particularly as international chains penetrated the market, investment was effected by private developers – developer / institutional investor ownership of hotels is scattered with very limited concentration. Only ten parties have ownership of more than 1,000 rooms and the aggregate inventory with these ten parties is about 18,700 rooms (about 14% of total chain affiliated inventory). According to Horwath HTL, we are amongst two asset owners or developers which own over 2,000 rooms in luxury and upper upscale segment as of March 31, 2018.

Overview of Key Impact Factors

Tourism

Foreign Tourist Arrivals (FTA)

FTA for the financial year 2018 was reported at 10.5 million by the Department of Tourism, Government of India. Year-on-year FTA grew by 1.33 million in the financial year 2018. In five years from financial 2014 to 2018, FTA grew by 3.8 million which is over 90% of FTA growth numbers of 4.2 million for the previous ten years from the financial year 2004 to 2013. The e-visa scheme was made available for foreign visitors with effect from November 2014. This has been extremely successful in attracting inbound travel, particularly as visitors can come in with short lead-time for the trip. The leisure sector, MICE and business travel is expected to materially benefit from this facility.

Domestic Tourism

Travel volumes, in terms of visits by domestic travellers, have grown at 13.7% CAGR between calendar year 2001 and calendar year 2016. Although hotels and resorts in India secure only a small percentage of the overall domestic travel in the country, this segment is an increasingly important demand generator for the hotel sector. Domestic travel numbers have grown nearly seven times, from 236.5 million visits in 2001 to 1.61 billion visits in 2016.

Access Infrastructure

Better travel infrastructure, in terms of better roads and airports, is a major benefit for domestic travel whether for business, leisure, MICE or social purposes. Infrastructure projects such as the Golden Quadrilateral program creates greater travel facility within regions and enable speedy vehicular movement combined with a major increase in the vehicular options and the mind-set for short duration vacation with road journeys. The upgraded road infrastructure has helped develop demand and resort capacity in several markets.

Air Traffic

Passenger movement at these key markets for the Company grew at 9.3% CAGR between the financial years 2008 and 2018, with 10.4% CAGR growth was achieved on all-India basis. CAGR between the financial years 2015 and 2018 was 15.6% and 17.5% for key cities and all-India respectively

Business Travel

Business Travel comprises inbound and domestic visitation for business related purposes. This includes travel on corporate account and by individual business travellers. This segment is a predominant source of demand for hotels located in primarily business oriented locations.

Leisure Travel

Leisure travel comprises vacation travel, including short duration vacations. Greater affordability, changing attitudes towards lifestyle, and improved road and air connectivity have materially encouraged short stay vacations including on weekends and extended weekends when a public holiday combines with a weekend as does occur two to four times every year.

MICE Visitation

MICE visitation is mainly corporate driven for conferences, training programs and other events that are of customer-facing intent. MICE demand tends to carry price sensitivity; such demand with optional timing may choose off-season months to enjoy lower rates at better quality hotels. Hotels in predominantly business locations will generate MICE demand for training and corporate seminars – these could be day events or residential events. Conferences that include recreation elements (incentives and rewards for dealers, staff or industry players and events that select a location in order to combine work with recreation for delegates) choose city centre locations and resort destinations.

Weddings and social travel

Weddings and social travel involve mainly domestic visitation for participating in family weddings, destination weddings and other wedding related or family celebrations (such as anniversaries). Wedding and social event demand will of course gravitate to hotels that have the function areas, guest room capacity and also the quality to host such events at a level consistent with the status of the host.

Airlines and airline crew

This demand set helps create a core of demand at hotels, albeit at significantly discounted pricing. Crew demand could arise from international and domestic carriers – while the major international airlines will use upper tier hotels, more price sensitive airlines are open to using upper midscale hotels. Airlines also need to use hotels for layovers in case of significantly delayed flights. This demand is relatively nominal and mainly occurs at hotels that are closer to the airports. In such cases, airlines will prefer more moderately priced hotels that are nevertheless of good standard.

Transit demand

Persons at overnight transits between cities also need to use hotel accommodation which is typically located close to the point of onward journey. Transit demand could occur on the inward and/or outward leg of international travel or for travel between cities that are connected through a regional hub.

Barriers to Entry

Development of hotels in India faces several challenges, principal among which are:

Land: Availability of land at locations that are suitable for hotels, and high cost of available land, create limitations on hotel development and viability. Limited development rights and end-use restrictions on available sites create further challenges. These factors often result in development of hotels with limited inventory.

Regulatory approvals: Hotel projects require several regulatory approvals and licenses, before implementation of the project and upon its completion prior to opening. The process of obtaining approvals can be time consuming and materially adds to the development lifecycle. Uncertainties associated with the timing of approvals have often caused delays in opening of hotels, these delays significantly add to interest cost during construction period and pressure on debt service obligations. Additionally, cost escalations occur due to delayed completion impacting project viability, funding of completion and initial operations, and project quality.

Financing and capital Requirement (Equity and Debt): In the backdrop of several hotel projects which are in debt default, bankers are extremely selective in providing development finance for hotel projects. Further, interest rates tend to be high - currently in the range of 10% to 14% with the lower range only being available to borrowers with established credibility. In addition, hotel projects require sizeable equity capital for project development and to meet cash shortfalls during operations. Shortage of suitable equity capital is a significant constraint towards development of hotels, particularly a portfolio of assets or hotels with large inventory of rooms and other facilities.

Manpower shortages: Manpower shortages are increasing particularly staff and managers with sufficient operating experience and skills for hotel. This poses limitations for all hotels but more specifically for hotel operated by owners as independent properties.

Distressed assets – The hotel industry has seen considerable debt-related stressed assets, including projects that are left incomplete or completion prolonged due to lack of funding. Stress has arisen due to various factors: (a) debt terms, by way of high interest rates and repayment obligations over shorter periods than are generally impracticable for hotels; (b) higher project costs emanating from delays, such delays caused by funding, regulatory approvals and project execution issues; and (c) slower demand growth due to slow general business conditions. The stressed assets create acquisition opportunities for interested investors.

Commercial and Retail Real Estate Market in India (Source: CBRE)

Overview

The Indian economy's growth rate reached a five-quarter high of 7.2% during the quarter ended December 2017, compared with 6.5% in the previous quarter. The upward momentum was largely attributed to the continued recovery of the manufacturing sector, which grew by 8.1%. In addition, sectors such as trade, hotels and transport (9%), and public administration, defence and other services (7.2%) also contributed to this strong momentum. The construction sector's performance improved sharply as it grew by 6.8% compared with 2.8% in the previous quarter. Moreover, the growth of real estate services (along with financial, insurance and professional services) sector increased from 6.4% to 6.7% during the review period. However, despite the visible recovery in quarterly GDP, the Reserve Bank of India continued to project 2017-2018 growth rate at 6.6%.

According to CBRE Research, after rising to 5.2% in December 2017, retail inflation (measured by consumer price inflation) continued on its downward curve, declining to 4.4% in February 2018. In February 2018, the Monetary Policy Committee also estimated inflation at 4.3% to 4.7% during the second half of 2017 and 5.1% to 5.6% during the first half of 2018. Due to the constant fluctuation in inflation, the central bank has decided to keep lending rates stable for now at 6.0%. However, if inflation continues to pose a challenge, the bank might become inclined towards adopting monetary tightening measures in 2018.

Recent disruptions in the technology sector does not seem to have significantly affected the overall leasing activity in the country. Moreover, growth in other sectors appears to have helped plug the gap created by reduced leasing by most Indian tech firms. Despite a drop in its share in office space take-up in India, technology corporates remained the biggest demand driver with a share of 25% during the first quarter of 2018.

Overview

We are an owner, developer and asset manager of high-end hotels in key metro cities in India. Our hotel platform comprises five operating hotels, including a hotel with a co-located serviced residence, located in the Mumbai Metropolitan Region, Hyderabad and Bengaluru, representing 2,328 keys, as of September 30, 2018. Our hotels are branded with globally recognized hospitality brands and are in the luxury-upper upscale and upscale hotel segments, according to the Horwath Report. Our hotel platform emphasizes strategic locations, efficient design and development, appropriate positioning in hotel segments together with branding and operational tie-ups with leading hospitality companies. We use our experience to actively manage the hotel assets to drive performance. In addition, we have developed commercial and retail spaces, in close proximity to certain of our hotels.

We have developed our hotels at strategic locations generally with high barriers-to-entry and in high density business districts of their respective metro cities, according to the Horwath Report. We generally develop our hotels on large land parcels, allowing us to situate a greater number of rooms, as well as provide a wide range of amenities, such as, fine dining and specialty restaurants, large banquet and outdoor spaces. We endeavour to build our hotels to superior standards targeting the luxury-upper upscale and upscale hotel segments at an efficient gross built up area and development cost per key.

We believe we have a competitive advantage in key metro cities due to, the significant time outlay required to build and establish a profitable hotel or commercial project, our early mover advantage in large, mixed-use developments in specific micro-markets and availability of unutilized land at certain of our hotel properties to further expand our operations, among others.

We seek to brand our hotels with leading global hospitality brands, which we believe are well matched to the location, size, target customer base and intended hotel segment of our hotel properties. This allows us to save on the time and cost required to build, develop and maintain our ‘own hotel brand’. Our hotels are currently branded with global brands such as JW Marriott, Westin, Marriott, Marriott Executive Apartments, Renaissance and Four Points by Sheraton which are held by Marriott Hotels India Private Limited and its affiliates (collectively “Marriott”). We also determine, by detailed financial and operational analysis, whether hotel operations should be undertaken directly by us or by engaging third party hotel operators. Currently, our hotel at Vashi, Navi Mumbai, is operated by us under a license agreement with Marriott, and four of our hotels, including our serviced residence, are operated pursuant to hotel operation and related agreements with Marriott.

We follow an active asset management model for our hotels operated by third parties, pursuant to which we closely monitor, and exercise regular oversight over, the performance of our hotel properties. Among other things, we discuss and agree on budgeting and operational and financial targets, review performance reports, engage with the hotel management team at each hotel by conducting detailed monthly performance review meetings and provide regular inputs on cost saving initiatives and potential improvements. We believe that our active asset management model, the premium location of our hotels, our large room inventory and large function spaces, together with our relationship with international hospitality brands, has allowed our hotels to achieve competitive financial and operational parameters. For example most of our hotels have higher ADR, occupancies and RevPAR compared to the average of other hotels in their respective micro-markets and hotel segments, for the financial year 2018, according to the Horwath Report. See “Industry Overview” on page 133.

Well Positioned to Benefit from Industry Trends

According to the Horwath Report, growth in per capita income, changing demographic dynamics, rising urbanization, growth in travel and higher discretionary spending trends, are expected to assist the growth of the hospitality industry in India. Given our presence in key metro cities which are expected to benefit from the growth in these parameters, we are well placed to benefit from the potential growth opportunity. We believe we have a competitive advantage in the key metro cities due to the significant time outlay required for companies to build and establish a profitable hotel or commercial office space or mall and our early mover advantage in large, mixed-use developments in specific micro-markets. Further, the availability of land with our company in proximity to our developments for further expansion and high entry costs to develop projects in metro cities where our developments and projects are located, provide us with an advantage in our relevant micro-markets.

Further, according to the Horwath Report, the luxury-upper upscale hotel segment is expected to witness a growth in the MICE (meetings, incentives, conferences and events) segment. We believe that given our presence in key metro cities and size of our hotels, including large sized banquet, outdoor and conferencing facilities, particularly at our hotel at Sahar Mumbai and at our hotel and convention centre at Powai, Mumbai, we are well-positioned to benefit from the growth potential in the MICE segment, facilitating both domestic and international business meetings and conferences. We believe, the technology and facilities available at our properties in addition to their locational advantage will allow us to capture the expected growth in this segment.

According to CBRE Research, due to sustained occupier interest, leasing activity for commercial and office real estate rose by about 25% on a yearly basis and crossed 10 million square feet during the first quarter of 2018. Further, according to CBRE Research, the Indian retail real estate market witnessed continuous foray of international brands, launch of new retail developments and robust demand for space in the second half of 2017. We believe we are well positioned to leverage this growth due to our in-depth understanding of the rental market and the needs and preferences of consumers. We believe that our clients have confidence in us, demonstrated by our relationships with several large corporate clients and domestic and global retail brands, including a long-term agreement with a leading global professional services company for 109,228 square feet of commercial space at Whitefield, Bengaluru. Such relationships may help us to secure clients for our new developments and mitigate the risks that may arise from an inability to secure clients for large commercial or retail spaces at suitable rates.

Experienced Management Team

We have a strong management team with significant industry experience. Our Promoters, Mr. Ravi Raheja and Mr. Neel Raheja, have been instrumental in the growth of our hospitality and retail business and actively advise on finance, corporate strategy and planning. Further, our Managing Director and CEO, Mr. Sanjay Sethi has three decades of experience in the hospitality industry, including with leading Indian hotel chains, and across hotel segments. Further, our Executive Director and CFO, Mr. Rajeev Newar, has over 26 years of experience in roles in finance and management. Our Key Management Personnel and senior management include qualified professionals and industry experts, with significant experience across various industries and functions including finance, legal, projects and design, asset management, hospitality and logistics. Our Promoters, Board and management team have demonstrated an ability to enhance our performance by growing our business through different economic and industry cycles. We believe that the strength of our management team and its understanding of the hospitality and real estate market in India enables us to continue to take advantage of current and future market opportunities.

Backed by Leading Indian Real Estate Developer

We are part of K. Raheja Corp group which is a leading business group in India and we believe that we derive significant benefit from the confidence that consumers, lenders, commercial partners, vendors and others place in the group. The K. Raheja Companies have extensive experience in developing large scale real estate and commercial projects resulting in a strong understanding of industry and market trends, which we leverage to identify suitable locations and opportunities. We further leverage the experience and relationships of these companies with construction companies to develop hotels at optimal cost and quality. For example, the average development cost per room (including the cost of land), for our luxury hotel at Sahar, Mumbai, completed in financial year 2015 was ₹ 13.99 million. Further, our hotel project management and design team, works together with the K. Raheja Companies and leverages the experience of K. Raheja Companies' design teams to develop our hotel properties, commercial offices and malls.

Competitive Strategies

Focus on Maximizing Performance in Existing Portfolio through Active Asset Management

A critical part of our growth strategy is to continue our focus on maximizing the cost efficiency of our portfolio by following a disciplined approach to asset management, and a collaborative working arrangement with our hotel operators to drive strategic and tactical initiatives, to drive profitability. Some of the initiatives are listed below:

- alternative and optimal utilization of hotel spaces to maximize and diversify revenue sources besides room revenue by increasing our share of revenue from food and beverage, meeting rooms, club floors, conferences, events and commercial or retail space;
- continued focus on upgrading facilities to work towards a best-in-class experience across our existing hotels by undertaking renovations and rebranding exercises;
- improve staff productivity and efficiency through appropriate training and learning exercises and an optimal use of technology;
- undertake energy saving initiatives that are both cost-efficient and environmentally friendly as well explore shared service opportunities, such as laundry and finance operations, for our hotels located in the same city; and
- ensuring presence of leadership personnel commensurate with the size and scale of each hotel property.

Disciplined Development of Assets in the Current Pipeline

We are in the process of developing three additional hotel projects which are expected to have 588 keys and two projects representing commercial office space with built-up area (excluding car parking/utilities) of approximately 1.12 million square feet. We have traditionally acquired large parcels of land at competitive prices with the intention to develop hotel-led mixed-use projects. We seek to leverage unutilized FSI at some of our hotel locations which allows us to develop additional commercial or retail spaces. For example, we are developing commercial space in Powai, Mumbai and an IT Park in Whitefield, Bengaluru located on unutilized land at our hotel properties. We also intend to focus on developing new hotel-led mixed-use projects in prime locations with development sizes similar to our existing projects, and which feature a combination of hotels, retail developments and commercial office space. Our retail and commercial space under construction is expected to generate regular rental income and cushion the hospitality cash flow cyclicality. Retail and commercial space are also expected to complement the hospitality business and generate synergies within the hotel led mixed-use projects. For example, we believe that the development of our commercial and retail real estate projects in proximity to our hotels will provide benefits to our hotel business for MICE events and assist in driving room occupancy.

Expand Portfolio by way of Opportunistic and Accretive Acquisitions

The hospitality industry in India has recently experienced some consolidation according to the Horwath Report, and we will continue to explore opportunities for acquiring operating hotel assets. The hotel industry has seen considerable debt-related stressed assets, including projects that are left incomplete or completion prolonged due to lack of funding which creates acquisition opportunities, according to the Horwath Report. We seek to leverage our experience and in-house capabilities to acquire operational or near complete hotel assets at an attractive price to reduce replacement cost, initiate turnaround strategies through active asset management, brand repositioning, property enhancement or cost controls and derive benefits of economies of scale. We believe that our asset ownership model allows us the flexibility to acquire a variety of existing branded hotels unlike hotel companies which operate under their own brand.

Further, we will evaluate inorganic growth opportunities, in keeping with our strategy to grow and develop our market share. We may consider opportunities for inorganic growth, such as through acquisitions of operating hotel assets, if, among other things, they:

- are consistent with the positioning and parameters of our existing hotels and which we estimate are high-yielding hotel assets;
- consolidate our market position in strategic micro-markets in key metro cities;
- achieve operating leverage by unlocking potential efficiency and synergy benefits;
- strengthen and expand our portfolio to newer geographies across India which typically attract significant traffic from business and leisure travellers particularly in the NCR, Bengaluru, Pune, Chennai and Goa; and
- enhance our depth of experience and know-how.

Maintain a Sustainable Capital Structure and Ensure Prudent Capital Allocation

We seek to expand our portfolio of hotel properties organically or inorganically, based on industry developments and supply and demand movements across the hotel sector and in specific locations and micro markets. Our strategy is to invest in buying completed projects in demand dense markets when acquisition costs are low and we are able to obtain financing at suitable rates. We leverage our Company's and K. Raheja Companies' development strength to construct and develop our hotels and thereafter actively manage properties along with a suitable hospitality brand partner. Our approach has allowed us to allocate capital at opportune times to acquire land and build hotels efficiently. Once our hotels are operational, we aim to take advantage of growing demand to maximize revenue and returns by partnering with well-renowned hotel operators, as well as to reduce existing debt. As of September 30, 2018 and March 31, 2018, 2017 and 2016, our Average Cost of Indebtedness (including exchange (gain)/loss) was 12.92% 8.65%, 9.68% and 11.11%, respectively; Average Cost of Indebtedness (excluding exchange (gain)/loss) was 9.09%, 8.73%, 9.82% and 9.18%, respectively and our debt to equity ratio was 5.75, 5.42, 5.59 and 4.51, respectively. We aim to continue to reduce our cost of indebtedness through active evaluation of refinancing and alternative capital sources.

Opportunity for reflagging hotels or renegotiating hotel operation contracts

The hotel operation contracts for our operational hotels, including our serviced residence, at Powai, Mumbai and Hyderabad will be due for renewal in March 2020 and December 2021, respectively. Further, our license agreement for our hotel at Vashi, Navi Mumbai will be due for renewal in December 2021. This provides us with an opportunity to rebrand hotel assets or reposition our properties by using alternate brands at these hotels to better cater to expected demand in the respective micro markets where our hotels are located. Given the demand potential in the hospitality sector according to the Horwath Report, we believe that we may also be able to renegotiate better terms for our hotel operation contracts. We may also evaluate options of diversifying our asset portfolio to include more international brands of similar to higher positioning as our current brands, in order to reduce risk of reliance on any one hospitality company.

Details of the Objects

1. Repayment/prepayment of certain indebtedness

Our Company has entered into various financing arrangements with banks, financial institutions and other entities. The borrowing arrangements entered into by our Company include borrowings in the form of terms loans, and fund based and non-fund based working capital facilities. For details of these financing arrangements including indicative terms and conditions, see “Financial Indebtedness” on page 616. As on December 31, 2018, the amount outstanding under the borrowing arrangements entered into by our Company was ₹ 25,845.80 million (excluding interest) on a standalone basis.

Our Company intends to utilize ₹ 7,200.00 million (approximately) of the Net Proceeds towards repayment or prepayment of term loans availed by our Company (including any penalty arising out of such prepayment of loans). We believe that such repayment or prepayment will help reduce our outstanding indebtedness and debt servicing costs and enable utilization of the internal accruals for further investment towards business growth and expansion. In addition, we believe that this would improve our ability to raise further resources in the future to fund potential business development opportunities.

The selection of borrowings proposed to be prepaid or repaid amongst our borrowing arrangements availed will be based on various factors, including (i) cost of the borrowing to our Company including applicable interest rates, (ii) any conditions attached to the borrowings restricting our ability to prepay/ repay the borrowings and time taken to fulfil, or obtain waivers for fulfilment of such conditions, (iii) receipt of consents for prepayment from the respective lenders, (iv) terms and conditions of such consents and waivers, (v) levy of any prepayment penalties and the quantum thereof, (vi) receipt of requisite approvals in accordance with applicable laws, (vii) provisions of any laws, rules and regulations governing such borrowings, and (viii) other commercial considerations including, among others, the amount of the loan outstanding and the remaining tenor of the loan. For details, see “Risk Factors – Some of our loan agreements contain restrictive covenants. Inability to effectively service our borrowings, comply with or obtain waivers of applicable loan covenants, as the case may be, may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial conditions.” on page 30.

Macroeconomic Overview of India

India is the sixth largest economy in the world with GDP at current prices of USD 2.61 trillion and third in terms of purchasing power parity as per 2017 estimates. (Source: IMF). The Indian economy grew by 6.5% in the financial year 2017-2018 (estimates) as against 7.1% growth for the financial year 2016-2017 (Source: Central Statistics Office, Government of India).

India GDP Forecast

India has emerged as a lead growth engine for the next five years, in terms of the rate of GDP growth. As per IMF, per capita GDP in India for 2017 is USD 1,983, up from USD 1,749 for 2016 and USD 1,639 for 2015 and is expected to grow at a CAGR of 8.7% between 2017 and 2022. India’s nominal GDP is forecasted to increase from USD 2,611 billion in the calendar year 2017 to USD 4,227 billion by the calendar year 2022 at a CAGR of 10.1% (at current prices), according to IMF.

The chart below provides the IMF forecast for GDP growth rate (at constant prices) for India and the top seven global economies for the next five years.

India GDP and Hotel Room Demand

Economic growth has a material benefit in creating demand for hotels. With an increase in GDP (at current prices) from USD 1,224 billion in 2008 to USD 2,611 billion for 2017, the demand for hotel rooms has increased from 26,300 rooms per day in 2008 to 84,100 rooms per day for 2017. With India’s GDP is expected to grow at 7.4% to 8.1% (at constant prices) over the next five years, growth in the demand for hotel rooms can reasonably be expected. The chart below compares the demand for hotel rooms (RPD growth) with the GDP levels for India.

Key demographic aspects

Increased urbanisation: India's urban population has increased from 27% of total population (per census 2001) to 31.16% of the total population (per Census 2011) (Source: Census of India, 2011).

Middle class population: The middle class population in India has doubled from 300 million to 600 million between 2004 and 2012, according to World Economic Forum, and is likely to overtake that of US and China by 2027.

Young Population: Estimates by PwC in a study focusing on Indian workplace of 2022, indicate that by 2020, the average age of an Indian will be 29 years, compared with average age of 38 years for both China and USA and 48 years for Japan. This young population will help constitute a large working population, with an estimated 64% of India's population to be in the working age population by year 2020-2021 (Source: Union budget and economic survey 2013). A large working population with young demographics can reasonably be expected to enhance the discretionary spending capacity.

Classifications of Hotel Rooms Supply

Certain terms which are used for classifying and categorizing hotels, are listed below:

Luxury and upper upscale segment – these classifications typically refer to top tier hotels. In India, these would generally be classified as five star, deluxe and luxury hotels.

Upscale segment – these are hotels which are more moderately positioned and priced, with smaller room sizes, than the top tier hotels. In India, these would generally be classified as four or even five star hotels.

Upper midscale segment – these hotels are more moderately positioned and priced than upscale hotels. These may be full service or even select service hotels, typically with fewer public areas and facilities and possibly smaller room sizes, than upscale hotels. In India, these would generally be classified as four star and sometimes three star hotels.

Midscale segment – these are typically three star hotels with distinctly moderate room sizes, quality and pricing, and a lower quality of services, while domestic brand midscale hotels are often more full service in nature, services tend to be more selectively available among international branded midscale hotels.

Economy segment – these are typically two star hotels providing functional accommodations and limited services, while being focused on price consciousness.

Chain-affiliated hotels are hotels that are either (i) owned and operated by hotel chains, (ii) operated by hotel chains on behalf of other owners, or (iii) operated by owners themselves or third parties under a franchise arrangement from hotel chains. These include all recognized international global chains operating in India, irrespective of the number of hotels or rooms operated by them in the country and domestic hotel chains that are generally considered as operating under common branding.

Chain-affiliated hotels do not include other domestic chains which have less than five hotels operating regionally in India, groups that have multiple hotels only within one state (unless they are generally regarded as chain-affiliated hotels by the market), companies that are primarily operating time share facilities and one star hotels. There is significant amount of room inventory outside the chain-affiliated hotels in India, with a mix of product types, positioning, service and operating standards and varied degrees of competitiveness. Independent hotels have not been included due to the following main reasons:

1. lack of sufficiently co-ordinated data for independent hotels that is available under a reliable and consistent standard;
2. increasingly challenged competitiveness of these independent hotels against growing presence of chain-affiliated hotels, particularly under an environment of multi-city corporate travel needs, and the cost and efficiency of digital marketing capability;
3. longer-term constraints on independent hotel growth as hotel chains, particularly domestic chains, spread their presence outside the main cities; and
4. limited size of independent hotels given the reluctance of banks to finance larger projects unless these have access to strong marketing and management systems.

The pace of growth of independent hotels has considerably slowed over the years, relative to chain-affiliated hotels. Thus, considering past and current performance of chain-affiliated hotels while also competing with the available supply of independent hotels is an adequate reflection of the competitive ability and environment for chain-affiliated hotels. In this context the trends and outlook presented for chain-affiliated hotels will not be materially impacted if independent hotels were also to be considered.

Industry Size: Chain-affiliated Hotels

Chain-affiliated hotel rooms in India have increased from 23,751 as at March 31, 2001 to about 135,232 as at March 31, 2018.

Supply growth and diversity of supply was initially spurred by a very strong business period from the financial year 2005 through the initial months of the financial year 2009, particularly financial year 2007 to the summer of 2008. About 18,500 rooms were added in the financial years 2010 and 2011. Thereafter, an average of just under 11,000 rooms were added each year for the next four years. The pace of addition of new rooms slowed to an average of just below 9,400 rooms per year for the next three years, i.e. financial year 2016 through 2018, with approximately 10,000 rooms added in the financial year 2018. Supply growth is expected to regain some momentum over the next four years, with an average of about 11,500 rooms expected to be added each year over the next four years. This growth is mainly concentrated in the upscale and upper midscale segments, comprising about 48% of total expected supply over the next four years.

For the upscale segment, real supply growth only picked up from the financial year 2011. Nine years between the financial years 2001 and 2010 saw supply being doubled, but only from a very modest base of 5,000 rooms. 14,000 rooms were added in the next six years through the financial year 2016, at 12.5% CAGR.

Actual supply creation was delayed as the development cycle in India is generally longer, with delays caused by varied factors including project, environmental and implementation approval delays, cost overrun and funding shortfalls, delays in receipt of completion and opening related approvals, etc. Several hotels that were completed between the financial years 2012-2015 were from projects initiated between the financial years 2007-2009. Further, the business slowdown from the end of 2008, and particularly after 2010, caused several projects to be dropped. From about financial year 2013, there was a distinct slowdown in initiation of new projects while under completion projects continued to be carried to completion. The trend of slower inventory creation is expected to continue up to the financial year 2020/2021, particularly in the luxury-upper upscale and upscale segments, as there have been fewer commitments made in the last three to four years for new hotel projects. However, several new projects that have recently been initiated, may complete in the financial year 2022 or more likely later.

Segmental Supply

Segmental supply has evolved significantly since the financial year 2001.

The following table sets forth the composition of chain-affiliated supply of hotel rooms in India:

India has moved from a top-heavy supply scenario, at the start of the century, to a more balanced supply. The midscale-economy segment has gained material supply share, almost trebling its supply relevance between the financial years 2001 (when it had a fledgling share) and 2018. The trend for the next 3-5 years is broadly expected to be the same, with the luxury-upper upscale supply share continuing to gradually decline with gains to the upscale and upper midscale sectors.

International tourists (particularly the first time visitors) often prefer luxury-upper upscale hotels as it gives them greater sense of comfort and security in an environment that is quite alien to their home country experience. Besides, hotels in this segment are necessary to better position cities, leisure destinations and key micro-markets to the international market and thereby better capitalize on global demand potential. Higher rates charged also enable better overall revenue realisations. India lacks convention centres and is missing out on a significant revenue stream – a similar consequence could ensue from prolonged supply slowdown in the upper-upscale segment.

Company's supply share is mainly in the luxury-upper upscale segment with 4.4% room inventory share by the end of financial year 2018.

Supply Composition by City

The top 10 markets (based on hotel inventory) in India have 66% of rooms supply in the financial year 2018 and each market has at least 3,000 chain-affiliated hotel rooms.

The following table sets forth the supply of chain-affiliated hotel rooms in the top 10 markets for the periods indicated:

The share of top 10 markets in inventory added between the financial years 2008 and 2015 was 71%. This share slowed materially to 52% of additions in the last three years. Bengaluru, Delhi, Chennai and, to a smaller extent, Hyderabad and Kolkata, have continued to grow through these ten years. Mumbai and Pune had slower supply growth between the financial years 2015 and 2018.

Supply share of other markets, outside the ten major markets, has remained at or around the one-third level although there has been an addition of about 38,000 rooms in absolute terms.

The markets of focus for the Company are currently the top seven markets in India in terms of supply. The Company already has hotels in Mumbai (including Navi Mumbai), Bengaluru and Hyderabad and is further developing a hotel in Navi Mumbai. Additionally, the Company is seeking to acquire or develop hotels and resorts in Delhi, Chennai, Pune and Goa.

Each of the main cities has gone through a change in supply composition, which was inevitable considering the top-heavy nature of the market in the financial year 2001. As the modest supply levels of the financial year 2001 have expanded, the supply composition has materially changed. The southern cities of Bengaluru, Chennai and Hyderabad, and Pune, have seen the sharpest shift with a decline of 34% to 42% in the supply share of luxury-upper upscale hotels between the financial years 2001 and 2018. During this period, these cities have grown in importance as business cities becoming technology hubs and embracing the new economy. This new economy has also encouraged supply creation across difference price points, by creating relevant demand. Mumbai still has 67% of its supply in the luxury-upper upscale segment, possibly an outcome of high land prices and its status as a financial capital and finance centre. It is the only city with luxury-upper upscale supply share in excess of 50%.

While investment interest (and commitments) for the luxury-upper upscale space have gained pace in the last 12-15 months, the pace of project completion is slow. We do not foresee major supply growth in this segment till the financial year 2021, with expected CAGR of 5% for this period. The supply estimates for the financial year 2022 are higher on an assumption of several new projects being completed in about four years, leading to an assumed completion by financial year 2022 and a related higher CAGR of 6.2% between the financial years 2018 and 2022.

The following table sets forth the city wide composition of chain-affiliated hotel rooms in the upscale segment:

All three southern cities have upscale supply share of 19% with Pune being a little bit higher, at 23%. Among leisure markets, Goa has 43% supply share in the luxury-upper upscale segment but only 18% in the upscale segment. This means that 39% of supply is of M-E category. While the continued rate growth in that market is remarkable despite the changed supply share, the destination could do with some truly luxury and upper-upscale hotels and also more sustained upscale hotel supply.

Foreign and Domestic Chain-affiliated Supply

The primacy of domestic chains as of financial year 2001, slowly started ceding ground to international chains which expanded on the basis of aggressive pursuit of management contracts. They also gained from supporting the development of large format hotels with larger scale that added function and meetings spaces of substance in key cities. Domestic chains had earlier based their expansion on a combination of asset ownership and management contracts, often weighted more substantially towards asset ownership.

An interesting feature of hotel supply in India is the lack of scale – hotels tend to have lesser number of rooms than in several other international markets. Larger inventories help create economies of scale and enable hotels to widen their demand reach across varied demand segments, such as MICE and groups. This also creates benefit of larger revenue capture from F&B elements, besides benefitting costs due to economies of scale. While the varied demand sources and need for larger core occupancies may impact the ADR levels at larger hotels – relative to say a hotel of comparable standards but with lesser inventory and more business segment focused demand in the same market, the overall revenue and profit gain is often beneficial.

New supply since the financial year 2001 has seen a modest increase in willingness of developers to build larger hotels. Nevertheless, the number of hotels with sizeable inventory still remain very modest. New supply is predominantly of small to medium sized inventory, reflecting minor to moderate changes in the last 17 years. As of financial year 2018, the average room size for hotels in the luxury, upper-upscale, upscale categories is 208, 169 and 126 respectively. This compares to 585, 398 and 152 for assets in our portfolio for respective categories.

Most markets have moved to the right in the graph above by the financial year 2018, relative to the financial year 2015, indicating sizeable occupancy improvements. The vertical movement has been rather limited with Goa and Mumbai recording bigger gains. This is a result of a combination of factors including a slow economy and investment climate, financial sector stress, demand and occupancy pressure exacerbated by new supply arising from delayed completion of projects. Further, lower city-wide ADR is also an outcome of changing supply composition – as more mid-priced sector hotels come on board, the overall city rate levels naturally decline. On the other hand, ADR has improved in Mumbai and Goa on the back of consistently ‘busy’ occupancy levels.

The following chart sets forth the overall performances of key markets in India for the first quarter of the financial year 2019 as compared to the first quarter of the financial year 2018:

The performance of the key markets for the first quarter of the financial year 2019 reflected improved occupancy levels and ADR relative to the first quarter of the financial year 2018, except for the decline in occupancy levels in Bengaluru, primarily due to supply additions of approximately 1,000 room between the first quarter of the financial year 2018 and the first quarter of the financial year 2019. However, ADR increase in Bengaluru has resulted in a RevPAR increase of 7.9%.

The following table sets forth the RevPAR percentage change of the first quarter of the financial year 2019 as compared to the first quarter of the financial year 2018 for market where Chalet Hotels Limited has a presence:

Overview of Key Impact Factors

Tourism

Foreign Tourist Arrivals (FTA)

FTA for the financial year 2018 was reported at 10.5 million by the Department of Tourism, Government of India. Year-on-year FTA grew by 1.33 million in the financial year 2018. In five years from financial 2014 to 2018, FTA grew by 3.8 million which is over 90% of FTA growth numbers of 4.2 million for the previous ten years from the financial year 2004 to 2013. The e-visa scheme was made available for foreign visitors with effect from November 2014. This has been extremely successful in attracting inbound travel, particularly as visitors can come in with short lead-time for the trip. The leisure sector, MICE and business travel is expected to materially benefit from this facility.

The following chart reflects the foreign tourist arrivals in India for the period indicated below (in millions):

Domestic Tourism

Travel volumes, in terms of visits by domestic travellers, have grown at 13.7% CAGR between calendar year 2001 and calendar year 2016. Although hotels and resorts in India secure only a small percentage of the overall domestic travel in the country, this segment is an increasingly important demand generator for the hotel sector. Domestic travel numbers have grown nearly seven times, from 236.5 million visits in 2001 to 1.61 billion visits in 2016.

Access Infrastructure

Better travel infrastructure, in terms of better roads and airports, is a major benefit for domestic travel whether for business, leisure, MICE or social purposes. Infrastructure projects such as the Golden Quadrilateral program creates greater travel facility within regions and enable speedy vehicular movement combined with a major increase in the vehicular options and the mind-set for short duration vacation with road journeys. The upgraded road infrastructure has helped develop demand and resort capacity in several markets.

Air Traffic

Passenger movement at these key markets for the Company grew at 9.3% CAGR between the financial years 2008 and 2018, with 10.4% CAGR growth was achieved on all-India basis. CAGR between the financial years 2015 and 2018 was 15.6% and 17.5% for key cities and all-India respectively

Business Travel

Business Travel comprises inbound and domestic visitation for business related purposes. This includes travel on corporate account and by individual business travellers. This segment is a predominant source of demand for hotels located in primarily business oriented locations.

Select hotels also secure up to 15% of total demand from the extended stay segment i.e. guests staying for 15 days and longer in connection with projects, training programs, transfers and new jobs in a given location. Such demand particularly arises in luxury-upper upscale and upscale hotels. Of course, long stay demand is the core element of business for serviced apartment facilities such as MEA owned by the Company in Mumbai.

Leisure Travel

Leisure travel comprises vacation travel, including short duration vacations. Greater affordability, changing attitudes towards lifestyle, and improved road and air connectivity have materially encouraged short stay vacations including on weekends and extended weekends when a public holiday combines with a weekend as does occur two to four times every year.

Currently this demand is more predominant at upper tier hotels though it has now started percolating to upscale and other hotels in some cities. Leisure travel will predominate for hotels that are in essentially leisure destinations such as Goa, Jaipur and Udaipur. City centre hotels in mainly business cities may secure some staycation business or even some leisure business if the city has the draw for this, for example New Delhi.

MICE Visitation

MICE visitation is mainly corporate driven for conferences, training programs and other events that are of customer-facing intent. MICE demand tends to carry price sensitivity; such demand with optional timing may choose off-season months to enjoy lower rates at better quality hotels. Hotels in predominantly business locations will generate MICE demand for training and corporate seminars – these could be day events or residential events. Conferences that include recreation elements (incentives and rewards for dealers, staff or industry players and events that select a location in order to combine work with recreation for delegates) choose city centre locations and resort destinations.

At present, MICE events are hosted in hotels (mainly premium and upscale hotels) with large function spaces. These hotels have gained material revenue scale and diversified business segments from making the investment in such large meeting and function spaces. It is also important to recognize that these hotels will not lose their primacy when convention centres are set up in cities because there are numerous needs for events which are of a size that are not suitable for large convention centre. Further, convention centres are not truly suitable for weddings and social events.

Weddings and social travel

Weddings and social travel involve mainly domestic visitation for participating in family weddings, destination weddings and other wedding related or family celebrations (such as anniversaries). Wedding and social event demand will of course gravitate to hotels that have the function areas, guest room capacity and also the quality to host such events at a level consistent with the status of the host. Amongst the Company hotels, JW Marriott Mumbai Sahar and Renaissance Mumbai Convention Centre Hotel both of which have substantial function spaces (covered and open lawns) and large rooms inventory, are oriented towards attracting and servicing wedding demand; these hotels are amongst the main venues for corporate and social MICE or events and weddings in Mumbai.

Airlines and airline crew

This demand set helps create a core of demand at hotels, albeit at significantly discounted pricing. Crew demand could arise from international and domestic carriers – while the major international airlines will use upper tier hotels, more price sensitive airlines are open to using upper midscale hotels. Airlines also need to use hotels for layovers in case of significantly delayed flights. This demand is relatively nominal and mainly occurs at hotels that are closer to the airports. In such cases, airlines will prefer more moderately priced hotels that are nevertheless of good standard.

Transit demand

Persons at overnight transits between cities also need to use hotel accommodation which is typically located close to the point of onward journey. Transit demand could occur on the inward and/or outward leg of international travel or for travel between cities that are connected through a regional hub.

Barriers to Entry

Development of hotels in India faces several challenges, principal among which are:

Land: Availability of land at locations that are suitable for hotels, and high cost of available land, create limitations on hotel development and viability. Limited development rights and end-use restrictions on available sites create further challenges. These factors often result in development of hotels with limited inventory.

Regulatory approvals: Hotel projects require several regulatory approvals and licenses, before implementation of the project and upon its completion prior to opening. The process of obtaining approvals can be time consuming and materially adds to the development lifecycle. Uncertainties associated with the timing of approvals have often caused delays in opening of hotels, these delays significantly add to interest cost during construction period and pressure on debt service obligations. Additionally, cost escalations occur due to delayed completion impacting project viability, funding of completion and initial operations, and project quality.

Financing and capital Requirement (Equity and Debt): In the backdrop of several hotel projects which are in debt default, bankers are extremely selective in providing development finance for hotel projects. Further, interest rates tend to be high - currently in the range of 10% to 14% with the lower range only being available to borrowers with established credibility. In addition, hotel projects require sizeable equity capital for project development and to meet cash shortfalls during operations. Shortage of suitable equity capital is a significant constraint towards development of hotels, particularly a portfolio of assets or hotels with large inventory of rooms and other facilities.

Manpower shortages: Manpower shortages are increasing particularly staff and managers with sufficient operating experience and skills for hotel. This poses limitations for all hotels but more specifically for hotel operated by owners as independent properties.

Distressed assets – The hotel industry has seen considerable debt-related stressed assets, including projects that are left incomplete or completion prolonged due to lack of funding. Stress has arisen due to various factors: (a) debt terms, by way of high interest rates and repayment obligations over shorter periods than are generally impracticable for hotels; (b) higher project costs emanating from delays, such delays caused by funding, regulatory approvals and project execution issues; and (c) slower demand growth due to slow general business conditions. The stressed assets create acquisition opportunities for interested investors.

Hotel ownership

Ownership was initially concentrated among hotel chains. At the end of financial year 2001, about 69% of chain affiliated inventory was chain owned. Chain ownership of hotels has slowed and is estimated at about 29 % of total chain affiliated inventory at the financial year 2018. With decline in chain investment into hotels, particularly as international chains penetrated the market, investment was effected by private developers – developer / institutional investor ownership of hotels is scattered with very limited concentration. Only ten parties have ownership of more than 1,000 rooms and the aggregate inventory with these ten parties is about 18,700 rooms (about 14% of total chain affiliated inventory). According to Horwath HTL, we are amongst two asset owners or developers which own over 2,000 rooms in luxury and upper upscale segment as of March 31, 2018.

The chart below illustrates the change in occupancy, ADR and RevPAR across India between the financial years 2007 and 2018:

Source: Smith Travel Research and Horwath HTL

The hotel sector in India experienced a difficult period from late 2008, with a double dip in occupancy. This was primarily due to the demand-supply mismatch caused by substantial supply growth, on the one hand, and slow down of demand on the other hand. The occupancy rates across India stagnated at 57% between the financial years 2012 to 2014 and grew marginally in the financial year 2015. During financial year 2012 to 2015, 44,000 rooms were added creating nearly 70% new capacity; simultaneously the economy and demand patterns were slow.

Slowdown of occupancy invariably leads to rate decline thereby impacting RevPAR levels. Occupancy has revived since the financial year 2014 and more notably from the financial year 2015, as demand conditions have improved and new supply has slowed. The upward trend in RevPAR has mainly been occupancy led, and is expected to continue or gain momentum. ADR levels are expected to improve, slowly in some markets and more strongly in some other markets which are already experiencing strong occupancy, as demand and occupancy levels improve. Between the financial years 2015 and 2018, demand growth for luxury-upper upscale and upscale-upper midscale segments exceeded the supply growth and there was growth in ADR during this period resulting in positive RevPAR growth. Luxury-upper upscale occupancy increased from 59.9% in the financial year 2015 to 65.4% in the financial year 2018 with supply growth of 8,700 rooms. For the upscale-upper midscale segment, occupancy improved from 56.8% in the financial year 2015 to 65.6% in the financial year 2018 absorbing about 16,400 rooms during this period. RevPAR growth for these segments is higher than the all India RevPAR growth during this period by increase in both occupancy and rates reflecting the growth potential of this segment.

Performance of Hotels in India in Recent Years

The following table sets forth the city-wide performance across all segments for key markets:

RevPAR trends have been positive across at all India level and across most of the select markets. Although positive, the absolute amounts still remain modest across the country. Luxury–upper upscale and upscale-upper midscale year-on-year RevPAR growth was higher than the all India average for both years (financial year 2017 and 2018). Growth in the financial year 2018 was lower than in the financial year 2017 because of relatively higher supply growth in the financial year 2018.

Bengaluru: Bengaluru which has good supply balance between segments has seen good growth in the upscale and mid-tier segment. RevPAR growth in the luxury–upper upscale segment has been slow. The growth was a moderate 2.7% in the financial year 2017 while in the financial year 2018 the RevPAR declined by 0.6%. This was due to addition of about 1,200 new rooms since the financial year 2015 of which 500 rooms have been added in the financial year 2018.

Mumbai: RevPAR growth for Mumbai at the luxury–upper upscale level between the financial year 2016 and 2018 has been driven mainly from ADR increase. The increase has however been modest in absolute terms (between INR 300 to 400) in these years, despite no supply growth during this period. City occupancy crossed 75% in the financial year 2018, however growth is impacted by limited business on weekends for hotels.

Hyderabad: Hyderabad has gained from return of demand and growth in the general market, after resolution of the Telangana statehood issue. City occupancy crossed 65% in the financial year 2018 - first time since the financial year 2009.

Outlook for Select Geographical Markets in India

Mumbai: luxury–upper upscale and upscale

Positive business conditions are expected to increase the demand for hotels, occupancy and ADR across all segments. ADR is expected to grow at a faster pace than in recent past years, arising mainly from high occupancies and moderate new supply. The supply for new luxury-upper upscale hotels is expected to be located in north and central Mumbai with the upscale supply located mainly in north and north-eastern Mumbai and the Navi Mumbai market area. A new convention centre in Bandra Kurla Complex is expected to increase demand, with limited room inventory in its vicinity. This is expected to help increase overall demand in north Mumbai. Business travel and MICE are expected to be the main sources of demand sources. Demand from airline crew is expected to continue to grow and may result in increased demand for hotels outside the upper tier, in the event ADR levels rise.

Bengaluru: luxury- upper upscale

There has been a continued supply growth for hotel rooms in Bengaluru, 360 new rooms have been added in April 2018 and 280 rooms are expected to be added over the next two months. With strong demand during working weekdays, new supply is expected to ease weekday pressure in the medium term. Horwath expects rate pressure from regular supply expansion, across segments. The market experiences lack of demand diversity and is dependent on business travel. There is a potential for demand from aerospace and defence sectors. Micro-market factors are expected to impact hotels in different zones in the city. Two new upper upscale hotels opened in Whitefield, with 226 rooms in December 2017 and 360 rooms in April 2018. This will have short to medium term impact on hotels in this competitive set.

Hyderabad

Moderate supply growth of 1,489 rooms is expected by the financial year 2022, with 271 rooms in luxury-upper upscale segment and 670 rooms in the upscale segment. 271 rooms of ITC hotel in competitive zone of The Westin Hyderabad Mindspace are expected to open in June 2018. Whilst this is expected to have only modest impact on The Westin Hyderabad Mindspace, it may impact other hotels in the area more significantly. There is expected to be 32.6 million square-foot of new commercial space expected by December 2020. The state government is actively promoting investment in the city and state. In addition, good airport and excellent road infrastructure is expected to attract fresh investment. There is also a potential to capitalise on a convention centre, which did not occur in its initial years due to uncertainties from political agitations.

*For four hotels in this segment.

Note: (i) JW Marriott Mumbai Sahar opened in February 2015 and has been in market penetration phase in the last 3 years, up to financial year 2018. The hotel is positioned as a luxury hotel and has the largest inventory in Mumbai in that segment; (ii) Renaissance Mumbai Convention Centre Hotel was under phased renovation in the financial years 2016 and 2017. Consequently, available rooms inventory was smaller, the three meal restaurant was closed for 8 months in the financial year 2018 and the spa was closed for 4 months in the financial year 2017; (iii) MEA was also renovated over a period of 36-38 months between 2011 and 2014; and (iv) 67 rooms were added at Bengaluru Marriott Hotel Whitefield effective April 2017, increasing its available inventory by 21%.

The Company hotels have large rooms inventory, enabling substantial revenue share for the rooms department. F&B revenue is also material, benefitting from large function spaces at two of its hotels. Improved GOP is a function of more stabilised operating levels at the Mumbai hotels and the benefit of sizeable revenue contribution from rooms department which typically has materially larger margins compared to other departments such as F&B.

The Company has two hotels with large function and meeting spaces – JW Marriott Mumbai Sahar and Renaissance Mumbai Convention Centre Hotel. Both hotels have achieved material revenue from the F&B and banquet operations. On a combined basis, these hotels had F&B revenue at 80% of room revenue in the financial year 2016 and 72% of room revenue in the financial year 2017. Function revenue for the financial year 2017 was undoubtedly impacted by the demonetization in November 2016, causing a dent in revenue growth which was restricted to 7.6%. On the other hand, rooms' revenue grew nearly 20%. It is important to recognize that the large rooms' inventory and the significant function spaces support each other, creating rooms and banquet demand to the overall benefit of the hotel.

Comparison of Company hotels with segmental performance in each market

The performance of individual Company hotels is presented as occupancy index, ADR index and RevPAR index. Occupancy index = Occupancy of hotel / Occupancy of market. Similar calculation basis is used for ADR index and RevPAR index.

An occupancy index of greater than one indicates that hotel's occupancy is higher than market occupancy; an index of one indicates that hotel's occupancy is equal to the market occupancy and an index of less than one indicates that the hotel's occupancy is lower than the market occupancy. Similar interpretation basis applies for ADR index and RevPAR index in this report.

By the end of its third full operating year, the hotel has starting deriving ADR and RevPAR premium in the luxury-upper upscale segment of Eastern suburban Mumbai. About 70% of the increase in rooms demand per day for between the financial year 2016 and 2018 in the Eastern Suburban luxury-upper upscale market accrued to the benefit of JW Marriott Mumbai Sahar.

The comparative data has been restricted to Luxury-Upper upscale hotels that participate with Smith Travel Research.

JW Marriott Mumbai Sahar has achieved nominal to sizeable premiums over large sized hotels on all-India basis, with only a limited catch-up to be done on the rate front in Mumbai; having achieved its fair-share of demand, rate improvement can reasonably be expected to follow.

Renaissance Mumbai Convention Centre Hotel

Renaissance Mumbai Convention Centre Hotel was impacted by a phased renovation program covering about half the hotel rooms and several public areas.

The following table has been presented on a full inventory basis:

Renaissance Mumbai Convention Centre Hotel has substantial focus on MICE and events demand; when compared to a market set that includes luxury hotels and hotels with smaller inventory focused more on business travellers, Renaissance Mumbai Convention Centre Hotel will understandably stand discounted on the ADR front. Renaissance Mumbai Convention Centre Hotel needs to regain the business that was dropped during the renovation period and thereby improve its occupancy and rate index. Its rate declined in financial year 2018 at a time when the eastern suburban market rates grew for the Luxury-Upper Upscale segment. On comparison of the increase in demand between the financial years 2017 and 2018 in luxury-upper upscale segment in Eastern Suburban Mumbai, Renaissance Mumbai Convention Centre Hotel alone has contributed to one third of the demand growth consequent to its full inventory becoming operational after the renovation. When combined with JW Marriott Mumbai Sahar, both these hotels have contributed to almost two-thirds of this demand growth in luxury-upper upscale segment in the micro market. Going forward from the financial year 2018 to the first quarter of the financial year 2019, the Renaissance Mumbai Convention Centre Hotel has improved its occupancy index while retaining its ADR index at the same level as the financial year 2018 index.

The Westin Hyderabad Mindspace

*-comprises of hotels in Hitech City, Gachibowli, Madhapur and Kondapur area (as defined by Smith Travel Research)

Hyderabad is a business city with limited travel for leisure, recreation and destination based social events. MICE demand is also largely corporate and business based. As such, demand and occupancy challenges on weekends create limitations on occupancy growth beyond a level. This principally explains the narrowing occupancy index; while occupancy at The Westin Hyderabad Mindspace grew 3.2 pts and 2.8 pts respectively in the financial years 2017 and 2018, other hotels have also registered growth due to improved weekday demand, thereby seemingly narrowing the occupancy index premium for The Westin Hyderabad Mindspace.

Bengaluru Marriott Hotel Whitefield

Bengaluru Marriott Hotel Whitefield is a significant player in the Whitefield market. Its location and positioning in a key business district of Bengaluru enables the hotel to gain sizeable premium over luxury-upper upscale hotels in the micro market. The hotel has also had an expansion and a strategic contract that seemingly impacts overall numbers. The Company management is confident that the overall gain from the strategic contract will be material.

The hotel added 67 rooms effective April 2017 and an office tower with 300,000 square foot of commercial space; as part of the overall contract. The new rooms are fully occupied by a single occupant albeit at a discounted rate that is typical of such long-term commitments. Consequently, the Bengaluru Marriott Hotel Whitefield enjoys 100% occupancy for these new rooms. Ignoring these rooms and the contracted commitments therefore, the hotel achieved 12.6% ADR growth for the financial year 2018, although occupancy declined by 3.9%, the RevPAR increased by 2.7%. A new competitive hotel with 226 rooms opened in the immediate market in December 2017 and added materially to the competitive inventory. The gain in occupancy index was primarily due to limited occupancy growth achieved by the hotel while occupancy for the comparable market declined due to the impact of new supply.

The hotel has enjoyed occupancy at 86.8% to 88.0% in the three years of the financial year 2016 to 2018. Strong rate premium is helping the hotel to get RevPAR premium of about 42% to 45% over financial years 2016 to 2018, while comparing it with the upscale & upper midscale hotels in Navi Mumbai and Thane. If we compare the performance against all hotels in Navi Mumbai and Thane, the RevPAR premium for Four Points by Sheraton Navi Mumbai, Vashi is between 66% and 69% over the same period. The micro-market is seeing strong demand and this augurs well for the new upscale hotel with 260 room under development by the Company in Airoli.

Commercial and Retail Real Estate Market in India (Source: CBRE, cbre.co.in)

Overview

The Indian economy's growth rate reached a five-quarter high of 7.2% during the quarter ended December 2017, compared with 6.5% in the previous quarter. The upward momentum was largely attributed to the continued recovery of the manufacturing sector, which grew by 8.1%. In addition, sectors such as trade, hotels and transport (9%), and public administration, defence and other services (7.2%) also contributed to this strong momentum. The construction sector's performance improved sharply as it grew by 6.8% compared with 2.8% in the previous quarter. Moreover, the growth of real estate services (along with financial, insurance and professional services) sector increased from 6.4% to 6.7% during the review period. However, despite the visible recovery in quarterly GDP, the Reserve Bank of India continued to project 2017-2018 growth rate at 6.6%.

According to CBRE Research, after rising to 5.2% in December 2017, retail inflation (measured by consumer price inflation) continued on its downward curve, declining to 4.4% in February 2018. In February 2018, the Monetary Policy Committee also estimated inflation at 4.3% to 4.7% during the second half of 2017 and 5.1% to 5.6% during the first half of 2018. Due to the constant fluctuation in inflation, the central bank has decided to keep lending rates stable for now at 6.0%. However, if inflation continues to pose a challenge, the bank might become inclined towards adopting monetary tightening measures in 2018.

Recent disruptions in the technology sector does not seem to have significantly affected the overall leasing activity in the country. Moreover, growth in other sectors appears to have helped plug the gap created by reduced leasing by most Indian tech firms. Despite a drop in its share in office space take-up in India, technology corporates remained the biggest demand driver with a share of 25% during the first quarter of 2018.

Strengthening Domestic Demand and Governmental Reforms

According to CBRE Research, while 2016 was a year of policy announcements, 2017 saw their implementation. Last year, the government finally implemented several policies, initiatives and reforms it had announced over the past two years, infusing positively in the real estate landscape. 2018 is expected to be a year of fructification as these initiatives are likely to bear fruit.

Commercial and Office Real Estate Sector

According to CBRE Research, due to sustained occupier interest, leasing activity rose by about 25% on a yearly basis and crossed 10 million square feet during the first quarter of 2018. Bengaluru remained a key driver of office leasing in India, accounting for more than the combined share of other markets such as Delhi-NCR, Mumbai and Hyderabad. Except Bengaluru, Mumbai and Kochi, all other cities witnessed a marginal dip in space take-up on a quarterly basis.

As in the previous quarters, office space take-up was dominated by small and medium sized transactions. Small-sized transactions (less than 10,000 square feet) accounted for about 45% of the transaction activity in the quarter, while mid-sized transactions (ranging between 10,000 square feet and 50,000 square feet) held a 42% share. The share of large sized deals (greater than 100,000 square feet) marginally dipped from 5% in the previous quarter to about 4% in the first quarter of 2018. Bengaluru dominated large-sized deal closures, while a few deals were reported in Mumbai, Delhi-NCR, Chennai and Hyderabad. Sectors such as technology, e-commerce, banking/financial services and insurance (BFSI), and engineering and manufacturing dominated large-scale deal closures.

According to CBRE Research, supply addition more than tripled on an annual basis, with about 9.7 million square feet of development completions being reported during the first quarter of 2018. Four cities – Bengaluru, Mumbai, Chennai and Delhi NCR – accounted for more than 80% of the quarterly supply addition, followed by Pune. Strong supply addition was a key driver of the increase in transaction volumes in the current quarter.

Sustained occupier interest resulted in rental values rising by about 1% to 7% on a quarterly basis across several micro-markets in Bengaluru, Hyderabad and Pune. Rental growth remained limited to core locations in Delhi-NCR and Chennai during the first quarter.

Mumbai

According to CBRE Research, there has been a quarter-on-quarter increase in the leasing activity.

Sustained interest from occupiers accounted for more than half of the city's overall leasing activity in Secondary Business District and Peripheral Business District (Powai, Vikhroli). Primary space taken-up dominated leasing activity, owing to the availability of space in recently completed investment-grade developments.

According to CBRE Research, demand was primarily driven by BFSI firms which took up small and medium sized spaces across micro-markets. Although small to medium sized deals continued to dominate leasing activity, the quarter also witnessed a large-sized deal (greater than 100,000 square feet) involving a leading co-working operator in Goregaon Peripheral Business District. Co-working operators also took up space in Andheri Secondary Business District. In addition, a few medium-sized transactions (70,000 to 80,000 square feet) involving firms from sectors such as infrastructure, real estate and logistics were also reported.

Rental values remained stable during the review period across all micro-markets.

The table below sets forth the key statistics of sub market:

| Micro-market                                                                |  |  | Average rent inQuarter 1, 2018(INR / square feet /month) | Average rent inQuarter 4, 2017 (INR/ square feet / month) | Quarter-on-QuarterChange (%) | Year-on-YearChange (%) |

Bengaluru

There has been a quarter-on-quarter increase in the leasing activity.

According to CBRE Research, office space take-up remained concentrated in non-SEZ developments, with Outer Ring Road and Central Business District dominating leasing activity, followed by Extended Business District. Transaction activity mostly consisted of space take-up (and culmination of pre-commitments) in recently completed developments in Peripheral Business District (Whitefield, Electronic City) and Outer Ring Road.

Leasing activity was primarily driven by BFSI corporates followed by e-commerce, research, consulting and analytics and tech firms. Co-working / business centre operators continued to be active in the city. Small-to-medium sized deals dominated leasing activity, with a few large-sized deals being closed in Outer Ring Road.

According to CBRE Research, sustained occupier interest led to a 2% to 7% quarterly rental appreciation across non-SEZ buildings in all micro-markets. Due to lack of available space, rentals of SEZ developments in Outer Ring Road and North Bengaluru District increased by about 1% to 3% on a quarterly basis.

The table below sets forth the key statistics of sub market:

| Micro-market                                                             | Average rent in Quarter 1, 2018(INR / square feet / month) | Average rent in Quarter 4, 2017 (INR / square feet / month) | Quarter-on-Quarter Change (%) | Year-on-Year Change (%) |

Retail Real Estate Sector

According to CBRE Research, the Indian retail real estate market witnessed continuous foray of international brands, launch of new retail developments and robust demand for space in the second half of 2017. The second half of 2017 saw an addition of about two million square feet of fresh supply across the seven key cities; majority of which was concentrated in Kolkata, Delhi NCR, Chennai, Pune and Bengaluru. Supply on an annual basis was around 3.4 million square feet, almost in line with the supply that entered the key cities in 2016.

The demand for retail space remained strong as several international brands such as Tom tailor, Simon Carter and Jo Malone opened their first outlets in India, while others such as H&M and Starbucks continued to expand operations.

According to CBRE Research, a key noticeable trend in 2017 was retailers adopting an “omni-channel” strategy to connect with their consumers; whereby leading e-commerce players such as Urban Ladder and Pepperfry forayed into the brick and mortar space and set up their experience centers, while established retailers such as Zara launched their online channel in India in October.

Rental trends varied across key high-streets in major cities during the second half of 2017. High street markets such as Brigade Road and Commercial Street observed an appreciation in rentals, while rents maintained stability across most of the other high-streets in India.

According to CBRE Research, the second half of 2017 was upbeat from a policy perspective with further easing of the FDI norms. The key initiative to further encourage FDI inflows in the retail sector came in January 2018 when the Government allowed up to 100% FDI in single-brand retail through the automatic route. The policy initiative would further ease the entry of international retailers in India.

Bengaluru

According to CBRE Research, the average market rental in the East Bengaluru Retail Market (Airport Road, Ulsoor and Whitefield) is estimated to be ₹ 125-130 per square feet per month in the second half of 2017.

We endeavour to build our hotels to superior standards targeting the luxury-upper upscale and upscale hotel segments at an efficient gross built up area and development cost per key.

We believe we have a competitive advantage in key metro cities due to, the significant time outlay required to build and establish a profitable hotel or commercial project, our early mover advantage in large, mixed-use developments in specific micro-markets and availability of unutilized land at certain of our hotel properties to further expand our operations, among others.

We seek to brand our hotels with leading global hospitality brands, which we believe are well matched to the location, size, target customer base and intended hotel segment of our hotel properties. This allows us to save on the time and cost required to build, develop and maintain our ‘own hotel brand’. We also determine, by detailed financial and operational analysis, whether hotel operations should be undertaken directly by us or by engaging third party hotel operators. Currently, our hotel at Vashi, Navi Mumbai, is operated by us under a license agreement with Marriott, and four of our hotels, including our serviced residence, are operated pursuant to hotel operation and related agreements with Marriott.

We follow an active asset management model for our hotels operated by third parties, pursuant to which we closely monitor, and exercise regular oversight over, the performance of our hotel properties. We believe that our active asset management model, the premium location of our hotels, our large room inventory and large function spaces, together with our relationship with international hospitality brands, has allowed our hotels to achieve competitive financial and operational parameters. For example most of our hotels have higher ADR, occupancies and RevPAR compared to the average of other hotels in their respective micro-markets and hotel segments, for the financial year 2018, according to the Horwath Report. See “Industry Overview” on page 133.

These agreements give us access to Marriott's management expertise, industry best practices, online reservation systems, marketing strategies, systems and processes, human resources and operational know-how. Our active asset management model entails that in addition to contractual obligations under agreements with Marriott, we closely monitor, exercise regular oversight and contribute to the performance of our hotel properties. As part of our active asset management model, we regularly:

For example, we conduct detailed performance review meetings each month with the hotel management team to assess hotel performance on a host of parameters and provide regular inputs on cost saving initiatives and potential improvements;
- review performance reports generated by each hotel;
- conduct periodic meetings with hotel operator's management teams;
- discuss and optimize pricing strategies to maximize room yield by active monitoring of key corporate accounts and provide inputs on promotional activities;
- review furniture, fixtures and equipment deployment plans and assist with execution of these plans;
- review competitor set performance and penetration across relevant micro-markets; and
- assist in renewing licenses and consents, as necessary.

We believe that our active asset management model, the premium location of our hotels and our large room inventory together with large function spaces, together with our relationship with leading international hospitality brands, has allowed our hotels to achieve competitive financial and operational parameters. For example most of our hotels had higher ADR, occupancies and RevPAR compared to the average of other hotels in their respective micro-markets and hotel segments, for the financial year 2018, according to the Horwath Report.

Well Positioned to Benefit from Industry Trends

According to the Horwath Report, growth in per capita income, changing demographic dynamics, rising urbanization, growth in travel and higher discretionary spending trends, are expected to assist the growth of the hospitality industry in India. Given our presence in key metro cities which are expected to benefit from the growth in these parameters, we are well placed to benefit from the potential growth opportunity. We believe we have a competitive advantage in the key metro cities due to the significant time outlay required for companies to build and establish a profitable hotel or commercial office space or mall and our early mover advantage in large, mixed-use developments in specific micro-markets. Further, the availability of land with our company in proximity to our developments for further expansion and high entry costs to develop projects in metro cities where our developments and projects are located, provide us with an advantage in our relevant micro-markets.

Further, according to the Horwath Report, the luxury-upper upscale hotel segment is expected to witness a growth in the MICE (meetings, incentives, conferences and events) segment. We believe that given our presence in key metro cities and size of our hotels, including large sized banquet, outdoor and conferencing facilities, particularly at our hotel at Sahar Mumbai and at our hotel and convention centre at Powai, Mumbai, we are well-positioned to benefit from the growth potential in the MICE segment, facilitating both domestic and international business meetings and conferences. We believe, the technology and facilities available at our properties in addition to their locational advantage will allow us to capture the expected growth in this segment.

According to CBRE Research, due to sustained occupier interest, leasing activity for commercial and office real estate rose by about 25% on a yearly basis and crossed 10 million square feet during the first quarter of 2018. Further, according to CBRE Research, the Indian retail real estate market witnessed continuous foray of international brands, launch of new retail developments and robust demand for space in the second half of 2017. We believe we are well positioned to leverage this growth due to our in-depth understanding of the rental market and the needs and preferences of consumers. We believe that our clients have confidence in us, demonstrated by our relationships with several large corporate clients and domestic and global retail brands, including a long-term agreement with a leading global professional services company for 109,228 square feet of commercial space at Whitefield, Bengaluru. Such relationships may help us to secure clients for our new developments and mitigate the risks that may arise from an inability to secure clients for large commercial or retail spaces at suitable rates.

Experienced Management Team

We have a strong management team with significant industry experience. Our Promoters, Mr. Ravi Raheja and Mr. Neel Raheja, have been instrumental in the growth of our hospitality and retail business and actively advise on finance, corporate strategy and planning. Further, our Managing Director and CEO, Mr. Sanjay Sethi has three decades of experience in the hospitality industry, including with leading Indian hotel chains, and across hotel segments. Further, our Executive Director and CFO, Mr. Rajeev Newar, has over 26 years of experience in roles in finance and management. Our Key Management Personnel and senior management include qualified professionals and industry experts, with significant experience across various industries and functions including finance, legal, projects and design, asset management, hospitality and logistics. Our Promoters, Board and management team have demonstrated an ability to enhance our performance by growing our business through different economic and industry cycles. We believe that the strength of our management team and its understanding of the hospitality and real estate market in India enables us to continue to take advantage of current and future market opportunities.

Backed by Leading Indian Real Estate Developer

We are part of K. Raheja Corp group which is a leading business group in India and we believe that we derive significant benefit from the confidence that consumers, lenders, commercial partners, vendors and others place in the group. The K. Raheja Companies have extensive experience in developing large scale real estate and commercial projects resulting in a strong understanding of industry and market trends, which we leverage to identify suitable locations and opportunities. We further leverage the experience and relationships of these companies with construction companies to develop hotels at optimal cost and quality. For example, the average development cost per room (including the cost of land), for our luxury hotel at Sahar, Mumbai, completed in financial year 2015 was ₹ 13.99 million. Further, our hotel project management and design team, works together with the K. Raheja Companies and leverages the experience of K. Raheja Companies' design teams to develop our hotel properties, commercial offices and malls.

Competitive Strategies

Focus on Maximizing Performance in Existing Portfolio through Active Asset Management

A critical part of our growth strategy is to continue our focus on maximizing the cost efficiency of our portfolio by following a disciplined approach to asset management, and a collaborative working arrangement with our hotel operators to drive strategic and tactical initiatives, to drive profitability. Some of the initiatives are listed below:

- alternative and optimal utilization of hotel spaces to maximize and diversify revenue sources besides room revenue by increasing our share of revenue from food and beverage, meeting rooms, club floors, conferences, events and commercial or retail space;
- continued focus on upgrading facilities to work towards a best-in-class experience across our existing hotels by undertaking renovations and rebranding exercises;
- improve staff productivity and efficiency through appropriate training and learning exercises and an optimal use of technology;
- undertake energy saving initiatives that are both cost-efficient and environmentally friendly as well explore shared service opportunities, such as laundry and finance operations, for our hotels located in the same city; and
- ensuring presence of leadership personnel commensurate with the size and scale of each hotel property.

Disciplined Development of Assets in the Current Pipeline

We are in the process of developing three additional hotel projects which are expected to have 588 keys and two projects representing commercial office space with built-up area (excluding car parking/utilities) of approximately 1.12 million square feet. We have traditionally acquired large parcels of land at competitive prices with the intention to develop hotel-led mixed-use projects. We seek to leverage unutilized FSI at some of our hotel locations which allows us to develop additional commercial or retail spaces. For example, we are developing commercial space in Powai, Mumbai and an IT Park in Whitefield, Bengaluru located on unutilized land at our hotel properties. We also intend to focus on developing new hotel-led mixed-use projects in prime locations with development sizes similar to our existing projects, and which feature a combination of hotels, retail developments and commercial office space. Our retail and commercial space under construction is expected to generate regular rental income and cushion the hospitality cash flow cyclicality. Retail and commercial space are also expected to complement the hospitality business and generate synergies within the hotel led mixed-use projects. For example, we believe that the development of our commercial and retail real estate projects in proximity to our hotels will provide benefits to our hotel business for MICE events and assist in driving room occupancy.

Expand Portfolio by way of Opportunistic and Accretive Acquisitions

The hospitality industry in India has recently experienced some consolidation according to the Horwath Report, and we will continue to explore opportunities for acquiring operating hotel assets. The hotel industry has seen considerable debt-related stressed assets, including projects that are left incomplete or completion prolonged due to lack of funding which creates acquisition opportunities, according to the Horwath Report. We seek to leverage our experience and in-house capabilities to acquire operational or near complete hotel assets at an attractive price to reduce replacement cost, initiate turnaround strategies through active asset management, brand repositioning, property enhancement or cost controls and derive benefits of economies of scale. We believe that our asset ownership model allows us the flexibility to acquire a variety of existing branded hotels unlike hotel companies which operate under their own brand.

Further, we will evaluate inorganic growth opportunities, in keeping with our strategy to grow and develop our market share. We may consider opportunities for inorganic growth, such as through acquisitions of operating hotel assets, if, among other things, they:

- are consistent with the positioning and parameters of our existing hotels and which we estimate are high-yielding hotel assets;
- consolidate our market position in strategic micro-markets in key metro cities;
- achieve operating leverage by unlocking potential efficiency and synergy benefits;
- strengthen and expand our portfolio to newer geographies across India which typically attract significant traffic from business and leisure travellers particularly in the NCR, Bengaluru, Pune, Chennai and Goa; and
- enhance our depth of experience and know-how.

Maintain a Sustainable Capital Structure and Ensure Prudent Capital Allocation

We seek to expand our portfolio of hotel properties organically or inorganically, based on industry developments and supply and demand movements across the hotel sector and in specific locations and micro markets. Our strategy is to invest in buying completed projects in demand dense markets when acquisition costs are low and we are able to obtain financing at suitable rates. We leverage our Company's and K. Raheja Companies' development strength to construct and develop our hotels and thereafter actively manage properties along with a suitable hospitality brand partner. Our approach has allowed us to allocate capital at opportune times to acquire land and build hotels efficiently. Once our hotels are operational, we aim to take advantage of growing demand to maximize revenue and returns by partnering with well-renowned hotel operators, as well as to reduce existing debt. As of September 30, 2018 and March 31, 2018, 2017 and 2016, our Average Cost of Indebtedness (including exchange (gain)/loss) was 12.92% 8.65%, 9.68% and 11.11%, respectively; Average Cost of Indebtedness (excluding exchange (gain)/loss) was 9.09%, 8.73%, 9.82% and 9.18%, respectively and our debt to equity ratio was 5.75, 5.42, 5.59 and 4.51, respectively. We aim to continue to reduce our cost of indebtedness through active evaluation of refinancing and alternative capital sources.

Opportunity for reflagging hotels or renegotiating hotel operation contracts

The hotel operation contracts for our operational hotels, including our serviced residence, at Powai, Mumbai and Hyderabad will be due for renewal in March 2020 and December 2021, respectively. Further, our license agreement for our hotel at Vashi, Navi Mumbai will be due for renewal in December 2021. This provides us with an opportunity to rebrand hotel assets or reposition our properties by using alternate brands at these hotels to better cater to expected demand in the respective micro markets where our hotels are located. Given the demand potential in the hospitality sector according to the Horwath Report, we believe that we may also be able to renegotiate better terms for our hotel operation contracts. We may also evaluate options of diversifying our asset portfolio to include more international brands of similar to higher positioning as our current brands, in order to reduce risk of reliance on any one hospitality company.

Our Hotel Business

As part of our hotel business, we are focused on developing high-end hotels and use our experience to actively manage the property to drive hotel performance. All of our hotels are in the luxury-upper upscale and upscale segments, according to the Horwath Report. We have developed our hotels at strategic locations generally with high barriers-to-entry close to airports, major business centres or commercial districts and other convenient locations. We determine, by detailed financial and operational analysis, whether the hotel operations should be undertaken directly by us or by engaging third party hotel operators. Currently, one of our hotels is operated by us under a license agreement, and four of our hotels, including our serviced residence, are operated by third party hotel operators pursuant to hotel operation and related agreements, all executed with Marriott.

Our Hotels Managed by Third Party Hotel Operators

As of September 30, 2018, we own four hotels, including a hotel with a co-located serviced residence, which are managed by third parties, which represent 2,176 keys. These hotels accounted for 84.73% and 90.23% of our revenue from operations for the six months ended September 30, 2018 and for the financial year 2018, respectively. Our hotels which are managed by third parties are located in three major metro cities in India, namely, Mumbai, Bengaluru and Hyderabad. These hotels are located on freehold land owned directly by our Company and the title to the buildings, equipment and furniture or fixtures generally vests with our Company. The table below provides certain details of our hotels which are managed by third parties, as of September 30, 2018:

Hotel Operators for Our Hotels Managed by Third Parties

We benefit from hotel operation contracts with Marriott for global brands such as JW Marriott, Westin, Marriott, Marriott Executive Apartments and Renaissance, with terms generally ranging from 10 to 20 years. We generally also enter into license and royalty agreements, international marketing program participation agreements, technical services agreements and training and computer systems agreements with the hotel operator or its affiliates, to leverage their management expertise, industry best practices, online reservation systems, marketing strategies, systems and processes, human resources and operational know-how.

The hotel operation agreements subject to the terms and limitations set forth in the agreements, generally provide the hotel operator with day-to-day operational control, including selection, recruitment, training and management of our personnel for the hotel together with determining their remuneration, determining the price and rate schedules for rooms, commercial spaces and other services, credit policies, managing food and beverage service, employment policies, receipt, holding, and disbursement of funds, maintenance of bank accounts, procurement of inventories, supplies and services, maintaining and renewing licenses and consents and entering into agreements on our behalf with regulatory and governmental authorities to ensure the smooth functioning of the hotel, negotiating and executing agreements with third parties such as vendors, licensees and concessionaires and carrying out marketing, sales, reservations and advertising operations for the hotel, among others. See “– Certain Key Agreements – Hotel Operation Agreements and Related Agreements” on page 164.

Renaissance Mumbai Convention Centre Hotel
and Lakeside Chalet, Mumbai-Marriott
Executive Apartments<sup>(1)</sup>

<sup>(1)</sup> We have entered into a non-binding Memorandum of Understanding, which is valid until March 31, 2019, for re-branding of our existing Renaissance Mumbai Convention Centre Hotel to 'Westin' hotel at Powai, Mumbai with Marriott Hotels India Private Limited ("Marriott") on January 7, 2019. We are currently in the process of negotiating terms with Marriott and subject to mutual acceptance of terms by both parties intend to enter into definitive hotel operating agreement(s). This is will be subject to receipt of relevant approvals, including approvals from respective board of directors of both parties.

Pursuant to the agreements entered into with hotel operators and their affiliates, our hotels are generally obliged to pay one time fees for design and construction consulting services, as well as, periodic operating fees, management fees, royalty fees for licensing the use of certain trademarks, fees for technical services rendered based on invoices raised and reimbursements for advertising, marketing, promotion, sales, software related expenses, training, reservations and loyalty programs incurred by the hotel operator or their affiliates. These operating and related agreements together provide for a multi-tiered fee structure that compensates the hotel operators based on a fixed percentage of the gross revenue of the hotel as well as a portion of gross operational profits, subject to certain exclusions and adjustments including periodic increments. See "Certain Key Agreements – Hotel Operation Agreements and Related Agreements" on page 164.

Our Active Asset Management Model

We follow an active asset management model for our hotels which are operated by Marriott. Our active asset management model entails that in addition to contractual obligations under agreements with Marriott, we closely monitor, exercise regular oversight and contribute to the performance of our hotel properties. As part of our active asset management model, we regularly:

- engage with the hotel management team at each hotel in order to discuss and agree on budgeting, cost management initiatives and operational and financial targets for each of our hotel properties. For example, we conduct detailed performance review meetings each month with the hotel management team to assess hotel performance on a host of parameters and provide regular inputs on cost saving initiatives and potential improvements;
- review performance reports generated by each hotel;
- conduct periodic meetings with hotel operator's management teams;
- discuss and optimize pricing strategies to maximize room yield by active monitoring of key corporate accounts and provide inputs on promotional activities;
- review furniture, fixtures and equipment deployment plans and assist with execution of these plans;
- review competitor set performance and penetration across relevant micro-markets; and
- assist in renewing licenses and consents, as necessary.

We have a specialised asset management team which, aiming to optimize profitability, undertakes extensive and comprehensive research and provides business intelligence, feasibility studies, capital outlay plans and financial analysis. This allows us to monitor property functioning, rationally review and control costs, and explore opportunities to further improve asset productivity. Learnings from each hotel are pooled in to ensure best practices are replicated, resulting in improved functioning.

Our Hotel Operations

Our five operating hotels, including a hotel with a co-located serviced residence, as of September 30, 2018 cater to the growing needs of our customers. Five key hotel operations departments: front office, housekeeping, food and beverage service, food production and spa services, are focused on ensuring customer experience and comfort through quality product and service offerings. In addition, support departments such as finance, stores, purchase, sales and marketing, engineering and maintenance, IT and security also play a role in ensuring efficient day-to-day operations. For our hotels operated by third parties, these functions are generally controlled by the hotel operators leveraging the operational experience of Marriott, while for our hotel at Vashi, Navi Mumbai, we carry out day-to-day operations with assistance from Marriott in the form of brand standards and guidelines and other assistance.

The marketing and loyalty strategy for our hotels is conducted by the hotel operators and licensor in discussion with us. Our hotels use online travel agents (“OTAs”) and websites of our hotel operators, as well as strategic and tactical sales and marketing initiatives to acquire customers. The loyalty programs of our hotel operators, reward guests for staying at our hotels and provides extra benefits, exclusive offers and personalized services to get repeat business from these members and also generate word of mouth publicity. We believe the premium location of our hotels and the high quality of our hotel properties, together with our relationship with leading international hospitality brands, enables us to attract our target customer base including large corporate key accounts such as information technology companies, airlines, multi-national corporations, consultancy firms and banks, deliver an enhanced customer experience, encourage repeat business and drive customer loyalty.

Certain Key Agreements

Hotel Operation Agreements and Related Agreements

We benefit from hotel operation contracts with Marriott for global brands such as JW Marriott, Marriott, Marriott Executive Apartments, Renaissance and Westin, with terms generally ranging from 10 to 20 years. We generally also enter into license and royalty agreements for the use of brands and trademarks, international marketing program participation agreements, technical services agreements or consultancy agreements and training and computer systems agreements or operating support agreements with the hotel operator or its affiliates, all generally having the same term as the corresponding hotel operation contracts.

Operational Services

We appoint the hotel operator to render the technical and professional services and to supervise and direct the operation of the hotel. The operation of the hotels is under the supervision and control of hotel operator. The hotel operators have discretion in matters relating to operation of the hotel, including, charges for guestrooms and commercial space, credit policies, food and beverage service, employment policies, receipt, holding, and disbursement of funds, maintenance of bank accounts, procurement of inventories, supplies and services, promotion and publicity, and such other activities as are specifically provided for or otherwise reasonably necessary for the proper and efficient operation of the hotel. The hotel operator is authorized to make routine maintenance, repairs and minor alterations, the cost of which is expensed to the account of the hotels. In general, the leases or grants of concessions for arcade shops to lessees or concessionaires are selected by mutual agreement between us and the hotel operator, where we have the right to review and approve the selections of the hotel operator. We are responsible for securing all necessary licenses, permits, approvals, and other instruments necessary for the hotel operations at the initial stage.

The hotel operators are required to prepare an annual operating plan, taking into account the specific market conditions expected to affect the hotel in the forthcoming calendar year. The annual operating plan includes an estimate of gross revenues, operating profit, occupancy and average room rate; and narrative descriptions of the advertising, sales and marketing program for the hotel. The annual operating plan is to be provided by the hotel operators to us for our review and the hotel operators are required to meet with us to discuss the annual operating plan.

Support Services

The hotel operators or their affiliates provide our hotels with access to international programs for advertising, marketing, promotion, and sales. These include purchase of advertising space in magazines, newspapers, and other printed media, as well as radio, television, and other electronic media; printing and publication of pamphlets, brochures, directories, and other materials; marketing, promotional, and public relations campaigns designed to increase sales or to increase public awareness; market research and the development of marketing products; access to marketing and sales offices throughout the world; retention of advertising agencies, marketing firms, public relations firms, and other professionals; and administration and management of the foregoing.

Hotel operators or their affiliates agree to provide training programs for the benefit of a limited number of management level employees at the hotel; as well as certain other employees at the hotel (to whom the hotel operators may choose to provide such training at their discretion). We are required to incur the expenses to install hardware and software necessary for use at the hotel to participate in the reservations system.

Improvements and Fit-Outs

On a periodic basis, we are required to carry out, at our own cost and expense, improvements including planning, design, construction, furnishing, and fitting equipment in accordance with hotel standards of the hotel operators and as agreed on in the agreements, within a stipulated time-frame. The hotel operators or their affiliates have provided us with design and construction consulting services, in order for us to implement the improvements and fit-outs at our hotels.

Hotel Employees

While the agreements state that certain key employees may be employees of the hotel operator, as of September 30, 2018, all employees working at our hotels are our employees together with certain personnel who are engaged on a contractual basis. The hotel operator has full discretion to hire, promote, supervise, direct, train, fix compensation, and generally establish and maintain all employment policies and practices. The payroll and related costs for all hotel employees such as, salaries, wages, bonuses, payroll taxes, social security, retirement payments or accruals, and provident fund and worker's compensation funds and employees' state insurance, among others are paid by the hotel.

Payment Terms

Pursuant to the agreements entered into with hotel operators and their affiliates, our hotels are generally obliged to pay one time fees for design and construction consulting services, as well as, periodic operating fees, management fees, royalty fees for licensing the use of certain trademarks, fees for technical services rendered based on invoices raised and reimbursements for advertising, marketing, promotion, sales and software related expenses incurred by the hotel operator or their affiliates. These operating and related agreements together provide for a multi-tiered fee structure that compensates the hotel operators based on a fixed percentage of the gross revenue of the hotel as well as a portion of gross operational profits as an incentive fees, subject to certain exclusions and adjustments including periodic increments. See "Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations" on page 585 for details of payments made by us pursuant to these agreements in the previous three financial years.

Reserve Account and Repairs and Alterations

Under the operating agreements, we are generally responsible to provide the initial working capital and inventories in amounts determined by the hotel operator as well as the funds necessary to supply the project with fixed asset supplies. Further, we are obliged to establish a separate interest-bearing bank account or reserve account, to cover the cost of, renewals, replacements, and additions to the furniture, fixtures, or other equipment of the hotel; and routine repairs, maintenance and additions to the hotel building, including, interior repairs, resurfacing walls, floors, ceilings and parking areas. The reserve is stipulated as a fixed percentage of the gross revenues of the hotel over a particular accounting period. The hotel operator is required to submit for our review, with the annual operating plan, a repairs and equipment estimate of the expenditures necessary in this regard.

Further, for major repairs, alterations, improvements, renewals, replacement, or additions, the hotel operator is required to submit for our approval, with the annual operating projection, a major repairs and building improvements estimate of the expenditures necessary. The hotel operator is not allowed to make any expenditures for any such major purpose without our prior consent, subject to certain limitations.

Certain Additional Obligations

We are required to maintain good and marketable title in the freehold property and hotel building, free and clear of any and all liens, encumbrances, or other charges. Other than in the manner specifically set out under the agreements, we agree not to enter into or grant a mortgage on the hotels. We are generally obliged not to enter into any agreement for the sale or transfer of the hotel (other than among certain specified affiliates) unless we obtain prior written consent of the hotel operator.

Project Accounts

All funds derived from operation of the hotel are deposited by hotel operator in bank accounts in our name, as approved by the hotel operator. We are obliged to agree with the hotel operator on an auditor to be engaged to perform quarterly audits of selected aspects of the books of control and account for the hotels.

License and Related Agreements

We benefit from an international license agreement with Luxury Hotels International of Hong Kong Limited for the global brand Four Points by Sheraton together with a centralised services agreement with Marriott. We are granted a non-exclusive right to develop and operate a hotel under the brand at the specified premises and using the systems provided. This gives us access to the Four Points by Sheraton brand and network, industry best practices, online reservation systems and websites, marketing strategies, systems and processes and operational know-how. We utilize the marketing, sales, reservations and advertising operations of the licensor and its affiliates on a central basis. Our hotels also receive access to software and systems such as reservations systems, sales program, marketing program and loyalty programs of the licensor and its affiliates together with related services.

The agreements include a schedule of specified services together with relevant rates for utilizing such services, which are expressed either as a fixed amount per use or on a monthly basis or as a percentage of gross room revenue, among other parameters. Pursuant to the agreements, our hotel was obliged to pay initial fees for design and construction consulting services at the time of construction. The hotel pays periodic license fees for licensing the use of certain trademarks, administrative fees. See “Management’s Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations” on page 585 for details of payments made by us pursuant to these agreements in the previous three financial years.

We are obliged to adhere to stipulated brand standards and guidelines issued by the licensor including, purchasing, installing in the hotel and renovating or refurbishing such furniture, fixtures, or other equipment as required to adhere to the stipulated requirements; maintaining supply or utilising only such products, materials, goods, and services in the operation of the hotel that comply with the brand standards or as approved by the licensor; keep open and operate the hotel on a continuous basis; and respond to and address guest complaints in a manner provided in the standards and policies of the licensor, among others. Our hotel is subject to periodic inspections by the licensor.

Our Commercial and Retail Business

As of September 30, 2018, we have developed two projects representing approximately 0.86 million square feet, adjacent to our hotel properties. These projects accounted for 3.62% of our revenue from operations for the six months ended September 30, 2018 and 2.76 % of our revenue from operations for the financial year 2018. These projects are located on freehold land owned directly by our Company. We earn lease and rental income from these properties. We have established longstanding relationships with several large corporate clients and domestic and global retail brands including food and beverage chains, department stores, consulting and management companies, among others. Such relationships help us secure retail clients for our new developments and mitigate the risks that may arise from an inability to secure corporate or retail clients for large commercial or retail spaces at suitable rates. In particular, we believe that our track record and the quality of our commercial and retail developments has enabled us to maximise our lease revenues through our established relationships with corporate clients and domestic and global retail clients.

The table below provides certain details of our commercial and retail projects, as of September 30, 2018:

Property Development Cycle

We utilise specialised design and project management teams for the development of our properties managing various aspects of our real-estate development from construction, design, approval and engineering. We have 19 personnel as of September 30, 2018 who have competencies in project execution, engineering and architecture. Our team is involved from technical feasibility assessment of a property, to design and supervision of on-site execution, through to commencement of operations and selectively engages third parties to support them in this initiative. Our team undertakes technical feasibility assessment, wherein they test product mix as per business development and market inputs; prepares project execution plans, budget estimates and schedules and monitors project progress, as well as works to mitigate involved risks and challenges. Our team keeps track of new technologies and products to adopt cost and time effective methods of construction to drive operational efficiency.

We leverage our capability in project management for efficient development and renovation of our projects. This team works with consultants and specialist agencies to deliver target results where we believe utilizing third party project management companies will be more efficient. The property development process entails employment of standardized parameters that allow for a consistent and replicable process, which in turn reduces variations in development costs and project time. The development model focuses on standardized designs and defined process for selection of sites, contractors and materials. K. Raheja Companies’ knowledge of construction dynamics in the markets in which we operate helps us ensure cost efficient development

Identification Process and Land Acquisition and Development Arrangements

Our site identification is based on a market selection process that leverages our management’s knowledge of Indian cities, understanding of our customer base, an analytical approach to site-selection that encompasses accessibility, local economy, potential for growth, demographics and socio-economic environment and adequate infrastructure.

While we do not fix any site specific criteria and consider location specific factors, key considerations for site selection include the economics of the site and our geographic strategy. Analysis of the economics of the site include assessment of the demand potential, considering among other factors the current and likely future demand, existing and future competition, pricing potential, local talent availability and prospects for increased infrastructure and accessibility. After the site is fully analysed from both a marketing and development perspective, the project is either discarded or advanced for a subsequent financial analysis and due diligence.

Project Planning and Tenders

While our management is generally involved in the design, project management and supervision of hotel development, it hires third party contractors for construction of the hotel. Contractors are awarded projects through a tender process. While each project is generally awarded subject to a project-specific bid, we also factor in the selection our prior experience, if any, with the vendor. While we maintain certain standard design features such as room size, bathroom size, dimensions for corridors and lobby, we continuously seek new and improved ideas that are then incorporated in future developments. Due to our standardization procedures, the customization required by contractors selected by us is minimized, which streamlines the construction timeframe and costs.

Execution, Construction and Safety Standards

The project planning and execution process commences with obtaining the requisite regulatory approvals, environmental clearances and location specific approvals. Completion and occupancy certificates are obtained from the appropriate authorities after the construction of properties is completed, in accordance with applicable law. For a more detailed explanation of the applicable regulations, see “Key Regulations and Policies in India” on page 173.

We monitor the development process, construction quality, actual and estimated project costs and construction schedules. The project management team and the contractor conduct site and activity reviews including a review of quality of work, adherence to project timelines and materials used.

We have endeavoured to develop each property with high safety standards. During construction, standards maintained by us are generally in line with those prescribed in India. A detailed safety manual has been created by us which ensures guidelines such as proper safety wear, safety signage, first aid protocol and task specific safety measures.

Our Intellectual Property

We own the registered name and mark ‘Chalet’ under various classes provided for under the Trade Marks Act, 1999. Additionally, we have applied for registration of  logo under various classes. We have received trademark registrations for the logo under Classes 31, 32, 33, 39, 41, 44 and 45 and application for registration under Classes 16, 29, 30, 35 and 43 are currently pending. See “Risk Factors – Our inability to protect or use intellectual property rights may adversely affect our business.” on page 39.

Information Technology

We utilize leading software and technology infrastructure to ensure our business runs smoothly. We have instituted a corporate data-center, which is equipped with virtual server environment supported by multi-layered advanced security infrastructure, policies and procedures and advanced threat protection tools to protect against cyber-attacks. We use an enterprise resource planning (“ERP”) software for our core business transactions along with an enterprise document management system. Further, we utilize third party software for sourcing and employee connectivity. We intend to implement software to cover tracking and managing compliance across locations, business analytics and dashboards, and business planning and consolidation software. We believe we have a strong IT setup with skilled resources that ensure secure working for our business.

Environmental Matters and Quality Standards

In connection with our ownership and management of hotels and development of properties, we are subject to various national, state and local laws and regulations relating to environmental laws. We have established construction and operating standards that comply with environmental sustainability requirements. We incorporate U.S. Green Building Council’s Gold Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (“LEED”) criteria in our hotel designs in order to achieve energy and water efficiency. For example our hotels at Sahar, Mumbai and Bengaluru have been built in accordance with the Indian Green Building Council’s LEED standards. Over time, environmental and cost saving the measures implemented at certain of our hotels by us include:

- energy management systems such as use of energy-saving LED lighting, solar panels, energy-saving key tags for guest rooms, and efficient evaporative cooling pad systems, heat recovery from boilers, chiller de-super heater, flash steam recovery and heat pumps;
- auto time management (for lighting, air-conditioning and ventilation fans) through timers and motion sensors;

- water management initiatives such as plant room optimiser with variable pumps and remote monitoring, sewage treatment plants which recycle water, motion sensors for public area wash rooms, dual-flow or low volume flush tanks and rain water harvesting; and
- building management systems.

We are also subject to various requirements, including those contained in environmental permits required for our operations, governing air emissions, effluent discharges, the use, management and disposal of hazardous substances and wastes and health and safety. See “Risk Factors – We are subject to extensive government regulation with respect to safety, health, environmental, real estate, excise and labour laws. Any non-compliance with, or changes in, regulations applicable to us may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition” on page 23.

In addition to our permanent employees, we utilize 531 personnel, as of September 30, 2018, engaged on a contractual basis at our hotels primarily for rooms, food and beverage and hotel administration functions. We consider ourselves to have good relations with our employees. In addition to compensation that includes both salary and allowances (including performance linked bonuses), we provide our employees other benefits which include insurance coverage, medical reimbursements and yearly leave. We believe these initiatives lead to an engaged and committed workforce. We have an external union at our hotel, convention centre and serviced residence in Powai, Mumbai, with which we believe we have an effective working relationship. See “Risk Factors – We have a large number of personnel or third party service providers deployed across our hotels, consequently we may be exposed to service related claims and losses or employee disruptions that could have an adverse effect on our reputation, business, results of operations and financial condition.” on page 28.

Our Community Initiatives

We believe that the benefits that we derive from operating in our geographical locations should also benefit the local communities. To achieve this, we partner with both the local communities and national level initiatives for development of underprivileged communities through our various hotel initiatives. We conduct several community outreach initiatives, including:

- differently abled and special children were invited to display a variety of products made by them;
- donation to Mumbai mobile creches to provide comprehensive and holistic day care to migrant children on construction sites;
- clothes and grains donation at the Cheshire Home for the old aged; and
- cleanliness drive was organized and around 30 employees actively took part and were able to clean the designated area, near Vashi Station.

Competition

Our hotels operate in the luxury-upper upscale and upscale hotel segments in India. The hotel industry in India is intensely competitive and we compete with large multinational and Indian companies in each of the regions in which we operate. We experience competition from other chain affiliated and independent hotels in the segments in which we operate, as well as certain hotels in the upper-midscale segments. Our success is largely dependent upon our ability to compete in areas such as location of the property, room rates, quality of accommodation, service level, and the quality and scope of other amenities, including food and beverage facilities.

See “Risk Factors – The hotel industry is intensely competitive and our inability to compete effectively may adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.” on page 31.

|                | receipt of CCI approval, the in-principle decision of merger of Newfound and Gigaplex was dropped and the company proposed to proceed with the said demergers. During the year ended 31 March 2016, the company had acquired the entire shareholdings of Dices Realcon Private Limited, Educator Protech Private Limited, Happy Eastcon Private Limited and Sampada Eastpro Private Limited (collectively referred to as 'the Subsidiaries'), who had entered into agreements to acquire certain premises in the project of the said Commerzone Division. Given the decision by the company to proceed with the demerger of the Commerzone Division and with the view to achieve consolidation of the said premises with the Commerzone Division, the Subsidiaries cancelled the said agreements and the said premises vested back in the Commerzone Division. The aforesaid developments had taken place around the end of the financial year 2015-2016 and the management of the company was evaluating various options relating to the Subsidiaries, including any possible merger of the Subsidiaries into the company. The company had also advanced certain loans to the Subsidiaries in the earlier years, and the principal and the interest thereon was recovered during the current financial year. The company has further invested Rs.54,300,000 in equity shares of the subsidiaries during the year. During the year ended 31 March 2017, the Board of Directors of the company have resolved to consider a merger of the Subsidiaries with the Companies under the pooling of interests method specified in Accounting Standard (AS) 14. Alternatively, the company continues to explore possibilities of commencing other projects in these subsidiaries, the plans of which are in a preliminary stage as of date. Given the future plans of the company to merge the Subsidiaries with the company or alternatively commence new projects in the Subsidiaries, the management believes that there is no impairment in respect of the investments made by the company in its Subsidiaries. | The company ('transferee company') and Trion Properties private Limited (TPPL) and K. Raheja Corp Private Limited (KRCPL) (together known as transferor companies) had filed Scheme of Arrangement of demerger of "TPPL undertaking" and "KRCPL Commerzone undertaking" under Section 230, 232 and 52 of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Scheme') with the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) during the year ended 31 March, 2017. Pursuant to the Scheme, the TPPL undertaking and the KRCPL Commerzone undertaking of transferor companies were transferred along with assets and liabilities to the company, with effect from the appointed date i.e. 1 April 2016. The Scheme was sanctioned by NCLT, Mumbai vide its order dated September 7, 2017 (effective date November 1, 2017). The total consideration of Rs. 970.26 Lakhs and Rs. 1.06 Lakhs is payable by the company for TPPL undertaking and KRCPL Commerzone undertaking to the respective transferor companies which is settled by the company through issue of equity shares during the year ended 31 March, 2018. The Scheme has become operative from 31 October upon filing of certified copy of order of NCLT, Mumbai with Registrar of Companies with an appointed date of 1 April 2016. The excess of amount of total consideration payable by the company over carrying value of net assets of TPPL undertaking and KRCPL Commerzone undertaking of the transferor companies on the appointed date aggregating to Rs. 1.32 Lakhs has been debited to the Reserves (under Retained Earnings). The company has accounted for this scheme of arrangement in accordance with the provisions of the Scheme as approved by NCLT, Mumbai whereby the assets and liabilities of the TPPL undertaking and KRCPL Commerzone undertaking of the transferor companies have been recognized at their respective carrying values in the balance sheet of the company as on 1 April 2016. As a result of the scheme of arrangement, the financial statements of the company as at 1 April 2016, for the years ended 31 March 2017 and 31 March 2018 incorporate and merge the book values of assets and liabilities and the profits and losses of TPPL undertaking and KRCPL Commerzone undertaking of transferor companies as given in table below. The accounting treatment of the net assets at book values instead of fair values and the acquisition date considered as the appointed date (i.e. 1 April 2016), instead of the effective date (i.e. November 1, 2017), based on the order of the NCLT, is not in accordance with Ind AS 103 – Business Combinations. |

We draw attention to Note 2.2 to the financial statements, which indicates that the company has incurred a net loss of Rs. 99,200,751 during the year ended March 31, 2018 and, as of that date, the company's current liabilities exceeded its current assets. These events or conditions, ALONG WITH OTHER MATTERS AS SET FORTH IN Note 2.2, indicate that a material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt on the company's ability to continue as a going concern. However, the financial statements of the company have been prepared on a going concern basis for the reasons stated in the said Note.

Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

Note 2.2 Going Concern -

As at 31st March 2018, the company's paid-up capital and reserves (excluding the deficit in the statement of profit and loss) were Rs. 100,000 and correspondingly, the company's accumulated losses aggregated to Rs.174,737,082/-(2017 : Rs.75,536,331/-). The company has incurred cash losses during the year. These events or conditions indicate that a material uncertainty exists that may cast significant doubt on the company's ability to continue as a going concern and therefore that it may be unable to realize its assets and discharge its liabilities in the normal course of business. The Management, however believes that, the company will be able to continue operations on a going concern basis and meet all its liabilities, as they fall due for payment in the foreseeable future based on continued financial support, as required, from the shareholders of the company.

The financial statements have been prepared on a going concern basis, based on the continuation of financial support received from the principal shareholders and taken in record by the Board of the company. Accordingly, these financial statements do not include any adjustments relating to the recoverability and classification of recorded assets or to amounts and classification of recorded liabilities that might be necessary, if the company is unable to continue as going concern.

DIVIDEND POLICY

The SEBI LODR Regulations requires listed companies to formulate a dividend distribution policy. Our Company has framed this policy to comply with the aforesaid requirements which has been approved by the Board. This policy shall be effective and applicable for dividend, if any, declared for Fiscal 2019 onwards. Dividends will generally be recommended by the Board once a year, after the announcement of the full year results and before the AGM, out of the profits of our Company for the current year or out of profits of our Company for any previous financial years or out of both, as may be permitted by the Companies Act 2013. In the event of inadequacy or absence of profits in any year, the Board may recommend declaring dividend out of the accumulated profits earned by our Company in any previous financial years and transferred to free reserves, provided such declaration of dividend shall be in accordance with the provisions of the Companies Act 2013 and rules framed thereunder. The Board may also declare interim dividends as may be permitted by the Companies Act 2013. Subject to the provisions of the applicable laws, our Company's dividend pay-out will be determined based on available financial resources, investment and business requirements and taking into account optimal shareholder return.

While determining the nature and quantum of the dividend pay-out, the Board would take into account the following factors:

Internal Factors: Cash flow position of our Company, profit after tax during the financial year, working capital requirements, capital expenditure requirement, future cash requirements for business expansion / organic growth and / or for inorganic growth, likelihood of crystallization of contingent liabilities, if any, up-gradation of technology and physical infrastructure, debt levels and cost of borrowings and past dividend pay-out ratio / trends.

External Factors: Business cycles, industry outlook for the future, economic environment, capital markets, global conditions, changes in the government policies and regulatory provisions and guidelines.

Circumstances under which the shareholders of the Company may or may not expect dividend: The shareholders of our Company may not expect dividend in the following circumstances, subject to discretion of the Board: a) proposed expansion plans, renovations and up-gradations requiring higher capital allocation, b) decision to undertake any acquisitions, amalgamations, merger, joint ventures, new launches etc. which requires significant capital outflow, c) requirement of higher working capital for the purpose of business of the Company, d) debt obligations, e) proposal for buy-back of securities and f) in the event of loss or inadequacy of profit.

Utilization of retained earnings: The Board may retain its earnings in order to make better use of the available funds and increase the value of the stakeholders in the long run. The decision of utilization of the retained earnings of our Company shall be based on the following factors: a) market expansion plans, b) organic and / or inorganic growth, c) diversification of business, d) long term strategic plans for growth, e) replacement of capital assets and f) such other criteria's as the Board may deem fit from time to time.

Objective of the dividend policy: The Board our Company has considered the above, and also taken into account the following objectives of the dividend distribution policy:

- This dividend distribution policy establishes the principles to ascertain amounts that can be distributed to Equity Shareholders as dividend by our Company as well as enable our Company to strike a balance between pay-out and retained earnings, in order to address future needs of our Company.
- The hospitality industry is a capital intensive industry and the hotels of our Company are owned by our Company which entails substantial capital outlays.
- The objective of this Policy is to reward its shareholders by returning a portion of its profits after retaining sufficient funds for growth of our Company thus maximizing shareholders' value.
- The Policy sets forth the broad principles for guiding the Board and the Management in matters concerning declaration and distribution of dividend, with a view to ensure fairness, transparency, sustainability and consistency in the decision for distributing profits to shareholders.

- Our Company believes that driving growth creates maximum shareholder value. Thus, our Company would first utilise its profits inter- alia for working capital requirements, capital expenditure to meet expansion needs, reducing borrowings, earmarking reserves for growth opportunities and thereafter distributing the surplus profits in the form of dividend to the shareholders.
- The Policy shall broadly specify the external and internal factors including financial parameters that shall be considered while declaring dividend and the circumstances under which the shareholders of our Company may or may not expect dividend and how the retained earnings shall be utilized, etc.

The amounts paid as dividends in the past are not necessarily indicative of our Company's dividend amounts, if any, in the future and there is no guarantee that any dividends will be declared or paid in the future. For details in relation to the risk involved, see "Risk Factors" on page 18.

In addition, our ability to pay dividends may be impacted by restrictive covenants under the loan or financing arrangements which our Company is currently availing of or may enter into to finance our fund requirements for our business activities. For further details, see "Financial Indebtedness" on page 617.

Our Company has not paid any dividend on the Equity Shares or Preference Shares issued by our Company in the last five financial years.

The Restated Standalone Summary Statement of Assets and Liabilities of the Chalet Hotels Limited as at September 30, 2018, March 31, 2018 and March 31, 2017 and the Restated Standalone Summary Statement of Profit and Loss (including Other Comprehensive Income), the Restated Standalone Summary Statement of Changes in Equity and the Restated Standalone Summary Statement of Cash flows for the period/years ended September 30, 2018, March 31, 2018 and March 31, 2017 and Restated Other Standalone Financial Information (together referred as 'Restated Standalone Financial Information') has been prepared under Indian Accounting Standards ('Ind AS') notified under Section 133 of the Companies Act, 2013 read with the Companies (Indian Accounting Standards) Rules, 2015.

For all periods up to and including the year ended March 31, 2017, the Company prepared its audited financial information in accordance with accounting standards notified under Section 133 of the Companies Act 2013, read together with paragraph 7 of the Companies (Accounts) Rules, 2014 ("Indian GAAP"). The financial statements for the year ended March 31, 2018 are the Company's first Ind AS financial statements. The date of transition to Ind AS is April 1, 2016.

The Company has elected to present all the five years including the period ended on September 30, 2018 in accordance with Ind AS/ Proforma Ind AS, instead of Indian GAAP. The Restated Standalone Financial Information for the years ended March 31, 2016, 2015 and 2014 has been prepared on Proforma basis (i.e. "Proforma Standalone Ind AS financial information") in accordance with requirements of SEBI Circular SEBI/HO/CFD/DIL/CIR/P/2016/47 dated March 31, 2016 ("SEBI Circular") and Guidance note on Reports in Company Prospectuses issued by Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (ICAI). For the purpose of Proforma Ind AS standalone financial information for the years ended March 31, 2016, 2015 and 2014, the Company has followed the same accounting policy and accounting policy choices (both mandatory exceptions and optional exemptions availed as per Ind AS 101) as initially adopted on transition date i.e. April 1, 2016. Accordingly, suitable restatement adjustments (both re-measurements and reclassifications) in the accounting heads are made to the Proforma Ind AS Standalone financial information as of and for the years ended March 31, 2016, 2015 and 2014. The basis of preparation for specific items where exemptions have been applied are as follows:

- (a) Property, Plant and Equipment (PPE): As permitted by Ind AS 101, the Company has elected to fair value land as at the date of transition to Ind AS (April 1, 2016) and use that fair value as its deemed cost at that date with the resultant impact being accounted for in the reserves.

For the purpose of Proforma Ind AS Standalone Financial Information for the years ended March 31, 2016, March 31, 2015 and March 31, 2014, the same has been accounted in accordance with the Guidance Note on Reports in Company Prospectus (Revised 2016). The fair value as on transition date is basis the land parcels and subsequent capitalisations made to the cost of land (for purchase of additional FSI) till such date (i.e. April 1, 2016). For the purpose of pushback of such fair value, proportionate fair value of such additions made is calculated based on the ratio of cost (adjusted for inflation) incurred for purchase of such additions to the total cost of such land. The fair value of such additions has been considered in their respective years of purchase by the Company.

- (b) All other items of PPE have been measured as per the requirements of Ind AS 16 retrospectively

Basis of preparation and presentation (Continued)

- (c) Intangible assets and Investment Properties- As permitted by Ind AS 101, the Company has elected to continue with the carrying value of all of its Intangible assets and investment properties recognised as at April 1, 2016 measured as per the previous Indian GAAP and use that carrying value as the deemed cost. For the purpose of Proforma Ind AS Standalone Financial Information for the years ended March 31, 2016, March 31, 2015 and March 31, 2014, the Company has provided the depreciation based on the estimated useful life of respective years.
- (d) Ind AS 103 Business Combinations has not been applied to business combinations, which are considered businesses under Ind AS that occurred before 1 April 2016. Pursuant to this exemption, goodwill arising from business combination has been stated at the carrying amount under previous GAAP. Use of this exemption means that the Indian GAAP carrying amounts of assets and liabilities, that are required to be recognised under Ind AS, is their deemed cost at the date of the acquisition after considering specific adjustments as required by Para C4 of Appendix C of Ind AS 101. For the purpose of Proforma Ind AS Standalone Financial Information for the year ended March 31, 2016, 2015 and 2014, the Company has continued with the existing exemption on the date of transition (i.e. April 1, 2016) and no retrospective assessment/ adjustments have been made except as those required by Para C4 of Appendix C of Ind AS 101.

SEBI has issued Securities Exchange Board of India (Issue of Capital and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2018 ('SEBI ICDR Regulations 2018') on 11 September 2018, which are effective from 11 November 2018. In consonance with the information in Draft Red Herring Prospectus ('DRHP'), as advised by the merchant bankers, the Company continues to comply with the SEBI ICDR Regulations 2009; and
- c) Guidance note on reports in Company prospectuses (revised 2016) issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India.

These Restated Proforma Ind AS Standalone Financial Information have been compiled by the Company from the Audited Standalone Financial Statements and:

- material amounts relating to adjustments for previous years in arriving at profit/loss of the years to which they relate, have been appropriately adjusted,
- adjustments for reclassification of the corresponding items of income, expenses, assets and liabilities, in order to bring them in line with the groupings as per the audited Standalone financial statements of the Company as at and for the period ended ended September 30, 2018 prepared under Ind AS and the requirements of the SEBI Regulations, and

A. Functional and presentation currency

The Restated Standalone Summary Financial Information is presented in Indian rupees, which is the Company's functional currency. All amounts have been rounded off to the nearest million with two decimals, unless otherwise indicated.

B. Use of estimates and judgements

While preparing the Restated Standalone Summary Financial Information in conformity with Ind AS, the management has made certain estimates and assumptions that require subjective and complex judgments. These judgments affect the application of accounting policies and the reported amount of assets, liabilities, income and expenses, disclosure of contingent liabilities at the restated standalone summary statement of assets and liabilities date and the reported amount of income and expenses for the reporting period. Future events rarely develop exactly as forecasted and the best estimates require adjustments, as actual results may differ from these estimates under different assumptions or conditions.

Estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis. Revisions to accounting estimates are recognised prospectively.

Judgement, estimates and assumptions are required in particular for:

- Determination of the estimated useful lives

Useful lives of property, plant and equipment and investment property are based on the life prescribed in Schedule II of the Act. In cases, where the useful lives are different from that prescribed in Schedule II and in case of intangible assets, they are estimated by management based on technical advice, taking into account the nature of the asset, the estimated usage of the asset, the operating conditions of the asset, past history of replacement, anticipated technological changes, manufacturers' warranties and maintenance support.

- Recognition and measurement of defined benefit obligations

The obligation arising from defined benefit plan is determined on the basis of actuarial assumptions. Key actuarial assumptions include discount rate, trends in salary escalation, actuarial rates and life expectancy. The discount rate is determined by reference to market yields at the end of the reporting period on government bonds. The period to maturity of the underlying bonds correspond to the probable maturity of the post-employment benefit obligations. Due to complexities involved in the valuation and its long term nature, defined benefit obligation is sensitive to changes in these assumptions. All assumptions are reviewed at each reporting period.

Basis of preparation and presentation (continued)

- Recognition of deferred tax assets

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are recognised for the future tax consequences of temporary differences between the carrying values of assets and liabilities and their respective tax bases, and unutilised business loss and depreciation carry-forwards and tax credits. Deferred tax assets are recognised to the extent that it is probable that future taxable income will be available against which the deductible temporary differences, unused tax losses, depreciation carry-forwards and unused tax credits could be utilised.

- Recognition and measurement of other provisions

The recognition and measurement of other provisions are based on the assessment of the probability of an outflow of resources, and on past experience and circumstances known at the closing date. The actual outflow of resources at a future date may therefore, vary from the amount included in other provisions.

- Discounting of long-term financial assets / liabilities

All financial assets / liabilities are required to be measured at fair value on initial recognition. In case of financial liabilities/assets which are required to subsequently be measured at amortised cost, interest is accrued using the effective interest method.

- Determining whether an arrangement contains a lease

At inception of an arrangement, the Company determines whether the arrangement is or contains a lease.

At inception or on reassessment of an arrangement that contains a lease, the Company separates payments and other consideration required by the arrangement into those for the lease and those for other elements on the basis of their relative fair values. If the Company concludes for a finance lease that it is impracticable to separate the payments reliably, then an asset and a liability are recognised at an amount equal to the fair value of the underlying asset; subsequently, the liability is reduced as payments are made and an imputed finance cost on the liability is recognised using the Companies incremental borrowing rate. And in case of operating lease, treat all payments under the arrangement as lease payments.

- Fair value of financial instruments

Derivatives are carried at fair value. Derivatives includes foreign currency forward contracts. Fair value of foreign currency forward contracts are determined using the fair value reports provided by respective bankers.

Further information about the assumptions made in measuring fair values is included in the following notes:

- Note J – impairment test of non-financial assets: key assumptions underlying recoverable amounts; and
- Note L – determining the fair value less costs to sell of the assets classified as held for sale on the basis of significant unobservable inputs.

Chalet Hotels Limited

(formerly known as Chalet Hotels Private Limited)

Basis of preparation and presentation (continued)

C. Measurement of fair values

The Company's accounting policies and disclosures require the measurement of fair values for, both financial and non-financial assets and liabilities.

The Company has an established control framework with respect to the measurement of fair values. Fair value is the price that would be received to sell an asset or paid to transfer a liability in an orderly transaction between market participants at the measurement date, regardless of whether that price is directly observable or estimated using another valuation technique. The management regularly reviews significant unobservable inputs and valuation adjustments. If third party information, such as broker quotes or pricing services, is used to measure fair values, then the management assesses the evidence obtained from the third parties to support the conclusion that such valuations meet the requirements of Ind AS, including the level in the fair value hierarchy in which such valuations should be classified.

When measuring the fair value of a financial asset or a financial liability, the Company uses observable market data as far as possible. Fair values are categorised into different levels in a fair value hierarchy based on the inputs used in the valuation techniques as follows.

- Level 1: quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities.
- Level 2: inputs other than quoted prices included in Level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly (i.e. as prices) or indirectly (i.e. derived from prices).
- Level 3: inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs).

If the inputs used to measure the fair value of an asset or a liability fall into different levels of the fair value hierarchy, then the fair value measurement is categorised in its entirety in the same level of the fair value hierarchy as the lowest level input that is significant to the entire measurement.

The Company recognises transfers between levels of the fair value hierarchy at the end of the reporting period during which the change has occurred.

Further information about the assumptions made in measuring fair values is included in the following notes:

- Note 2 to Annexure VI – Property, plant and equipment (Freehold land)
- Note 4 to Annexure VI – Investment property
- Note 17 to Annexure VI – Assets classified as held for sale
- Note 47 to Annexure VI – Financial instruments

- (b) it is held primarily for the purpose of being traded;
- (c) it is expected to be realised within twelve months after the balance sheet date; or

- (d) the Company does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement of the liability for at least twelve months after the balance sheet date.

All other liabilities are classified as non-current.

Operating cycle

Operating cycle is the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash or cash equivalents.

Based on the nature of services and the time between the acquisition of assets for processing and their realisation in cash and cash equivalents, the Company has ascertained its operating cycle as 12 months for the purpose of current – non-current classification of assets and liabilities.

3. Significant accounting policies

A. Business combination

As part of its transition to Ind AS, the Company has elected to apply the relevant Ind AS, viz. Ind AS 103, Business combinations, to only those business combinations that occurred on or after the transition date i.e. April 1, 2016.

The Company has accounted merger schemes in a manner prescribed by the High Court orders. The book values of the assets, liabilities and reserves of the Transferor Company have been recorded and the identity of the reserves has been maintained. The excess of book value of the net assets and reserves of the Transferor Company taken over, over the face value of the shares issued by the transferee Company has been debited to the Goodwill as per the Scheme. #### B. Revenue

i. Real estate development and sale

Interest income is included in other income in the Restated Standalone statement of profit or loss.

C. Foreign currency

D. Employee benefits

i. Short-term employee benefits

All employee benefits payable wholly within twelve months of rendering services are classified as short-term employee benefits. Short-term employee benefits are expensed as the related service is provided. A liability is recognised for the amount expected to be paid if the Company has a present legal or constructive obligation to pay this amount as a result of past service provided by the employee and the obligation can be estimated reliably.

Short-term benefits such as salaries, wages, short-term compensation absences, etc., are determined on an undiscounted basis and recognised in the period in which the employee renders the related service.

ii. Post-employment benefits

Defined contribution plans

Obligations for contributions to defined contribution plans such as Provident Fund and Family pension maintained with Regional Provident Fund Office are expensed as the related service is provided.

Defined benefit plans

The following post – employment benefit plans are covered under the defined benefit plans:

The Company provides for gratuity, a defined benefit retirement plan covering eligible employees. The Gratuity Plan provides a lump-sum payment to vested employees at retirement, death, incapacitation or termination of employment, of an amount based on the respective employee's salary and the tenure of employment with the Company. The calculation of defined benefit obligations is performed annually by a qualified actuary using the projected unit credit method. The retirement benefit obligation recognised in the balance sheet represents the actual deficit or surplus the Company's defined benefit plans.

When the calculation results in a potential asset for the Company, the recognised asset is limited to the present value of economic benefits available in the form of any future refunds from the plan or reductions in future contributions to the plan.

Remeasurement gains and losses arising from experience adjustments and changes in actuarial assumptions are recognised in the period in which they occur, directly in other comprehensive income. ## Annexure V: Basis of preparation and Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

iv. Employee stock option expense

The grant date fair value of equity settled share-based payment awards granted to employees is recognised as an employee expense, with a corresponding increase in equity, over the period that the employees unconditionally become entitled to the awards. The amount recognised as expense is based on the estimate of the number of awards for which the related service and non-market vesting conditions are expected to be met, such that the amount ultimately recognised as an expense is based on the number of awards that do meet the related service and non-market vesting conditions at the vesting date.

E. Income-tax

Income-tax expense comprises current and deferred tax. It is recognised in net profit in the restated standalone statement of profit or loss except to the extent that it relates to items recognised directly in equity or in the OCI.

i. Current tax

Current tax is the amount of tax payable (recoverable) in respect of the taxable profit / (tax loss) for the year determined in accordance with the provisions of the Income-tax Act, 1961. Taxable profit differs from 'profit before tax' as reported in the Restated Standalone Summary Statement of Profit and Loss because of items of income or expenses that are taxable or deductible in other years & items that are never taxable or deductible. Current income tax for current and prior periods is recognised at the amount expected to be paid to or recovered from the tax authorities, using tax rates and tax laws that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

Current tax assets and liabilities are offset only if, the Company:

- a) has a legally enforceable right to set off the recognised amounts; and
- b) intends either to settle on a net basis, or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

ii. Deferred tax

Deferred tax is recognised in respect of temporary differences between the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities for financial reporting purposes and the amounts used for taxation purposes. Deferred tax is not recognised for:

- temporary differences on the initial recognition of assets or liabilities in a transaction that is not a business combination and that affects neither accounting nor taxable profit or loss; and
- temporary differences related to investments in subsidiaries and associates to the extent that the Company is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary differences and it is probable that they will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Chalet Hotels Limited

Deferred tax assets are recognised for unused tax losses, unused tax credits and deductible temporary differences to the extent that it is probable that future taxable profits will be available against which they can be used. Deferred tax assets are reviewed at each reporting date and are reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that the related tax benefit will be realised; such reductions are reversed when the probability of future taxable profits improves. Unrecognised deferred tax assets are reassessed at each reporting date and recognised to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profits will be available against which they can be used.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply in the year when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date. Taxes relating to items recognised directly in equity or OCI is recognised in equity or OCI and not in the Restated Standalone Summary Statement of profit and loss.

The measurement of deferred tax reflects the tax consequences that would follow from the manner in which the Company expects, at the reporting date, to recover or settle the carrying amount of its assets and liabilities.

Deferred tax assets and liabilities are offset only if:

- a) the entity has a legally enforceable right to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities; and

H. Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs are interest and other costs (including exchange differences relating to foreign currency borrowings to the extent that they are regarded as an adjustment to interest costs) incurred in connection with the borrowing of funds. Borrowing costs directly attributable to acquisition or construction of a qualifying asset which necessarily take a substantial period of time to get ready for their intended use or sale are capitalised as part of the cost of that asset until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use or sale. Other borrowing costs are recognised as an expense in the period in which they are incurred.

I. Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker.

The management committee assesses the financial performance and position of the company, and makes strategic decisions. It is identified as being the chief operating decision maker for the Company. Refer note 49 for segment information presented.

J. Intangible assets

Recognition and measurement

Intangible assets comprises of trademarks and computer software and are measured at cost less any accumulated amortisation and accumulated impairment loss, if any.

Subsequent expenditure

Subsequent expenditure is capitalised only when it increases the future economic benefits embodied in the specific asset to which it relates.

Transition to Ind AS

On transition of Ind AS, the Company has elected to continue with the carrying value of all of its intangible assets recognised as at 1 April 2016, measured as per the previous GAAP, and use that carrying value as the deemed cost of such intangible assets.

Amortisation

Amortisation is calculated over the cost of the asset, or other amount substituted for cost, less its residual value. Amortisation is recognised in the Restated Standalone Statement of profit or loss on a straight-line basis over the estimated useful lives of intangible assets, from the date that they are available for use, since this most closely reflects the expected pattern of consumption of the future economic benefits embodied in the asset.

Intangible assets are amortised on straight-line method over estimated useful life of 3 years, which in management's view represents the economic useful life of these assets.

Intangible assets with indefinite useful lives and intangible assets not yet available for use are tested for impairment at least annually, and whenever there is an indication that the asset may be impaired.

Amortisation methods, useful lives and residual values are reviewed at each reporting date and adjusted if appropriate prospectively.

The carrying values of assets / cash generating units at each balance sheet date are reviewed for impairment if any indication of impairment exists.

If the carrying amount of the assets exceed the estimated recoverable amount, an impairment is recognised for such excess amount. The impairment loss is recognised as an expense in the Restated standalone summary statement of profit and loss, unless the asset is carried at revalued amount, in which case any impairment loss of the revalued asset is treated as a revaluation decrease to the extent a revaluation reserve is available for that asset.

Goodwill on business combination is not amortised but it is tested for impairment annually or more frequently if events or changes in circumstances indicate that it might be impaired.

The recoverable amount is the greater of the net selling price and their value in use. Value in use is arrived at by discounting the future cash flows to their present value based on an appropriate discount factor.

When there is indication that an impairment loss recognised for an asset (other than a revalued asset) in earlier accounting periods which no longer exists or may have decreased, such reversal of impairment loss is recognised in the Restated standalone summary statement of profit and loss, to the extent the amount was previously charged to the Restated standalone summary statement of profit and loss. In case of revalued assets, such reversal is not recognised.

K. Investment property and investment property under construction

(a) Recognition and measurement

Investment property is property held either to earn rental income or for capital appreciation or for both, but not for sale in the ordinary course of business, use in the production or supply of goods or services or for administrative purposes. Upon initial recognition, an investment property is measured at cost. Subsequent to initial recognition, investment property is measured at cost less accumulated depreciation and accumulated impairment losses, if any.

On transition to Ind AS, the Company has elected to continue with the carrying value of all of its investment property recognised as at 1 April 2016, measured as per the previous GAAP and use that carrying value as the deemed cost of such investment property.

Investment property and investment property under construction represents the cost incurred in respect of areas retail block and commercial office space. Property under construction is accounted for as investment property under construction until construction or development is complete.

Direct expenses like cost of land, including related transaction costs, site labour cost, material used for project construction, project management consultancy, costs for moving the plant and machinery to the site and general expenses incurred specifically for the respective project like insurance, design and technical assistance, and construction overheads are taken as the cost of the project.

L. Assets held for sale

Non-current assets are classified as held for sale if it is highly probable that their carrying amount will be recovered primarily through sale rather than through continuing use. This condition is regarded as met only when the asset (or disposal group) is available for immediate sale in its present condition subject only to terms that are usual and customary for sales of such asset (or disposal group) and its sale is highly probable. Management must be committed to the sale, which should be expected to qualify for recognition as a completed sale within one year from the date of classification.

When the Company is committed to a sale plan involving disposal of an investment, or a portion of an investment, in an associate, the investment or the portion of the investment that will be disposed of is classified as held for sale when the criteria described above are met, and the Company discontinues the use of the equity method in relation to the portion that is classified as held for sale. Any retained portion of an investment in an associate that has not been classified as held for sale continues to be accounted for using the equity method. The Company discontinues the use of the equity method at the time of disposal when the disposal results in the Company losing Significant influence over the associate or joint venture.

After the disposal takes place, the Company accounts for any retained interest in the associate in accordance with Ind AS 109 unless the retained interest continues to be an associate, in which case the Company uses the equity method (see the accounting policy regarding investments in associates above).

Such assets are generally measured at the lower of their carrying amount and fair value less costs to sell. Losses on initial classification as held for sale and subsequent gains and losses on remeasurement are recognised in Restated Standalone summary statement of profit and loss. Refer Note 18.

M. Financial Instruments

1. Financial assets

(a) Recognition and initial measurement

Trade receivable are initially recognised when they are originated. All other financial assets and financial liabilities are initially recognised when the Company becomes a party to the contractual provisions of the instrument.

A financial asset is initially measured at fair value plus, for an item not at Fair Value through Profit and Loss (FVTPL), transaction costs that are directly attributable to its acquisition or issue.

(b) Classification and subsequent measurement

The Company classifies its financial assets into a) financial assets measured at amortised cost, and b) financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss (FVTPL). Management determines the classification of its financial assets at the time of initial recognition or, where applicable, at the time of reclassification.

(i) Financial assets measured at amortised costs

A financial asset is classified at amortised costs if it is held within a business model whose objective is to a) hold financial asset in order to collect contractual cash flows and b) the contractual terms of the financial asset give rise on specific dates to cash flows that are solely payments of principal and interest on the principal amount outstanding.

After initial measurement, such financial assets are subsequently measured at amortised cost using effective interest rate method (EIR). Amortised cost is arrived at after taking into consideration any discount on fees or costs that are an integral part of the EIR. The amortisation of such interests forms part of finance income in the restated standalone summary statement of profit and loss. Any impairment loss arising from these assets are recognised in the restated standalone summary statement of profit and loss.

(ii) Financial assets measured at fair value through profit and loss (FVTPL)

This is a residual category for classification. Any asset which do not meet the criteria for classification as at amortised cost, is classified as FVTPL. Financial assets at fair value through profit or loss are measured at fair value, and changes therein are recognised in the restated standalone statement of profit or loss.

(iii) Financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income (FVOCI)

- Debt investments at FVOCI: These assets are subsequently measured at fair value. Interest income under the effective interest method, foreign exchange gains and losses and impairment are recognised in restated standalone summary statement of profit and loss. Other net gains and losses are recognised in OCI. On derecognition, gains and losses accumulated in OCI are reclassified to restated standalone summary statement of profit and loss.

- Equity investments at FVOCI: These assets are subsequently measured at fair value. Dividends are recognised as income in Restated standalone summary statement of profit and loss unless the dividend clearly represents a recovery of part of the cost of the investment. Other net gains and losses are recognised in OCI and are not reclassified to Restated standalone summary statement of profit and loss.

(c) Derecognition

The Company derecognises a financial asset when the contractual rights to the cash flows from the asset expire, or it transfers the rights to receive the contractual cash flows on the financial asset in a transaction in which substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset are transferred. Any interest in transferred financial assets that is created or retained by the Company is recognised as a separate asset and associated liability for any amounts it may have to pay.

(d) Impairment of financial assets

In accordance with Ind-AS 109, the Company applies Expected Credit Loss (ECL) model for measurement and recognition of impairment loss on the following financial assets and credit risk exposure:

a) Financial assets that are debt instruments, and are measured at amortised cost e.g., loans, debt securities, deposits, and bank balance.

3. Offsetting of financial assets and financial liabilities

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and the net amount presented in the restated standalone summary statement of financial position when, and only when, the Company has legal right to offset the amounts and intends either to settle on a net basis or to realise the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

4. Derivative financial instruments

The Company uses derivative financial instruments, such as foreign exchange forward contracts, interest rate swaps and currency options to manage its exposure to interest rate and foreign exchange risks. Such derivative financial instruments are initially recognised at fair value on the date on which a derivative contract is entered into and are subsequently re-measured to their fair value. The resulting gain/loss is recognised in Restated standalone summary statement of profit and loss immediately at the end of each reporting period. Derivatives are carried as financial assets when the fair value is positive and as financial liabilities when the fair value is negative. The Company does not designate the derivative instrument as a hedging instrument.

N. Provisions, contingent liabilities and contingent assets

Provisions are recognised when there is a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are determined by discounting the expected future cash flows specific to the liability. The unwinding of the discount is recognised as finance cost.

O. Leases

Leases are classified as finance leases whenever the terms of the lease transfer substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership to the lessee. All other leases are classified as operating leases. In determining whether an arrangement is, or contains a lease is based on the substance of the arrangement at the inception of the lease. The arrangement is, or contains, a lease if fulfilment of the arrangement is dependent on the use of a specific asset or assets and the arrangement conveys a right to use the asset, even if that right is not explicitly specified in the arrangement.

i. Lease payments

Payments made under operating leases are recognised in the Restated standalone summary statement of profit and loss on a straight line basis over the term of the lease unless such payments are structured solely to increase in line with expected general inflation to compensate for the lessor's expected inflationary cost increase, such increases are recognised in the years in which such benefits accrue.

ii. Lease assets

Assets held by the Company under leases that transfer to the Company substantially all of the risks and rewards of ownership are classified as finance leases. The leased assets are measured initially at an amount equal to the lower of their fair value and the present value of the minimum lease payments. The corresponding liability to the lessor is included in the restated standalone summary statement of assets and liabilities. Subsequent to initial recognition, the assets are accounted for in accordance with the accounting policy applicable to that asset.

Assets held under other leases are classified as operating leases and are not recognised in the Companies restated standalone statement of financial position.

P. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash and cash equivalent in the Restated standalone summary statement of assets and liabilities comprise cash at banks and on hand and short-term deposits with an original maturity of three months or less, which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value.

Q. Government Grants

Government grants are not recognised until there is reasonable assurance that the Company will comply with the conditions attaching to them and that the grants will be received.

Government grants are recognised in Restated standalone summary statement of profit and loss on a systematic basis over the periods in which the Company recognises as expenses the related costs for which the grants are intended to compensate. Specifically, government grants whose primary condition is that the Company should purchase, construct or otherwise acquire non-current assets are recognised as deferred revenue in the Restated standalone summary statement of assets and liabilities and transferred to Restated standalone summary statement of profit and loss on a systematic and rational basis over the useful lives of the related assets.

R. Earnings Per Share (“EPS”)

The basic Earnings Per Share (“EPS”) is computed by dividing the net profit / (loss) after tax for the year attributable to the equity shareholders by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year.

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, net profit/(loss) after tax for the year attributable to the equity shareholders and the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the year are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

Government Grants:

Appendix A of Ind AS 115, Revenue from Contracts with Customers, defines 'Revenue' as income arising in the course of an entity's ordinary activities. As per paragraph 3 of Ind AS 20, Accounting for Government Grants and Disclosure of Government Assistance, 'government grants' are assistance by government in the form of transfers of resources to an entity in return for past or future compliance with certain conditions relating to the operating activities of the entity. They exclude those forms of government assistance which cannot reasonably have a value placed upon them and transactions with government which cannot be distinguished from the normal trading transactions of the entity. The export incentive is in the nature of government grant and does not fall within the scope of Ind AS 115, as it is not revenue arising from contract with customer. Such export incentives are benefits given by the government to incentivise companies to export more products. In accordance with above, while recognising the income arising from SEIS scheme, the Company has applied the provisions of Ind AS 20. The presentation of such incentives is made in accordance with the relevant provisions of Ind AS 20 and Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013.

Pursuant to the Companies Act, 2013 being effective from April 1, 2014, the Company has revised the depreciation rates on investment property based on the management estimate of the useful lives of the assets, which are lower than or in accordance with Part 'C' of Schedule II of the Act. Consequently, depreciation charged for the period April 1, 2014 to March 31, 2015 is higher by Rs 9.04 million due to change in estimated useful life of certain assets wherein the opening carrying value as at April 1, 2014 is depreciated over the balance useful life.

ii. Valuation technique and significant unobservable inputs

Valuation technique

The fair value of investment property has been determined by external, independent property valuers / management, having appropriate recognised professional qualifications and recent experience in the location and category of the property being valued.

The fair value measurement for all of the investment property has been categorised as a Level 3 fair value based on the inputs to the valuation technique used.

The Company follows discounted cash flows technique. The valuation model considers the present value of net cash flows to be generated from the property, taking into account the expected rental growth rate, vacant periods, occupancy rate, lease incentive costs such as rent-free periods and other costs not paid by tenants. The expected net cash flows are discounted using risk-adjusted discount rates. Among other factors, the discount rate estimation considers the quality of a building and its location (prime vs secondary), tenant credit quality and lease terms. The land of Commercial Complex, Bengaluru - I office is valued by residual method.

Discount rate

The discount rate is a pre tax measure based on the rate of 10 year government bonds issued by the Government of India, adjusted for a risk premium to reflect both the increased risk of investing in equities generally and the systematic risk of the specific CGU.

Terminal value growth rate

Terminal value growth rate used for the purpose of calculation of terminal value has been determined based on the long-term compound annual growth rate in EBITDA.

The above assumptions are reviewed annually as part of management's budgeting and strategic planning cycles. These estimates may differ from actual results. The values assigned to each of the key assumptions reflect the Management's past experience as their assessment of future trends, and are consistent with external / internal sources of information.

Based on the above assumptions and analysis, no impairment was identified for any of the CGU as at September 30, 2018, March 31, 2018, March 31, 2017, March 31, 2016, March 31, 2015 and March 31, 2014 as the recoverable value of the CGU exceeded the carrying value.

With regard to the assessment of value in use, no reasonably possible change in any of the above key assumptions would cause the carrying amount of the CGUs to exceed their recoverable amount.
